PREFACE

This Code constitutes a complete codification of the general and permanent ordinances of Pinellas County, Florida, and consists of the Pinellas County Code (designated as part II) and the Pinellas County Land Development Code (designated as part III).

Source materials used in the preparation of the Code were the ordinances adopted by the board of county commissioners. The source of each section is included in the history note appearing in parentheses at the end thereof. The absence of such a note indicates that the section is new and was adopted for the first time with the adoption of the Code. By use of the comparative tables appearing in the back of this Code, the reader can locate any ordinance included herein.

The chapters of the Code have been conveniently arranged in alphabetical order, and the various sections within each chapter have been catchlined to facilitate usage. Notes which tie related sections of the Code together and which refer to relevant state law have been included. A table listing the state law citations and setting forth their location within the Code is included at the back of this Code.

Chapter and Section Numbering System

The chapter sand section numbering system used in this Code is the same system used in many state and local government codes. Each section number consists of two parts separated by a dash. The figure before the dash refers to the chapter number, and the figure after the dash refers to the position of the section within the chapter. Thus, the second section of chapter 1 is numbered 1-2, and the first section of chapter 6 is 6-1. Under this system, each section is identified with its chapter, and at the same time new sections can be inserted in their proper place by using the decimal system for amendments. For example, if new material consisting of one section that would logically come between sections 6-1 and 6-2 is desired to be added, such new section would be numbered 6-1.5. New articles and new divisions may be included in the same way or, in the case of articles, may be placed at the end of the chapter embracing the subject, and, in the case of divisions, may be placed at the end of the article embracing the subject. The next successive number shall be assigned to the new article or division. New chapters may be included by using one of the reserved chapter numbers. Care should be taken that the alphabetical arrangement of chapters is maintained when including new chapters.

The page numbering system used in this Code is a prefix system. The letters to the left of the colon are an abbreviation which represents a certain portion of the volume. The number to the right of the colon represents the number of the page in that portion. In the case of a chapter of the Code, the number to the left of the colon indicates the number of the chapter. In the case of an appendix to the Code, the letter immediately to the left of the colon indicates the letter of the appendix. The following are typical parts of codes of ordinances, which may or may not appear in this Code at this time, and their corresponding prefixes:

CODE	CD1:1
CODE APPENDIX	CDA:1 CDB:1
CODE COMPARATIVE TABLES	CCT:1

Indexes

The indexes have been prepared with the greatest of care. Each particular item has been placed under several headings, some of which are couched in lay phraseology, others in legal terminology, and still others in language generally used by local government officials and employees. There are numerous cross references within the indexes themselves which stand as guideposts to direct the user to the particular item in which the user is interested.

Looseleaf Supplements

A special feature of this publication is the looseleaf system of binding and supplemental servicing of the publication. With this system, the publication will be kept up-to-date. Subsequent amendatory legislation will be properly edited, and the affected page or pages will be reprinted. These new pages will be distributed to holders of copies of the publication, with instructions for the manner of inserting the new pages and deleting the obsolete pages.

Keeping this publication up-to-date at all times will depend largely upon the holder of the publication. As revised pages are received, it will then become the responsibility of the holder to have the amendments inserted according to the attached instructions. It is strongly recommended by the publisher that all such amendments be inserted immediately upon receipt to avoid misplacing them and, in addition, that all deleted pages be saved and filed for historical reference purposes.

Acknowledgments

This publication was under the direct supervision of Roger D. Merriam, Supervising Editor, and Charles Vignos, Editor, of the Municipal Code Corporation, Tallahassee, Florida. Credit is gratefully given to the other members of the publisher's staff for their sincere interest and able assistance throughout the project.

The publisher is most grateful to Ms. Susan Churuti, County Attorney, and Mr. Jim Bennett, Chief Assistant County Attorney, for their cooperation and assistance during the progress of the work on this publication. It is hoped that their efforts and those of the publisher have resulted in a Code of Ordinances which will make the active law of the county readily accessible to all citizens and which will be a valuable tool in the day-to-day administration of the county's affairs.

PART I - CHARTER[1]

PREAMBLE

Whereas, the board of county commissioners of Pinellas County, Florida, presently derives its legal authority from a combination of general laws, general laws of local application which apply only to Pinellas County, and special laws, all of which emanate from the Legislature of the State of Florida, and

Whereas, under this legal framework the powers, duties and responsibilities of the board of county commissioners are difficult, if not impossible to define, and

Whereas, the only legal method available to the board of county commissioners to define its powers, duties, and responsibilities under the Constitution of the State of Florida is the adoption of a Home Rule Charter, and

Whereas, the board of county commissioners believes that such a charter should be conceived in the interest of cooperation with the municipalities and other governmental units of this county, with the integrity of the rights of the municipalities guaranteed.

Footnotes:
--- (1) ---

Editor's note—Printed herein is the county's charter, being Laws of Fla. ch. 80-590, § 1. The charter was effective upon approval at referendum. The charter was approved at an election held on Oct. 7, 1980. Amendments are indicated by parenthetical history notes following amended provisions. The absence of a history note indicates that the provision remains unchanged from the original charter. Obvious misspellings have been corrected without notation. For stylistic purposes, a uniform system of headings, catchlines and citations to state statutes has been used. Additions made for clarity are indicated by brackets.

ARTICLE I. - CREATION OF GOVERNMENT

Sec. 1.01. - Body corporate.

Pinellas County shall be a body corporate and politic, and shall have all rights and powers of local self-government which are now or may hereafter be provided by the constitution and laws of Florida and this Charter and as such may contract and be contracted with, and may sue and be sued and be impleaded in all the courts of this state and in all matters whatsoever.

Sec. 1.02. - Name and county seat.

The corporate name shall be Pinellas County, hereinafter referred to as the county. Said name shall be so designated in all legal actions or proceedings involving the county. The county seat shall be that presently designated by law.

ARTICLE II. - POWERS AND DUTIES OF THE COUNTY

Sec. 2.01. - Powers and duties.

The county shall have all powers of local self-government not inconsistent with general law, with special law approved by vote of the electors, or with this Charter.

In the event of a conflict between a county ordinance and a municipal ordinance, the county ordinance shall prevail over the municipal ordinance when general law provides that a county ordinance shall prevail over a municipal ordinance, or when it concerns a power of local county government lawfully and constitutionally enacted by special law at the time of the adoption of this Charter, except that the county shall not hereafter amend such special law or laws to increase or expand the county's power, jurisdiction, or services over the municipalities or their powers or services. The county ordinance shall prevail over the municipal ordinance when a special law enacted subsequent to the adoption of this Charter and approved by a vote of the electorate provides that a county ordinance shall prevail over a municipal ordinance or when the county is delegated special powers within an area of governmental service enumerated in this Charter. In all other cases where a county ordinance conflicts with a municipal ordinance, the municipal ordinance shall prevail.

Passage of proposed amendments shall require approval of a majority of electors voting in said election on such amendment.

Sec. 6.02. - Charter initiative.

Amendments to the Charter may be proposed by a petition signed by registered electors equal to at least ten (10) percent of the number of registered electors of the county at the time of the last preceding general election. No more than forty (40) percent of those registered electors signing petitions shall reside in any one (1) at-large county commission district. In the event sufficient signatures are not acquired during that one hundred eighty (180) day period, the petition initiative shall be rendered null and void and none of the signatures may be carried over onto another identical or similar petition. The sponsor shall submit signed and dated forms to the supervisor of elections and upon submission pay all fees as required by general law. The supervisor of elections shall within forty-five (45) days verify the signatures thereon. Notwithstanding the time limits hereinabove signatures on a petition circulated prior to one general election shall not be valid beyond the date of that election.

However, any charter amendment affecting any change in function, service, power, or regulatory authority of a county, municipality, or special district may be transferred to or performed by another county, municipality, or special district only after approval by vote of the electors of each transferor and approval by vote of the electors of each transferee. Such amendments proposed by the Board of County Commissioners must be approved by ordinance passed by a majority plus one member. The power to amend, revise, or repeal this Charter by citizens' initiative shall not include amendments relating to the county

Prior to submitting such recommendations, the reconstituted charter review commission shall hold three public hearings at intervals of not less than ten (10) nor more than twenty (20) days. At the final hearing, the reconstituted charter review commission shall incorporate any recommendations it deems desirable, vote upon a proposed form of revised charter, and forward said charter to the board of county commissioners.

The reconstituted charter review commission established pursuant to this section shall complete its review and submit a report to the board of county commissioners no later than June 30, 2006, unless such time is extended by the board of county commissioners. Included within the report shall be any proposed amendments to the Charter, which may include substantial revisions of the Charter, together with the wording of the question or questions, which shall be voted on at referendum. Proposed amendments may, at the discretion of the reconstituted charter review commission, be included in a single question or multiple questions. The board of county commissioners shall call a referendum election to be held in conjunction with the 2006 general election, for the purpose of voting on the proposal or proposals submitted by the charter review commission. Notice of each such referendum, together with the exact language of the proposed amendment or amendments as submitted in the report of the charter revision commission, shall be published by the board of county commissioners once a week for four (4) consecutive weeks in a newspaper of general circulation in the county, the first such publication being at least forty-five (45) days prior to the referendum. Sec. 1-4. - Effect of repeal of ordinances.

(a)

The repeal or amendment of an ordinance shall not revive any ordinance in force before or at the time the ordinance repealed or amended took effect.

(b)

The repeal or amendment of any ordinance shall not affect any punishment or penalty incurred before the repeal took effect, nor any suit, prosecution or proceeding pending at the time of the repeal for an offense committed under the ordinance repealed or amended.

Sec. 1-5. - Amendments to Code; effect of new ordinances; amendatory language.

All ordinances passed subsequent to the adoption of this Code which amend, repeal or in any way affect this Code may be numbered in accordance with the numbering system of this Code and printed for inclusion herein. Repealed chapters, sections and subsections, or any part thereof, by subsequent ordinances may be excluded from this Code by the omission thereof from reprinted pages affected thereby. The subsequent ordinances as numbered and printed, or omitted in the case of repeal, shall be prima facie evidence of these subsequent ordinances until such time that this Code and subsequent ordinances are readopted as a new Code.

(b)

Amendments to any of the provisions of this Code may be made by amending those provisions by specific reference to the section number of this Code in the following language:

"Section _____ of the Pinellas County Code is hereby amended to read as follows:…."

The new provisions may then be set out in full as desired.

(c)

If a new section not then existing in the Code is to be added, the following language may be used:

Sec. 1-6. - Supplementation of Code.

(a)

Supplements to this Code shall be prepared and printed whenever authorized or directed by the county. A supplement to the Code shall include all substantive permanent and general parts of ordinances adopted during the period covered by the supplement and all changes made thereby in the Code. The pages of a supplement shall be so numbered that they will fit properly into the Code and will, where necessary, replace pages that have become obsolete or partially obsolete, and the new pages shall be so prepared that, when they have been inserted, the Code will be current through the date of adoption of the latest ordinance included in the supplement.

(b)

In preparing a supplement to this Code, all portions of the Code that have been repealed shall be excluded from the Code by the omission thereof from reprinted pages.

(c)

When preparing a supplement to this Code, the person authorized to prepare the supplement may make formal, nonsubstantive changes in ordinances and parts of ordinances included in the supplement, insofar as it is necessary to do so to embody them into a unified code. For example, the person may:

(1)

Organize the ordinance material into appropriate subdivisions.

(2)

Provide appropriate catchlines, headings and titles for sections and other subdivisions of the Code printed in the supplement, and make changes in such catchlines, headings and titles.

(3)

Assign appropriate numbers to sections and other subdivisions to be inserted in the Code and, where necessary to accommodate new material, change existing section or other subdivision numbers.

(4)

Change the words "this ordinance" or words of the same meaning to "this chapter," "this article," "this division," etc., as the case may be, or to "sections _____ to _____" (inserting section numbers to indicate the sections of the Code which embody the substantive sections of the ordinance incorporated into the Code).

(5)

Make other nonsubstantive changes necessary to preserve the original meaning of ordinance sections inserted into the Code.

(d)

In no case shall the person preparing a supplement to this Code make any change in the meaning or effect of ordinance material included in the supplement or already embodied in the Code.

Sec. 1-7. - Severability.

It is declared to be the intent of the board of county commissioners that if any section, subsection, sentence, clause, phrase or portion of this Code or any ordinance is for any reason held or declared to be unconstitutional, inoperative or void, such holding or invalidity shall not affect the remaining portions of this Code or any ordinance, and it shall be construed to have been the legislative intent to pass this Code or such ordinance without such unconstitutional, invalid or inoperative part therein, and the remainder of this Code or such ordinance after the exclusion of such part or parts shall be deemed and held to be valid as if such part or parts had not been included in this Code. If this Code or any ordinance or any provision thereof shall be held inapplicable to any person, group of persons, property or kind of property, or circumstances or set of circumstances, such holding shall not affect the applicability of this Code or any such ordinance to any other person, property or circumstance.

Sec. 1-8. - General penalty; continuing violations.

(a)

As used in this section, "violation of this Code" means:

(1)

(2)

Failure to perform an act that is required to be performed by ordinance or by rule or regulation authorized by ordinance; or

(3)

Failure to perform an act if the failure is declared a misdemeanor or an offense or unlawful by ordinance or by rule or regulation authorized by ordinance.

(b)

As used in this section, "violation of this Code" does not include the failure of a county officer or county employee to perform an official duty unless it is provided that failure to perform the duty is to be punished as provided in this section.

(c)

Except as otherwise provided by law or ordinance, a person convicted of a violation of this Code shall be punished by a fine not to exceed $500.00. With respect to violations of this Code that are continuous with respect to time, each day the violation continues is a separate offense.

(d)

The imposition of a penalty does not prevent the revocation or suspension of a license, permit or franchise, or the imposition of civil fines or other administrative actions, including action pursuant to F.S. ch. 162 and article VIII of chapter 2 of the Pinellas County Code, nor does it preclude other civil judicial remedies.

(e)

The board of county commissioners is authorized and empowered to institute legal proceedings in the circuit court of the county for the purpose of obtaining injunctive relief and such other relief as may be proper under the law against violators of this Code. This remedy is in addition to all other remedies. The imposition of a penalty does not prevent equitable relief.

(Ord. No. 75-9, § 1, 4-15-75; Ord. No. 06-07, § 1, 1-24-07; Ord. No. 07-05, § 1, 1-9-07)

(b)

All ordinances specified in subsection (a) of this section are hereby recognized as continuing in full force and effect to the same extent as if set out at length in this Code.

(c)

Nothing in this Code or the ordinance adopting this Code repeals or modifies any exhibit, attachment or appendix to an ordinance referenced in this Code if the exhibit, attachment or appendix is not published in this Code.

Sec. 1-10. - Provisions considered as continuation of existing ordinances.

(a)

The provisions appearing in this Code, so far as they are the same as those of ordinances existing at the time of the adoption of this Code, shall be considered as a continuation thereof and not as new enactments.

(b)

The adoption of this Code does not alter the effective date of any ordinance in this Code, it being the intent of the board of county commissioners that the adoption of this Code shall not be interpreted as creating any new preexisting uses or altering the date by which preexisting uses must comply with a county ordinance.

Sec. 1-11. - Code does not affect prior offenses, penalties or rights.

Nothing in this Code or the ordinance adopting this Code shall affect any offense or act committed or done, or any penalty or forfeiture incurred, or any contract or right established or accruing before the effective date of this Code.

Editor's note— Ordinance No. 97-3, adopted Jan. 7, 1997, did not specifically amend this Code; hence, its inclusion as § 1-12 was at the discretion of the editor.

Sec. 1-13. - Liens; priorities.

Each and every lien in favor of Pinellas County existing from the delivery of services, including liens for special assessments, code enforcement and the like, shall be deemed to be prior in dignity to any other lien, including mortgages, irrespective of the date of recording of the lien or the date of recording any mortgage or other lien on real property and such lien shall survive any action to foreclose such inferior lien, whether such inferior lien, arises by virtue of a mortgage, mechanic's lien or other security interest in real property; provided, however, that nothing herein contained shall be construed to be inconsistent with or repugnant to any law or statute respecting the priority of liens, and where such law or statute specifically provides for the priorities of liens, the provisions hereof shall be construed to achieve harmony therewith.

ARTICLE I. - IN GENERAL

Sec. 2-1. - County seat.

The Town [now City] of Clearwater shall be the county seat of said county.

(Laws of Fla. ch. 6247(1911), § 3)

Editor's note— The act contained in the above section apparently retains its status as a special act because of the nature of the act, being a part of the act that originally created the county. The county seat cannot be changed without a referendum. See Fla. Const. art. VIII, § 1(k); F.S. ch. 138. The source is stated in the history note following the section. Unless stated otherwise, the presence of more than one act in a history note indicates that the section is derived from the first listed act as amended by the other acts listed in the history note. Obvious misspellings and punctuation errors have been corrected without notation. For stylistic purposes, a uniform system of headings, catchlines, capitalization, citations to state statutes and session laws, and expression of numbers in text has been used. Catchlines have been added or adjusted as necessary to accurately reflect the contents of the sections. Textual references to other sections of the same act or to other acts found in this Code are altered so as to reference this Code. The internal numbering or lettering scheme within the section has been made consistent with the scheme used in this Code; however deleted paragraphs are reserved to maintain sequence. Additions for clarity are indicated by brackets.

Charter reference— County seat continued, § 1.02.

Sec. 2-2. - Guidelines for charter amendment petitions.

Because the opportunity to participate in competitive procurements or to supply goods or services to the county is a privilege, not a right, this privilege should be denied to persons or entities that engage or are involved in activities or actions as described herein that adversely impact the quality of goods and services provided to the county for the benefit of the public. In those instances, it is in the best interests of the public to disqualify vendors by suspension or debarment from inclusion on future vendor lists or from consideration for award of new contracts, work, or any work assignments on existing contracts, based upon documentation that the grounds for suspension or debarment as provided herein exist.

Suspension. A vendor shall be suspended for a period of two years or until the conditions described herein have been rectified or resolved, whichever occurs first, as determined by the purchasing director based upon the following:

Debarment. A vendor shall be permanently debarred by the purchasing director based on the following:

a.

The county obtains a judgment in an adversarial proceeding between the county and the vendor (i.e., court proceeding, arbitration, or administrative proceeding) arising from the vendor's performance of a contract with the county which remains unsatisfied for a period of 30 days from the expiration of any appeal period or final resolution of any appeal; or

b.

Vendor conviction by or judgment obtained in a court of competent jurisdiction for commission of those offenses in connection with the vendor's business activities stated in subsection (b)(1)c above; [or]

c.

Vendor is debarred by another government entity.

(3)

Public entity crime. Notwithstanding any other provision herein, any vendor who has been convicted of a public entity crime as defined by F.S. § 287.133 shall not be able to transact business with the county to the extent as specified in the statute.

(4)

Decision. The purchasing director shall issue a written notification to suspend or debar based on documentation of the existence of one or more of the conditions described herein. The suspension or debarment shall take effect as of the date of the notification. The notification shall state the basis for the action taken and the period of the suspension, or that the vendor has been debarred. Prior to issuance of written notification, the purchasing director may schedule an informational meeting with the vendor to review the documentation supporting the suspension or debarment. The only issue that shall be considered at the informational meeting is whether the condition giving rise to the suspension or debarment has occurred or taken place.

(5)

Effects of suspension and debarment.

Suspended or debarred vendors are excluded from receiving any new contracts, awards or otherwise providing new goods or additional services during the period of suspension or during debarment; from having any bids, proposals, quotations or qualifications considered by the county or responding to other solicitations of the county; and from conducting business with the county as a subcontractor, representative, or joint venturer of other vendors. For the purposes of this subsection (b)(5)a, "new goods or additional services" does not include goods or services provided by the vendor pursuant to a contract, purchase order or work assignment in effect as of the date of suspension.

Any business entity controlled by or affiliated with any vendor ineligible for new business pursuant to subsection (b)(5)a may also be prohibited from contracting with the county if the relationship or affiliation is such that the person or business entity by reason of the relationship with the ineligible person or entity could directly benefit from the contract. Such factors as ownership interest, one or more members of the board of officials in common, control of one entity by the other, interlocking or shared management or principals, and limited management and ownership among family members shall be considered in determining ineligibility under this section of this article.

(6)

Reinstatement. After suspension or debarment, a vendor is not eligible to contract or be awarded work with Pinellas County until reinstated by the purchasing director. The vendor must supply information and reasonable documentation indicating that the conditions causing the suspension or debarment have been rectified or resolved. If the charges referenced in subsection (b)(1)c are dismissed or the vendor is found not guilty, the suspension shall be lifted automatically upon written notification and proof of final court disposition provided by the vendor to the county. If the conviction or judgment referenced in subsection (b)(2)b is reversed through the appellate process, the debarment shall be removed immediately upon written notification and proof of final court disposition from the vendor to the county. As a condition of reinstatement, and with approval of the county administrator, the purchasing director may limit the nature and scope of contractual undertakings that must be satisfactorily completed before seeking additional contracts from the county. Nothing herein prevents the county from granting reinstatement prior to the end of the suspension period or debarment where, in the purchasing director's judgment, the county's interests have been addressed and the vendor to be reinstated is not likely to engage in similar conduct again.

Sec. 2-162. - Protest procedure.

Right to protest. Any prospective bidder or proposer who is aggrieved by the contents of the bid or proposal package, or any bidder or proposer who is aggrieved in connection with the recommended award on a bid or proposal solicitation, may file a written protest to the director of purchasing as provided herein. This right to protest is strictly limited to those procurements of goods or services solicited through invitations to bid or requests for proposals, including solicitations pursuant to F.S. § 287.055, the "Consultants' Competitive Negotiation Act." No other actions or recommendations in connection with a solicitation can be protested, including: (i) requests for quotations or requests for qualifications; (ii) rejection of some, all or parts of bids or proposals; (iii) disqualification of bidders or proposers as non-responsive or nonresponsible; or (iv) recommended awards less than the mandatory bid or proposal amount. Protests failing to comply with the provisions of this section shall not be reviewed.

(b)

Posting. The purchasing department shall post the recommended award on the departmental website no less than five full business days after the decision to recommend the award is made.

(c)

Requirements to protest.

(1)

If the protest relates to the content of the bid/proposal package, a formal written protest must be filed no later than 5:00 p.m. on the fifth full business day after issuance of the bid/proposal package.

(2)

If the protest relates to the recommended award of a bid or proposal, a formal written protest must be filed no later than 5:00 p.m. on the fifth full business day after posting of the award recommendation.

(3)

The formal written protest shall identify the protesting party and the solicitation involved; include a statement of the grounds on which the protest is based; refer to the statutes, laws, ordinances or other legal authorities which the protesting party deems applicable to such grounds; and specifically request the relief to which the protesting party deems itself entitled by application of such authorities to such grounds.

(4)

A formal written protest is considered filed with the county when the purchasing department receives it. Accordingly, a protest is not timely filed unless it is received within the time specified above by the purchasing department. Failure to file a formal written protest within the time period specified shall constitute a waiver of the right to protest and result in relinquishment of all rights to protest by the bidder/proposer.

(d)

Rights of interested parties. Bidders or proposers, other than the protestor, which would be directly affected by the favorable resolution of a protest relating to a recommended award, shall have the right to provide written documentation related to the protested solicitation. Said interested parties shall be solely responsible for determining whether a protest has been filed. Any documentation submitted by an interested party must be filed with the director of purchasing no later than 5:00 p.m. on the fifth full business day after the purchasing department posts notification that a protest has been filed. Any interested party submitting documentation shall bear all costs, including legal representation, relating to the submission.

(e)

Sole remedy. These procedures shall be the sole remedy for challenging the content of the bid or proposal package or the recommended award.

(f)

Lobbying. Protestors, and interested parties as defined subsection (d), and anyone acting on their behalf, are prohibited from attempts to influence, persuade, or promote a bid or proposal protest through any other channels or means, and contacting any county official, employee, advisory board member, or representative to discuss any matter relating in any way to the solicitation being protested, other than the purchasing department's or county attorney's office employees. The prohibitions provided for herein shall begin with the filing of the protest and end upon the final disposition of the protest; provided, however, at all times protestors shall be subject to the procurement lobbying prohibitions in section 2-189 of this Code. Failure to adhere to the prohibitions herein shall result in the rejection of the protest without further consideration.

(g)

Time limits. The time limits in which protests must be filed as specified herein may be altered by specific provisions in the bid/request for proposal.

(h)

Authority to resolve. The director of purchasing shall resolve the protest in accordance with the documentation and applicable legal authorities and shall issue a written decision to the protestor no later than 5:00 p.m. on the tenth full business day after the filing thereof.

(i)

Review of purchasing director's decision.

(1)

The protesting party may request a review of the purchasing director's decision to the county administrator by delivering written request for review of the decision to the director of purchasing by 5:00 p.m. on the fifth full business day after the date of the written decision. The written notice shall include any materials, statements, and arguments which the bidder/proposer deems relevant to the issues raised in the request to review the decision of the purchasing director.

(2)

The county administrator shall issue a decision in writing stating the reason for the action with a copy furnished to the protesting party no later than 5:00 p.m. on the seventh full business day after receipt of the request for review. The decision shall be final and conclusive as to the county unless a party commences action in a court of competent jurisdiction.

(j)

Stay of procurement during protests. There shall be no stay of procurement during protests.

(Ord. No. 94-51, § 5, 6-7-94; Ord. No. 04-87, § 1, 12-7-04; Ord. No. 14-11, § 2, 2-11-14)

Sec. 2-163. - Bid and contract security.

(a)

Bid security.

(1)

Requirement for bid security. Bid security shall be required for all competitive sealed bidding for construction contracts when the price is estimated by the director of purchasing to exceed $100,000.00. Bid security shall be in a form satisfactory to the county attorney. Nothing herein shall prevent the requirement of such security on other contracts when the circumstances warrant.

(2)

Amount of bid security. Bid security for all other competitive sealed bids and proposals shall be in an amount equal to at least five percent of the amount of the bid, unless the director of purchasing determines that the nature of the industry is such that the bid security requirement would work a hardship on most potential bidders.

(3)

Rejection of bids for noncompliance with bid security requirements. When the invitation for bids requires bid security, a bid shall be rejected in the event of noncompliance unless it is determined that the bid fails to comply only in a nonsubstantial manner with the security requirements.

(b)

Contract security. When a construction contract is awarded in excess of $100,000.00, security shall be provided in conformance with the minimum requirements of F.S. § 255.05, and shall become binding upon the execution of the contract.

(1)

A performance bond satisfactory to the county attorney, executed by a surety insurer authorized to do business in the state as a surety, in an amount equal to 100 percent of the price specified in the contract, conditioned that the contractor perform the contract in the time and manner prescribed in the contract; and

(2)

A payment bond satisfactory to the county attorney, executed by a surety insurer authorized to do business in the state as a surety, in an amount equal to 100 percent of the price specified in the contract, conditioned that the contractor promptly make payments to all persons supplying labor, materials or supplies used directly or indirectly in the performance of the work provided for in the contract, and who are claimants as defined in F.S. § 255.05(1).

(c)

Authority to require additional security. Nothing in this section shall be construed to limit the authority of the county to require a performance bond or other security in addition to those bonds, or in circumstances other than, as specified in subsection (b) of this section.

(Ord. No. 94-51, § 6, 6-7-94)

Sec. 2-164. - Intergovernmental relations.

(a)

Approval authority for contracts of $250,000.00 or less. Approval of contracts for cooperative purchasing and acquisition or use of supplies under this section which are $100,000.00 or less in a fiscal or calendar year shall be granted to the director of purchasing, and which are more than $100,000.00 and do not exceed $250,000.00 in a fiscal or calendar year shall be granted to the county administrator or his/her designee.

(b)

Cooperative purchasing authorized. The county's purchasing department may either participate in, sponsor, conduct, or administer a cooperative purchasing agreement for the procurement of any supplies, services or construction with one or more public procurement units. Such cooperative purchasing may include, but is not limited to, joint or multiparty contracts between public procurement units and open-ended state or federal public procurement unit contracts which are made available to local public procurement units.

(c)

Acquisition or use of supplies by a public procurement unit. The county's purchasing department may acquire from, or use any supplies belonging to, another public procurement unit independent of the requirements of subdivision II of this division, pertaining to source selection and contract formation, unless prohibited by law.

(Ord. No. 94-51, § 7, 6-7-94; Ord. No. 02-19, § 1, 3-19-02; Ord. No. 06-19, § 3, 2-21-06)

Sec. 2-165. - Affirmative assistance to small and disadvantaged businesses.

The board of county commissioners recognizes that the county's growth and prosperity depends on the full participation of all its citizens, and is firmly committed to the principles of equal opportunity, recognizes the need and is desirous of improving the opportunities and participation of minority and female-owned businesses. The county endorses the utilization of minority and female-owned businesses in the purchasing of goods and services for the county whenever possible and shall establish, through an affirmative program, procedures fostering utilization.

(Ord. No. 94-51, § 8, 6-7-94)

Secs. 2-166—2-175. - Reserved.

Subdivision II. - Source Selection and Contract Formulation

Sec. 2-176. - Competitive sealed bidding.

Conditions for use. All contracts of the county for the purchase of goods and services valued in excess of $100,000.00 shall be awarded by competitive bidding, except as otherwise provided in section 2-177, pertaining to competitive sealed proposals, section 2-178, pertaining to contracting for designated professional services, section 2-180, pertaining to noncompetitive procurement, section 2-181, pertaining to emergency procurement, section 2-182, pertaining to used equipment/supplies procurement or purchases made pursuant to section 2-185 allowing for purchases under F.S. §§ 413.032—413.037 (1999), pertaining to qualified nonprofit agencies for the blind or the severely handicapped, or state bid or negotiated contracts.

(b)

Invitation to bid. An invitation to bid shall be issued and shall include specifications and conditions applicable to the procurement and shall set forth the time for preparation of bids prior to the date set forth in the public notice for the opening of bids.

(c)

Bidders list. Bids shall be invited from all responsible prospective vendors who have requested their names to be added to a bidders list, which the director of purchasing shall maintain, by sending them a copy of such newspaper notice or such other notice as will acquaint them with the proposed purchase. Vendor invitations to bid shall be limited to goods and services that are similar in character and ordinarily handled by the trade group to which the invitations are sent.

(d)

Bid opening. Bids shall be opened publicly in the presence of one or more witnesses at the time and place designated in the invitation to bid. The name of each bidder and other relevant information deemed appropriate to properly identify each bid shall be recorded.

(e)

Bid receipt and bid evaluation. Bids shall be received without alteration or correction, except as authorized in this division. Bids shall be evaluated based on the criteria set forth in the invitation for bids. No criteria may be used in bid evaluation that are not set forth in the invitation for bids.

(f)

Award. The contract shall be awarded with reasonable promptness by appropriate written notice to the responsible and responsive bidder who submits the lowest and best responsive bid. The bid must meet the requirements and criteria set forth in the invitation for bids. Any board contract, which has a value of $100,000.00 or less in a fiscal or calendar year may be awarded and subsequently extended by the director of purchasing, or if the director is unavailable, his/her designee; a bid to be awarded which is more than $100,000.00 and does not exceed $250,000.00 in a fiscal or calendar year may be awarded and subsequently extended by the county administrator or his/her designee; a bid to be awarded which exceeds $250,000.00 in a fiscal or calendar year may be awarded only by the board of county commissioners. Awards made by the board of county commissioners will include authority for all subsequent contract extension. The aforementioned contract extension shall be approved at the option of the county administrator if, after review of past performance under the contract, the county administrator determines in his/her sole discretion that contract extension is in the best interests of the county. The county administrator shall thereafter place a receipt and file a report that the contract has been extended on the consent agenda of the board of county commissioners at least quarterly.

(g)

Rejection of bids. The respective constitutional officer, county administrator on behalf of the board of county commissioners or within his/her delegated financial approval authority, or director of purchasing within his/her delegated financial approval authority shall have the authority, when the public interest will be served thereby, to reject all bids or parts of bids at any stage of the procurement process through the award of a contract.

(h)

Multi-step sealed bidding. When it is considered impractical to initially prepare a purchase description to support an award based on price, an invitation for bids may be issued requesting the submission of unpriced offers, or information relating to the experience and capabilities of the prospective bidders, to be followed by an invitation for bids limited to those bidders whose offers or experience and capabilities have been determined to be acceptable under the criteria set forth in the first solicitation.

(i)

Tie bids. If two or more bids received are for the same total amount or unit price, or in the case of proposals, the qualifications, quality and service are equal, the contract shall be awarded to the local bidder/proposer. A local firm is defined as a firm with headquarters in geographical Pinellas County. Headquarters shall mean the office location that serves as the administrative center and principal place of business. If two or more bids received are for the same total amount or unit price or in the case of proposals, the qualifications, quality and service are equal and no firms are deemed local, then the contract shall be awarded by drawing lots in public.

(j)

Right to audit. This division establishes the authority to audit contract and pricing documents of vendors and contractors. The right to audit would apply to those agreements which the board of county commissioners determines to be of a nature to justify this provision. All vendors and contractors may be required to retain contract and pricing documents for audit purposes for a minimum time period specified in the invitation for bids, request for proposals, request for quotations, contract, or other agreement with the county, which time period shall be computed beginning after the completion or termination of the purchase, contract or agreement.

Sec. 2-177. - Competitive sealed proposals.

Conditions for use. When the goods or services to be acquired dictate that the use of competitive sealed bidding is not practicable, reasonable or advantageous to the county, a contract may be entered into by use of the competitive sealed proposals method.

(b)

Request for proposals. Proposals shall be solicited through a request for proposals (RFP), and public notice of the RFP shall be given.

(c)

Receipt of proposals. No proposals shall be opened until the time designated in the public notice of the request for proposals. A register of proposals shall be prepared containing the name of each offeror, the number of modifications received, if any, and a description sufficient to identify the item offered.

(d)

Evaluation factors. The request for proposals shall state the evaluation factors, including, but not limited to, price, vendor approach and methodology, capability and experience.

(e)

Discussion with responsible offerors and revisions to proposals. Discussions may be conducted with responsible proposers who submit proposals for the purpose of clarification to assure full understanding of the solicitation requirements. Proposers shall be accorded fair and equal treatment and notice with respect to any opportunity for discussion and correction of proposals and such corrections may be permitted prior to award.

(f)

Award. Award of the contract shall be made by the board of county commissioners, constitutional officer, county administrator or director of purchasing, as applicable, to the responsible and responsive proposer who submits the proposal which best meets the evaluation criteria described in the RFP. No other factors or criteria shall be used in the evaluation. The contract file shall contain the basis on which the award is made. For any board contract, a proposal to be awarded which is $100,000.00 or less in a fiscal or calendar year may be awarded by the director of purchasing; a proposal to be awarded which is $250,000.00 or less in a fiscal or calendar year may be awarded by the county administrator or his/her designee; a proposal to be awarded which exceeds $250,000.00 in a fiscal or calendar year may be awarded only by the board of county commissioners.

(g)

Rejection of proposals. The respective constitutional officer, county administrator on behalf of the board of county commissioners or within his/her delegated financial approval authority, or director of purchasing within his/her delegated financial approval authority shall have the authority, when the public interest will be served thereby, to reject all or any parts of proposals at any stage of the procurement process through the award of a contract.

Sec. 2-178. - Contracting for designated professional services.

(a)

Consultants' Competitive Negotiation Act. Contracts for architectural, professional engineering, landscape architectural and registered land surveying and mapping services shall be procured in accordance with F.S. § 287.055, referred to as the Consultants Competitive Negotiation Act (CCNA). All contracts for CCNA services shall be procured under the supervision of the director of purchasing and purchasing department.

(b)

Design-build and construction management services. Design-build and construction management services, as defined in F.S. § 255.103, shall be procured pursuant to the process defined in the CCNA or unless the county, through its director of purchasing, elects to bid construction management and design build contracts through an invitation to bid or request for proposal process as provided in F.S. § 255.20(1), where cost is considered in the award process.

(c)

Continuing contract. The county is authorized to enter into a continuing contract for CCNA services in accordance with F.S. § 287.055, whereby the firm provides professional services to the county for projects in which construction costs do not exceed $2,000,000.00, for study activity if the fee for each individual study under the contract does not exceed $200,000.00; or for work of a specified nature as outlined in the contract required by the county, with the contract being for a fixed term or no time limitation, except that the contract must provide a termination clause.

(d)

CCNA oversight. The county administrator shall appoint a minimum of three members of his/her executive management team to provide oversight for the CCNA process. Such oversight will include, but not be limited to, composition of evaluation committees, evaluator pool members, the evaluation process, and any other matters deemed appropriate by the county administrator.

(e)

Evaluator pool. The director of purchasing shall be responsible for developing and maintaining a pool of qualified evaluators to participate in CCNA evaluation committees, consisting of, but not limited to, representatives from county departments, professional organizations, and internal and external subject matter experts.

(f)

Evaluation committee. The CCNA evaluation committee shall consist of at least three but typically not more than seven members (unless deemed to be in the best interest of the county) selected based upon their expertise and/or association with the project. The evaluation committee must consist of at least one person from the requesting department (or the requesting division within a multi-divisional requesting department). The requesting department (or the requesting division within a multi-divisional requesting department) cannot have majority representation on the evaluation committee. The committee shall also include non-requesting department representatives, internal/external subject matter experts and local professional organization representatives (if deemed appropriate or necessary). Final composition and qualifications of evaluation committees shall be subject to CCNA oversight as provided in subsection (d) herein.

(g)

Ranking of firms. The county, through the competitive proposal process, shall make a finding that the firm or individual to be employed is duly qualified to render the required service. The evaluation committee shall review statements of qualifications and performance data submitted in response to the public solicitation and shall select, in order of preference, no fewer than three firms deemed to be the most highly qualified, if at least three firms respond to the solicitation. If less than three firms respond, and after meeting due diligence, it is decided by the director of purchasing that every effort was made to comply with F.S. § 287.055, requirements, the county will interview all respondents and proceed with the evaluation process. The evaluation committee may conduct public presentations with a minimum of three firms (if three firms submitted).

(h)

Evaluation criteria. Pursuant to the CCNA, the evaluation criteria for ranking shall include: ability of firm and its professional personnel; firm experience with projects of a similar size and type; firm's willingness and ability to meet the schedule and budget requirements; volume of work previously awarded by the county; effect of the firms recent/current and projected workload; minority business status; location; past performance and when required, the public presentation. For continuing contracts, ranking and award shall be based on the criteria as stated above. For non-continuing contracts or project specific contracts, public presentation may be required. That requirement shall be stated in the RFP document.

(i)

Public presentation. The evaluation criteria for public presentation shall include but not be limited to the firm's understanding of the project, ability to provide required services within the schedule and budget, qualifications and approach to the project.

(j)

Due diligence. The director of purchasing shall be responsible for conducting due diligence of the firm approved for contract negotiations with an estimated contract value exceeding $100,000.00, when the county has not awarded a contract to the specific number one ranked firm within the last 12-month period prior to the ranking approval by the board of county commissioners.

(k)

Contract negotiations. The ranking of firms for all CCNA contracts shall be presented to the board of county commissioners for consideration. Upon board of county commissioners' approval of firm rankings, staff shall negotiate a contract with the most qualified firm (number one ranked firm) for professional services for compensation which is deemed to be fair and reasonable. Detailed discussions must be held by the firm and the county to establish the scope of the project and the exact services to be performed by the firm. Should the county and the firm fail to agree upon the terms of an acceptable contract, negotiations with the top firm shall be terminated and negotiations with the second ranked firm shall commence. If again unsuccessful, the process is repeated with the next ranked firm. This process is continued until a mutually agreeable contract is concluded or the project is abandoned, or the procurement process is otherwise terminated.

The firm awarded the contract must execute a truth-in-negotiation certificate stating that the wage rates and other unit costs are accurate, complete and current at the time of contracting. Any professional service agreement in which the certificate is required shall contain a provision that the agreement price shall be adjusted to exclude any significant sums where the county determines the agreement price was increased due to inaccurate, incomplete or noncurrent wage rates and other factual unit costs. All such agreement adjustments shall be made within one year following the end of the agreement.

Award. Based upon the final negotiated contract, a contract which is $100,000.00 or less in a fiscal or calendar year may be awarded by the director of purchasing; a contract which is $250,000.00 or less in a fiscal or calendar year may be awarded by the county administrator and all contracts exceeding $250,000.00 in a fiscal or calendar year shall only be awarded by the board.

(m)

Contracts for professional services. Notwithstanding the foregoing provision of this section, the noncompetitive procurement of contracts for legal, medical, independent certified public accounting, or other professional services is hereby authorized by negotiation with organizations or persons on the basis of experience, skill, and financial capacity to perform and shall be approved as provided in subsection (o) herein. Notwithstanding the foregoing, selection of an independent financial auditor to perform a "financial audit" as defined by F.S. § 11.45(1)(c) and other audit functions as may be requested shall be by the following described procedure, as permitted by the Pinellas County Home Rule Charter and F.S. § 218.391. A selection committee shall be established consisting of a designee of the board of county commissioners, the clerk of the circuit court or his/her designee, the director of the office of management and budget or his/her designee, the supervisor of elections or his/her designee, the tax collector or his/her designee, the property appraiser or his/her designee, and the sheriff or his/her designee. The selection committee shall prepare or cause to be prepared a request for proposal for independent financial auditor services, and the auditor shall be selected by competitive sealed proposal pursuant to Pinellas County Code, section 2-177.

(n)

Contracts for expert witnesses. Expert witnesses are exempt from the purview of this division.

(o)

Award of professional service contracts.

(1)

Contracts for services of a value greater than $250,000.00 in a fiscal or calendar year shall be authorized by the board of county commissioners or the constitutional officer, as applicable.

(2)

Contracts for services of a value greater than $100,000.00 and less than or equal to $250,000.00 in a fiscal or calendar year shall be authorized by the constitutional officer, or by the county administrator or his/her designee, as applicable.

(3)

Contracts for services of a value less than or equal to $100,000.00 in a fiscal or calendar year shall be authorized by the constitutional officer or the director of purchasing, as applicable.

Sec. 2-179. - Small purchases.

Generally. Any contract for $100,000.00 in a fiscal or calendar year or less may be made in accordance with the small purchase procedures authorized in this section. A purchase shall not be artificially divided so as to constitute a small purchase under this section.

(b)

Small purchases of $5,000.00 or more. Insofar as it is practical for small purchases of $5,000.00 or more, no less than two quotations shall be solicited. Award shall be made on the basis of lowest and best quotation. The names of the vendors submitting quotations, and the date and amount of each quotation, shall be recorded and maintained as a public record.

(c)

Small purchases under $5,000.00. The director of purchasing shall adopt operational procedures for making small purchases of less than $5,000.00. Such procedures may provide for obtaining adequate and reasonable competition when deemed to be in the best interest of the county for the goods or services being purchased and shall require the maintenance of adequate written records to document the purchasing decision. Purchases below $5,000.00 are not subject to competitive quotation.

(d)

Award.

(1)

Small purchases of a value up to $100,000.00 in a fiscal or calendar year may be authorized by the purchasing director or his/her designee responsible for the administrative oversight of the purchasing department, or the constitutional officer, as applicable.

(2)

Small purchases of a value determined by the county administrator to be reasonable may be purchased by an operating department through the use of field purchase orders or procurement cards.

Sec. 2-180. - Sole source/noncompetitive procurement.

Definitions:

(1)

"Sole source" purchase. A sole source purchase exists when research has determined there is only one potential provider for an item.

Noncompetitive purchase. A noncompetitive purchase exists when it is advantageous to the county to declare a purchase noncompetitive because it will result in verifiable financial savings to the county, is a trial program, or utilizing a competitive process will be detrimental to timely securing the goods or services. More than one potential supplier may exist for a good or service; however, written documentation must be forwarded to the director of purchasing, clearly documenting the advantages of declaring the purchase noncompetitive on the basis that only one reasonable and practicable source exists to supply a particular good or service. Such advantages may be based upon, but not be limited to, uniqueness, vendor qualifications, and timeliness of the purchase.

(b)

Sole source and noncompetitive purchases may be used as a procurement method for purchases of products or services when available from a sole source or when it is determined by the director of purchasing that there is only one practicable and reasonable source wherein competitive bidding is not feasible or not advantageous to the county justifying a noncompetitive purchase. A request for proprietary item does not justify a sole source purchase if there is more than one potential bidder for the item. However, a noncompetitive purchase may be justified if there is more than one potential bidder for an item.

(c)

Award.

Sole source/noncompetitive procurements of a value greater than $250,000.00 in a fiscal or calendar year shall be authorized by the board of county commissioners or the constitutional officer, as applicable.

Area of operation means the area within the territorial boundaries of Pinellas County and any area outside the territorial boundaries of the county if the governing body of the county within such outside area is located approves. The approval may be a general approval, or an approval only for a specified qualifying housing development, or only for a specified number of qualifying housing developments.

Bonds means any bonds, notes, debentures, interim certificates, or other evidences of financial indebtedness issued by the housing authority of the county pursuant to this division.

Eligible persons means one or more natural persons or a family, irrespective of race, creed, national origin or sex, determined by the housing finance authority to be of low, moderate or middle income. Such determination does not preclude any person or family earning up to 150 percent of the state or county median family income from participating in programs. Persons 65 years of age or older shall be defined as eligible persons regardless of their incomes. In determining the income standards of eligible persons for its various programs, the housing finance authority may consider the following factors:

Requirements mandated by federal law.

(2)

Variations in circumstances in different areas of the state.

(3)

Whether the determination is for rental housing or homeownership purposes.

(4)

The need for family-sized adjustments to accomplish the purposes set forth in this division.

Housing development means any residential building, land, equipment, facility, or other real or personal property which may be necessary, convenient or desirable in connection therewith, including streets, sewers, water and utility services, parks, gardening; administrative, community, health, recreational and educational facilities; and other facilities related and subordinate to moderate, middle or lesser income housing, and also includes site preparation, the planning of housing and improvements, the acquisition of property, the removal of demolition of existing structures, the acquisition, construction, reconstruction and rehabilitation of housing and improvements, and all other work in connection therewith, and all costs of financing, including without limitation the cost of consultant and legal services, other expenses necessary or incident to determining the feasibility of the housing development, administrative and other expenses necessary or incident to the housing development and the financing thereof (including reimbursement to any municipality, county or entity for expenditures made with the approval of the housing finance authority for the housing development) and interest accrued during construction and for a reasonable period thereafter.

Qualifying housing development means any work or improvement located or to be located in the state, including real property, buildings, and any real and personal property, designed or intended for the primary purpose of providing decent, safe and sanitary residential housing for four or more families, at least 60 percent of whom are eligible persons, whether new construction, the acquisition of existing residential housing, or the remodeling, improvement, rehabilitation or reconstruction of existing housing, together with such related nonhousing facilities as the authority determines to be necessary, convenient or desirable.

The term "qualifying housing development" includes a housing development that meets the definition of a "qualified low-income housing project" under section 42(g) of the Internal Revenue Code, regardless of whether such development meets the 60 percent eligible persons requirement under this subsection.

(2)

The exception provided under subsection (1) applies to all housing developments meeting the federal definition for "qualified low-income housing project" as well as all developments that previously qualified under the state definition for "qualifying housing development." The authority may enter into regulatory agreement amendments as necessary to accommodate housing developments that qualify under subsection (1).

Sec. 2-388. - Findings and declaration of necessity.

The board of county commissioners finds and declares that:

Within this county, there is a shortage of housing available at prices or rentals which many persons and families can afford, and a shortage of capital for investments in such housing. This shortage constitutes a threat to the health, safety, morals and welfare of the residents of the county; deprives the county of an adequate tax base; and causes the county to make excessive expenditures for crime prevention and control, public health, welfare and safety, fire and accident protection, and other public services and facilities.

(2)

Such shortage cannot be relieved except through the encouragement of investment by private enterprises and the stimulation of construction and rehabilitation of housing through the use of public financing.

(3)

The financing, acquisition, construction, reconstruction and rehabilitation of housing and of the real and personal property and other facilities necessary, incidental and appurtenant thereto are exclusively public uses and purposes for which public money may be spent, advanced, loaned or granted and are governmental functions of public concern.

(4)

The Congress of the United States has, by the enactments of amendments to the Internal Revenue Code of 1954, as amended, and the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended, found and determined that housing may be financed by means of obligations issued by any state or local government unit, the interest on which obligations is excludable from gross income for federal income tax purposes, and has thereby provided a method to aid state and local governmental units to provide assistance to meet the needs for housing.

(5)

The state legislature has, by enactment of F.S. ch. 159, pt. IV (F.S. § 159.601 et seq.), found and determined that local housing finance authorities are the proper means by which counties may avail themselves of the above amendments to the Internal Revenue Code and thereby assist in meeting local needs for housing.

(6)

The provisions of this division are found and declared to be necessary and in the public interest.

(b)

The board of county commissioners may, at its sole discretion, and at any time, alter or change the structure, organization, programs or activities of the housing finance authority and may, at any time, terminate the authority, subject to any limitation on the impairment of contracts entered into by the authority and subject to the limitations or requirements of this division and F.S. ch. 159, pt. All such revenue bonds shall contain on the face thereof a statement to the effect that the authority shall not be obligated to pay such bonds or the interest thereon except from the revenues of the project or the portion thereof for which they are issued and that neither the faith and credit nor the taxing power of the county or of the state or of any political subdivision thereof is pledged to the payment of the principal of or the interest on such bonds. Footnotes:
--- (21) ---

Editor's note—With the concurrence of the county, Ord. No. 00-63, §§ 1—12, adopted Aug. 25, 2000, has been included in the Code. Such ordinance did not specify manner of codification; but, has been designated by the editor as Art. VII, §§ 2-601—2-612.

Charter reference— Annexation, § 2.07.

Sec. 2-601. - Purpose.

It is the purpose of this article to establish a uniform, equitable, and integrated procedure with clearly defined criteria to provide the exclusive method for voluntary annexation of property by an incorporated municipality within the county.

(Ord. No. 00-63, § 1, 8-25-00)

Sec. 2-602. - Authority.

This article is promulgated pursuant to the home rule powers of the county and F.S. § 171.044(4), as a county ordinance, pursuant to the provisions of the County Charter that would provide for exclusive method and criteria for voluntary municipal annexation and planning areas that delineate the geographic area eligible for annexation by a municipality.

(Ord. No. 00-63, § 2, 8-25-00)

Sec. 2-603. - Territory embraced.

This article shall be effective in the incorporated as well as unincorporated areas of the county. To the extent that this article conflicts with a municipal ordinance, this article shall prevail.

(Ord. No. 00-63, § 3, 8-25-00)

Sec. 2-604. - Definitions.

The following terms and phrases shall have the following meanings, unless some other meaning is plainly indicated:

Ability to serve means the municipality that proposes to annex property has the authority, responsibility, and capacity to provide police, fire, sewer, water, solid waste, and local road and drainage facility services. If the annexing municipality does not have the authority, responsibility, and capacity to provide any one or more of these seven requisite urban services to the property proposed to be annexed, then it shall, by either interlocal agreement or written authorization, obtain agreement of the service provider that is charged with providing such service(s), attesting to that provider's ability and willingness to provide said service(s).

Annexation means the voluntary addition of real property to the boundaries of an incorporated municipality pursuant to the Pinellas County Charter, such addition making such real property in every way a part of the municipality.

Board means the Board of County Commissioners of Pinellas County, Florida.

CPA means the board of county commissioners sitting in its capacity as the countywide planning authority.

Compact means concentration of a piece of property in a single area and precludes any action which would create pockets, finger areas, or serpentine patterns. Any annexation proceeding in the county shall be designed in such a manner as to ensure that the area will be reasonably compact.

Contiguous means that a substantial part of a boundary of the territory sought to be annexed by a municipality is coterminous with a part of the boundary of the municipality. The separation of the territory sought to be annexed from the annexing municipality by a publicly owned county park: a right-of-way for a highway, road, railroad, canal, or utility; or a body of water or watercourse; or other minor geographical division of a similar nature, running parallel with and between the territory sought to be annexed and the annexing municipality, shall not prevent annexation under this article, provided the presence of such a division does not, as a practical matter, prevent the territory sought to be annexed and the annexing municipality from becoming a unified whole with respect to municipal services or prevent their inhabitants from fully associating and trading with each other, socially and economically. However, nothing herein shall be construed to allow local rights-of-way, utility easements, railroad rights-of-way, or like entities to be annexed in a corridor fashion to gain contiguity; and when any provision or provisions of special law or laws prohibit the annexation of territory that is separated from the annexing municipality by a body of water or watercourse, then that law shall prevent annexation under this article.

Council means the Pinellas Planning Council, as created by Chapter 88-464, Laws of Florida (1988), or its designee.

County means Pinellas County, Florida.

Enclave means any unincorporated area that is enclosed within and bounded on all sides by a single municipality.

Municipality means a municipality created pursuant to general or special law authorized or recognized pursuant to section 2 or section 6, Article VIII, of the State of Florida Constitution.

Party affected means any persons or firms owning property that is proposed for annexation to a municipality, or any governmental unit having jurisdiction over such area.

Urban services means those services required to be available and provided by a local government, either directly or by contract, to properties located within its present boundaries and areas proposed for annexation, including but not limited to police, fire, sewer, water, solid waste, and local road and drainage facility services.

(Ord. No. 00-63, § 4, 8-25-00)

Sec. 2-605. - Planning areas; delineating eligibility for annexation.

(a)

Planning areas have been determined and depicted in map form as set forth in Exhibit 1, attached hereto and incorporated by reference. The purpose of each planning area is to allow the respective municipalities to consider the area in their comprehensive plan and delineate the geographic area eligible for annexation to each such municipality. Each planning area was determined and delineated consistent with the purpose and provision for establishment of planning areas, as provided for under F.S. § 163.3171 and is specifically intended to replace the review for ability to serve for annexations of ten acres or more now conducted independently by the council under Chapter 88-464, Laws of Florida.

(b)

A municipality may annex only that property within its respective planning area as delineated on Exhibit 1, as such exhibit may be amended from time to time. Unincorporated area that is not located within a defined municipal planning area, as delineated in Exhibit 1, shall not be voluntarily annexed by any municipality unless and until Exhibit 1 is amended to include such unincorporated area in the annexing municipality's planning area.

(c)

The planning areas as delineated herein on Exhibit 1 may be amended by county ordinance upon recommendation of the council and approval by the CPA. Any deviation by the CPA from the council's recommendation shall be by at least four votes. Consideration of an amendment to any planning area by the council and CPA shall be based upon the following criteria:

(1)

The nature of the request and interest of the affected property owner(s);

(2)

The ability (willingness) of affected municipality to provide urban services;

(3)

The uniform and consistent relationship of the proposed area to existing municipal boundaries, existing unincorporated neighborhoods, and related areas eligible for annexation; and

(4)

The interest and relationship of adjoining unincorporated areas and service providers.

(d)

In the event that a municipality receives a petition to voluntarily annex property that lies outside that municipality's planning area, said petition shall be reviewed as an amendment to that planning area in accordance with this section. So long as a proposed amendment of Exhibit 1 is consistent with the criteria in subsection (c), no such amendment which results from a petition for voluntary annexation shall be unreasonably denied without just cause.

(e)

The council shall periodically review the planning areas set forth in Exhibit 1, as it may be amended from time to time. Any amendment to Exhibit 1 resulting from this periodic review shall be as provided for under this section. The first review shall take place no longer than five years after final adoption of this article. Each subsequent review shall take place no longer than five years after the previous review.

(f)

Any annexation that may occur in the county pursuant to the referendum process provided for in F.S. Chapter 171 shall not automatically amend the planning areas provided for under this section, but may be considered, in addition to the criteria listed in this section, for purposes of amending a planning area. Failure to amend the planning area to reflect the referendum, in whole or in part, shall not affect the validity of the annexation.

(g)

Any area duly incorporated and within the boundaries of a municipality on the effective date of this article, but not included within its designated planning area, shall continue to be a valid part of said municipality with all of the rights and responsibilities attendant thereto; and the location of such incorporated area outside the planning area shall in no way alter or compromise its corporate status.

(Ord. No. 00-63, § 5, 8-25-00)

Sec. 2-606. - Petition for voluntary annexation.

(a)

The owner or owners of real property, or his or her agent, in an unincorporated area of the county, may petition the governing body of a municipality that said property be annexed to the municipality if the subject property meets the requirements set forth in either subsection (1) or (2) below:

(1)

The property is located within the annexing municipality's planning area as set forth in Exhibit 1, is contiguous to the annexing municipality, is reasonably compact, and does not create an enclave; or

(2)

The property is located within the annexing municipality's planning area as set forth in Exhibit 1, is located within and reduces an enclave existing on the effective date of this article, and neither involves a property that is subject to an existing annexation agreement nor provides the basis for annexing an adjoining property that is subject to an annexation agreement.

(b)

Within five calendar days of receipt of a petition for voluntary annexation or the initiation of a voluntary annexation pursuant to a previously executed and valid agreement, the annexing municipality shall notify the county, council, and all parties affected, of said proposed annexation with a copy of the petition for annexation and a legal description of the subject property. Notwithstanding the five-day notice period provided above, the annexing municipality shall provide said notice prior to the first reading of the annexation ordinance.

(Ord. No. 00-63, § 6, 8-25-00)

Sec. 2-607. - Limited review of proposed annexation.

Upon receipt of a petition for a proposed annexation to a municipality and a legal description of the subject property, the council shall review said proposed annexation for compliance with the following criteria:

(1)

Whether the subject property complies with the criteria and procedures set forth in section 2-606; and

(2)

Whether the legal description provided conflicts with previously established municipal boundaries or creates an inadvertent gap between governmental jurisdictions.

(b)

Within 15 calendar days of receipt, the council shall notify the annexing municipality if the proposed annexation is deemed inconsistent with the criteria and procedures set forth herein, or if a valid request for a full review has been received from an affected party. Absent any such notification, the annexing municipality may proceed with the proposed annexation.

(c)

If the proposed annexation is deemed inconsistent with the requirements of this article by the council, or a valid request for a full review has been received by an affected party as set forth in section 2-608, a full review shall be conducted.

(Ord. No. 00-63, § 7, 8-25-00)

Sec. 2-608. - Request for full review by affected party.

(a)

Any party affected by the proposed municipal annexation may petition the council and CPA to review the proposed annexation for consistency with the criteria and procedures set forth herein. Said review shall be conducted pursuant to the following criteria and procedure:

(1)

A petition requesting review shall be filed with the council within ten calendar days of receipt of the notice provided by the annexing municipality under section 2-606(b). Upon receipt of said petition, the council shall notify the annexing municipality and forward a copy of the petition to said municipality.

(2)

The petition shall set forth the specific objections and manner in which the proposed annexation is inconsistent with the criteria and procedure set forth herein.

(3)

Within five days of receipt of a petition requesting review, the executive director of the council shall determine the validity of said petition, specifically whether the petition alleges legitimate grounds upon which the annexation does not comport with the procedure and criteria set forth herein. If an applicant requesting full review disagrees with the determination of the executive director, the validity of the request shall be considered and determined by the planning council at its next scheduled meeting.

(4)

Upon receipt of a valid petition for review, as determined pursuant to subsection (3) above, the council shall consider the petition at its next regularly scheduled meeting and forward a recommendation to the CPA. The CPA shall, within 30 days of receipt of the council's recommendation, render a decision as to whether the application is consistent with the required criteria and shall notify the annexing municipality of said determination.

(b)

The filing of a valid petition for review under this section, or the initiation of a full review by the council under section 2-607, shall prohibit the annexing municipality from proceeding with the second reading and adoption of the annexation ordinance until after a decision has been rendered by the CPA.

(Ord. No. 00-63, § 8, 8-25-00)

Sec. 2-609. - Municipal annexation procedure; appeals.

(a)

Upon receipt of a petition for voluntary annexation that comports with the criteria set forth in section 2-606(a)(1) or (2), a municipality may, at any regular meeting, adopt a nonemergency ordinance to annex the property that is proposed for annexation and redefine the boundary lines of the municipality to include said property. Said ordinance shall be passed consistent with the procedures for adoption of ordinances provided in F.S. § 166.041. The notice required by F.S. § 166.041 shall give the ordinance number, if available, and a brief general description of the area proposed to be annexed. The description shall include a map clearly showing the area and a statement that the complete legal description and the ordinance can be obtained from the office of the municipal clerk.

(b)

An ordinance adopted under this section shall be filed with the Pinellas County Clerk of the Circuit Court and Pinellas County Administrator and with the department of state within seven days after the adoption of such ordinance. The ordinance must include a map which clearly shows the annexed area and a complete legal description of that area.

(c)

Any party affected by the annexation or the CPA, upon recommendation of the council, shall have the right to file a petition in the Circuit Court in and for Pinellas County seeking review by certiorari. Said petition must be filed within 30 days of adoption of the annexation ordinance by the annexing municipality. An appeal filed by the CPA shall be subject to the Florida Governmental Conflict Resolution Act. In any action instituted pursuant to this section, the prevailing party shall be entitled to reasonable costs and attorney's fees.

(Ord. No. 00-63, § 9, 8-25-00)

Sec. 2-610. - Effect of annexation.

An area voluntarily annexed to a municipality, pursuant to the criteria and procedure set forth in this article, shall be subject to all laws, ordinances, and regulations in force in that municipality, and shall be entitled to the same privileges and benefits as other parts of that municipality upon the effective date of the annexation. Any voluntary annexation that does not comply with the criteria and procedures set forth in this article shall be null and void, and the property shall continue to be considered unincorporated for both tax and regulatory purposes.

(Ord. No. 00-63, § 10, 8-25-00)

Sec. 2-611. - Interlocal agreements for urban services and annexation.

(a)

The county and each municipality shall have the authority to enter into interlocal agreements to provide services as an alternative to annexation. Such agreements are encouraged where they would provide a cost-effective, mutually advantageous alternative to annexation, where annexation is not achievable under the criteria and procedures set forth herein, or where annexation is not desirable on the part of the property owner or municipality.

(b)

Consistent with the intent and provisions of F.S. § 171.046(2), existing enclaves of ten acres or less may be annexed into the appropriate municipal jurisdiction by interlocal agreement between the county and the appropriate municipality.

(Ord. No. 00-63, § 11, 8-25-00)

Sec. 2-612. - State plan amendment review process.

Any area voluntarily annexed into a municipality pursuant to the criteria and procedures set forth in this article that is located within a municipality's designated planning area shall be deemed to comply with and satisfy the requirements of F.S. § 163.3171 with respect to the exemption from state review of comprehensive plan amendments as a function of said annexation. Specifically, upon adoption of an annexation ordinance, the annexing municipality may immediately apply the municipality's comprehensive plan and land use standards to any such area if said comprehensive plan provides for use characteristics and intensity or density standards which are consistent with the countywide future land use plan for said area, as determined by the council, without first submitting a land use plan amendment to the state department of community affairs. It is specifically intended that the provisions of this section shall supersede those existing interlocal agreements entered into between the county and certain municipalities, pursuant to the authority of F.S. § 163.3171(3), which provide for joint planning areas. However, nothing contained in this article shall affect the right of the county or its municipalities to utilize the otherwise applicable provisions of F.S. § 163.3171.

(h)

Conflict of interest provisions. The following conflict of interest provisions shall apply to the special magistrates; failure on the part of a special magistrate to comply with the provisions of this section shall constitute grounds for removal by the board or the county administrator:

Sec. 2-621. - Jurisdiction of special magistrates.

Special magistrates shall have the jurisdiction and authority to hear and decide alleged violations of the codes and ordinances enacted or adopted by Pinellas County which may be prosecuted pursuant to the standards and procedures set forth in this article.

(Ord. No. 07-05, § 3, 1-9-07)

Sec. 2-622. - Special magistrate administrative division procedures.

Alleged violations of any of those codes or ordinances of Pinellas County as described herein may be filed with the special magistrate administrative division by those administrative officials, having the responsibility of enforcing the various codes or ordinances in force in Pinellas County.

Except as set forth in subsections (3) and (4) below, if a violation of a code or ordinance is believed to exist, the enforcing department shall specify a reasonable time to correct the violation. Should the violation continue beyond the time specified for correction, the special magistrate administrative division shall give notice to the alleged violator that a code enforcement hearing will be conducted concerning the alleged violation as noticed. The notice shall state the time and place of the hearing, as well as the violation alleged to exist. If the violation is corrected and then repeated, or if the violation is not corrected by the time specified for correction by the code inspector, the case may be brought for hearing even if the violation has been corrected prior to hearing, and the notice of violation shall so state.

(2)

Persons or entities who may be held responsible under this article for violation(s) of County Code(s) include:

a.

The owner, agent, lessee, tenant, contractor, or any other person or legal entity using the land, building, or premises where such violation has been committed or shall exist.

b.

Any person or legal entity who knowingly commits, takes part or assists in such violation.

c.

Any person or legal entity who maintains any land, building, or premises in which such violation shall exist.

3.

If a repeat violation is found, the code inspector shall notify the violator but is not required to give the violator reasonable time to correct the violation. The code inspector, upon notifying the violator of a repeat violation, may request a hearing. The special magistrate administrative division shall give notice to the alleged violator as set forth in subsection (1) above. The case may be brought for hearing, and a fine may be imposed by the special magistrate, even if the repeat violation has been corrected prior to hearing, and the notice shall so state.

(4)

If the code inspector has reason to believe a violation or the condition causing the violation presents a serious threat to the public health, safety, and welfare or if the violation is irreparable or irreversible in nature, the code inspector shall make reasonable effort to notify the violator and may immediately request a code enforcement hearing.

(5)

If the owner of property which is subject to a code enforcement proceeding transfers ownership of such property between the time the notice of violation was served and the time of the hearing, such owner shall:

a.

Disclose, in writing, the existence and the nature of the proceeding to the prospective transferee.

Deliver to the prospective transferee a copy of the notices and other materials relating to the code enforcement proceeding received by the transferor.

c.

Disclose, in writing, to the prospective transferee that the new owner will be responsible for compliance with the applicable code and with orders issued in the code enforcement proceeding.

File a notice with the special magistrate administrative division of the transfer of the property, with the identity and address of the new owner and copies of the disclosures made to the new owner, within five days after the date of the transfer.

A failure to make the disclosures described in subsections a., b. and c. before the transfer creates a rebuttable presumption of fraud. If the property is transferred before the hearing, the hearing shall not be dismissed, but the new owner shall be provided a reasonable period of time to correct the violation before the hearing is held.

(Ord. No. 07-05, § 3, 1-9-07)

Sec. 2-623. - Conduct of hearing by special magistrate.

Upon request of the code inspector or at such other times as may be necessary, a hearing before the special magistrate may be convened. Minutes shall be kept of all code enforcement hearings, and all hearings shall be open to the public. The special magistrate administrative division shall provide all clerical and administrative support reasonably necessary to conduct these hearings.

(b)

Where proper notice of the hearing has been provided to the alleged violator pursuant to section 2-628, a hearing may proceed even in the absence of the alleged violator.

(c)

At such hearing, the burden of proof shall be upon the code enforcement division to show by a preponderance of the evidence that a violation exists, or in the case of a repeat violation, existed on the date that the code inspector gave notice to the violator of a repeat violation pursuant to subsection 2-622(3).

(d)

All testimony shall be under oath and shall be recorded. The formal rules of evidence shall not apply but fundamental due process shall be observed and shall govern the proceedings. Upon determination of the special magistrate, irrelevant, immaterial or unduly repetitious evidence may be excluded, but all other evidence of a type commonly relied upon by reasonably prudent persons in the conduct of their affairs shall be admissible, whether or not such evidence would be admissible in a trial in the courts of Florida. Any part of the evidence may be received in written form.

(e)

The special magistrate may inquire of or question any witness present at the hearing. The alleged violator (hereinafter also referred to as respondent), respondent's attorney, code enforcement officers, or an attorney representing the division shall be permitted to inquire of or question any witness present at the hearing. The special magistrate may consider testimony presented by code enforcement officers, the respondent or any other witnesses.

(f)

At the conclusion of the hearing, the special magistrate shall render his or her decision (order) based on evidence entered into the record. The decision shall then be transmitted to the respondent in the form of a written order including findings of fact, and conclusions of law consistent with the record. The order shall be transmitted by mail to the respondent within ten days after the hearing. The order may include a notice that it must be complied with by a specified date and that a fine and costs may be imposed and, under the circumstances set forth in subsection 2-622(3), the cost of repairs or other corrective action may be included along with the fine if the order is not complied with by said date. A certified copy of such order may be recorded in the public records of Pinellas County and shall constitute notice to any subsequent purchasers, successors in interest, or assigns if the violation concerns real property, and the findings therein shall be binding upon the violator and, if the violation concerns real property, any subsequent purchasers, successors in interest, or assigns. If an order is recorded in the public records pursuant to this paragraph and the order is complied with by the date specified in the order, the special magistrate shall issue an order acknowledging compliance that shall be recorded in the public records. A hearing is not required to issue such an order acknowledging compliance.

(g)

If Pinellas County prevails in prosecuting a case before the special magistrate, it shall be entitled to recover all costs incurred. Whether and to what extent such costs are imposed shall be within the discretion of the special magistrate but shall not exceed the actual costs incurred.

(Ord. No. 07-05, § 3, 1-9-07)

Sec. 2-624. - Special magistrate powers and duties.

Special magistrates shall have the following powers and duties to:

(1)

Hold hearings pursuant to section 2-623.

(2)

Subpoena alleged violators and witnesses to its hearings. Subpoenas may be served by a sheriff or other authorized persons consistent with Rule 1.410(d) Florida Rules of Civil Procedure, upon request, by the special magistrate.

(3)

Subpoena records, surveys, plats and other documentary materials.

(4)

Take testimony under oath.

(5)

Make findings of fact and conclusions of law as are necessary to enforce the provisions of the Pinellas County Code and Land Development Code and issue orders having the full force and effect of law to command whatever steps are necessary to bring a violation into compliance.

(6)

Assess fines pursuant to section 2-625 of this article, including costs relating to the prosecution of cases before the special magistrate in those cases where the governing body prevails.

(7)

Lien property pursuant to section 2-625 of this article.

(8)

Assess costs pursuant to section 2-623 of this article.

(9)

Assess costs pursuant to subsection 2-625(1) of this article.

(Ord. No. 07-05, § 3, 1-9-07)

Sec. 2-625. - Administrative fines; costs; liens.

The special magistrate, upon notification by a code inspector that a code enforcement order has not been complied with within the set time, may order the violator to pay a fine in an amount specified in this section for each day the violation continues past the date for compliance set forth in the order or upon notification by a code inspector that a repeat violation has occurred in the case of a repeat violation, for each day the repeat violation continues, beginning with the date the repeat violation is found to have occurred by the code inspector. In addition, if the violation is a violation described in subsection 2-622(4), the special magistrate shall notify the board, which may make all reasonable repairs or other corrective actions which are required to bring the property into compliance, or otherwise secure the property, and charge the violator with the reasonable costs of the repairs or other corrective actions along with the fine imposed pursuant to this section. Making such repairs does not create a continuing obligation on the part of the local governing body to make further repairs or to maintain the property and does not create any liability against the local governing body for damages to the property if such repairs were completed in good faith. If a finding of a violation or a repeat violation has been made as provided in this part, a hearing shall not be necessary for issuance of the order imposing the fine. An order imposing a fine shall be sent to the property owner with a notice that the owner may request a hearing to challenge the fine amount within 20 days of the order. Orders imposing fines shall not be filed as liens until the latter of the expiration of such 20-day notice period, or the completion of such timely requested challenge. A challenge to an order imposing a fine shall be limited to a consideration of only such new findings necessary to impose an appropriate fine and create a lien.

(b)

A fine imposed pursuant to this section shall not exceed $1,000.00 per day for a first violation and shall not exceed $5,000.00 per day for a repeat violation and, in addition, may include all costs of repairs or other corrective action pursuant to subsection (a) of this section. If, after due notice and hearing, the special magistrate finds a violation to be irreparable or irreversible in nature, the special magistrate may impose a fine not to exceed $15,000.00 per violation or as otherwise authorized by Florida State Statute. In determining the amount of fine, if any, the special magistrate shall consider the following factors:

(1)

The gravity of the violation;

(2)

Any actions taken by the violator to correct the violation; and

(3)

Any previous violations committed by the violator.

(c)

The special magistrate may, in its discretion, adopt a consent order proposed by the enforcing department setting forth agreed terms for payment of any fine in lieu of execution or foreclosure as set forth in subsection (d), below.

(d)

A certified copy of an order imposing a fine, or a fine plus repair costs, may be recorded in the public records in the Office of the Clerk of the Circuit Court in and for Pinellas County, Florida. Once recorded the certified copy of an order shall constitute a lien against the land on which the violation(s) exists and upon any other real or personal property owned by the violator; and it shall be enforceable in the same manner as a court judgment by the sheriffs of this state, including execution and levy against the personal property of the violator, but such order shall not be deemed to be a court judgment except for enforcement purposes. A fine imposed pursuant to this section shall continue to accrue until the violator comes into compliance or until judgment is rendered in a suit to foreclose on a lien, filed pursuant to this section, whichever comes first. Once recorded the lien shall be superior to any mortgages, liens, or other instruments recorded subsequent to the filing of the code enforcement lien.

(e)

After three months from the filing of any such lien which remains unpaid, the county may foreclose the lien in the same manner as mortgage liens are foreclosed. Such lien shall bear interest at the rate allowable by law from the date of compliance set forth in the recorded order acknowledging compliance. The local governing body shall be entitled to collect all costs incurred in recording and satisfying a valid lien. No lien created pursuant to the provisions of this ordinance may be foreclosed on real property that is a homestead under Article X, Section 4, of the Florida Constitution.

(Ord. No. 07-05, § 3, 1-9-07)

Sec. 2-626. - Other legal remedies.

In addition to the administrative penalties and enforcement procedures provided in this article, the board may institute any lawful civil action or proceeding to prevent, restrain, or abate violations of codes or ordinances or through its agents issue cease and desist orders. An enforcing department shall have the authority to issue cease and desist orders in the form of written official notices given to the owner of the subject building, property, or premises, or to his agent, lessee, tenant, contractor, or to any person using the land, building or premises where such violation has been committed or shall exist. Any failure to comply with a cease and desist order issued by an enforcing department shall be regarded, during any penalty setting phase, as an exaggerating circumstance by the special magistrate should any process relative to section 2-625 result from the violation that is the subject of the cease and desist order.

(Ord. No. 07-05, § 3, 1-9-07)

Sec. 2-627. - Appeal.

Any aggrieved party, including Pinellas County, may appeal an order of the special magistrate to a court of competent jurisdiction within 30 days of the execution of the order to be appealed. The county may assess a reasonable charge for the preparation of the record to be paid by the petitioner in accordance with F.S. § 119.07.

(Ord. No. 07-05, § 3, 1-9-07)

Sec. 2-628. - Notices.

(a)

All notices required by this article shall be provided to the alleged violator by:

(1)

Certified mail, return receipt requested, provided if such notice is sent under this paragraph to the owner of the property in question at the address listed in the tax collector's office for tax notices, and at any other address provided to Pinellas County government by such owner and is returned as unclaimed or refused, notice may be provided by posting as described in subsections (b)a.1. and (b)a.2. and by first class mail directed to the addresses furnished to the local government with a properly executed proof of mailing or affidavit confirming the first class mailing;

(2)

Hand delivery by the sheriff or other law enforcement officer, code inspector, or other person designated by the board;

(3)

Leaving the notice at the violator's usual place of residence with any person residing therein who is above 15 years of age and informing such person of the contents of the notice; or (4)

In the case of commercial premises, leaving the notice with the manager or other person in charge.

(b)

In addition to providing notice as set forth in subsection (a), at the option of the special magistrate administrative division, notice may also be served by publication or posting, as follows:

Such notice shall be published once during each week for four consecutive weeks (four publications being sufficient) in a newspaper of general circulation in Pinellas County. The newspaper shall meet such requirements as are prescribed under F.S. ch. 50, for legal and official advertisements.

2.

Proof of publication shall be made as provided in F.S. §§ 50.041 and 50.051.

In lieu of publication as described in subsection a., such notice may be posted at least ten days prior to the hearing, or prior to the expiration of any deadline contained in the notice, in at least two locations, one of which shall be the property upon which the violation is alleged to exist and the other of which shall be at the front door of the Pinellas County Courthouse.

2.

Proof of posting shall be by affidavit of the person posting the notice, which affidavit shall include a copy of the notice posted and the date and places of its posting.

(c)

Notice by publication or posting may run concurrently with, or may follow, an attempt or attempts to provide notice by hand delivery or by mail as required under subsection (a).

Evidence that an attempt has been made to hand deliver or mail notice as provided in subsection (a), together with proof of publication or posting as provided in subsection (b), shall be sufficient to show that the notice requirements of this part have been met, without regard to whether or not the alleged violator actually received such notice.

(Ord. No. 07-05, § 3, 1-9-07)

Sec. 2-629. - Procedure to request that a fine or lien imposed pursuant to section 2-625 be reduced; conditions and criteria therefor.

(a)

The owner of real property against which a fine or lien has been imposed pursuant to section 2-625 may apply to the special magistrate, through the county attorney or his designee, for a satisfaction of such fine or lien with less than full payment thereof. No such application shall be considered by the special magistrate until the applicant has first shown that:

(1)

All ad valorem property taxes, special assessments, county utility charges and other government-imposed liens against the subject real property have been paid;

(2)

The applicant is not personally indebted to the county for any reason; and

(3)

All county code violations have been corrected under necessary permits issued therefor.

(b)

In considering an application to reduce a fine or lien imposed pursuant to section 2-625, no satisfaction thereof shall be approved by the special magistrate with less than full payment thereof, unless the special magistrate shall make a specific finding that no violation of any county ordinance exists on the subject real property.

(c)

The balance of any fine or lien imposed pursuant to section 2-625 that is reduced by the special magistrate shall be paid on terms as approved by the special magistrate.

If the property for which the application for a fine reduction is being considered is owned by a government or quasi-government entity, the special magistrate may reduce such fine even if the violation has not been corrected.

For purposes of this subsection, the payment of a charge of any kind for admission to the premises or for other services or entertainment provided therein and the subsequent receipt of any alcoholic beverage, whether mixed or unmixed with any other substance, shall be deemed a purchase of an alcoholic beverage; and the presence of any alcoholic beverage container designated by symbol, device, label, or name as belonging to a particular person and the presence on the premises of such particular person shall be prima facie evidence that such person has consumed an alcoholic beverage, and it shall be the burden of any person charged under this subsection with consumption of alcoholic beverages to prove that he or she did not consume any alcoholic beverage.

Sec. 14-48. - Impoundment.

The department of animal services and its animal control code enforcement officers, law enforcement officers and humane officers of state chartered nonprofit humane organizations shall have authority to pick up, catch or procure and impound any animal found to be in violation of this article, any animal infected or believed to be infected with rabies or other contagious or infectious disease to humans or animals, or any animal suspected of biting a human, in such manner as is reasonably necessary to effectuate its capture. Impounded animals shall be confined in a humane manner at an animal shelter. Animals impounded at an animal shelter shall be made available for public inspection in order to allow the owner to reclaim their animal. An animal impounded for the purpose of rabies observation shall not be moved or released from the place of quarantine unless permission is first obtained from the director of animal services. The director may approve an exception as to the above-required place of confinement for dogs, ferrets, or cats having a current rabies vaccination administered by a licensed veterinarian.

(b)

Unless otherwise provided by this article:

(1)

An impounded animal with a license or other owner identification shall be held for at least seven days, including the day of impoundment;

(2)

Impounded dogs of 16 weeks in age without such identification shall be held for four days, including the day of impoundment.

(3)

Impounded individual puppies under 16 weeks in age without such identification shall be held for two days, including the day of impoundment;

(4)

Impounded litters of puppies under 16 weeks in age shall be held for one day, including the day of impoundment.

(5)

Impounded cats over 16 weeks of age without such identification shall be held for three days, including the day of impoundment.

(6)

Impounded kittens under 16 weeks of age without such identification shall be held for one day, including the day of impoundment.

Dogs, ferrets or cats impounded for the observation of rabies shall be held at least ten days. The depositing of a letter of notification by first class U.S. mail shall constitute adequate notification of impoundment. The owner shall also be notified by telephone, if possible. This section shall not apply to animals surrendered by the owner or an agent of the owner, in which case disposition may be made as provided in this article without notification or a holding period. At the expiration of the holding period, during which time a diligent attempt has been made to locate and contact the owner, the animal may be disposed of in the manner provided in this article.

(c)

A 30-day holding period may be imposed upon all animal shelters, humane organizations, rescue groups or foster homes for domestic animals with owner information or that bear positive owner identification in the form of an identification tag, license tag, microchip, rabies tag, or tattoo, which are impounded during a state of emergency within the county or those animals which are transferred to the county from any area where a state of emergency has been declared by competent authority. The holding period will be ten days for domestic animals that do not bear any of the aforementioned forms of positive owner identification which are impounded during a state of emergency within the county, or those animals which are transferred to the county from any area where a state of emergency has been declared by competent authority. Adoption or transfer of animals impounded during a state of emergency in the county, or of those animals which are transferred to the county from any area where a state of emergency has been declared by competent authority that are not redeemed within the holding period will be conditional and the animals will be subject to reclaim by the owner for 120 days from the date of the state of emergency declaration in the area of origin, except where the owner has relinquished all rights to the animal. These requirements may be invoked by the director based on the nature of the state of emergency and its aftermath.

(d)

A registry shall be maintained by the impounding agency or rescue group. The registry shall contain any identification and identifying characteristics of each animal impounded along with the location, date, reason for each pickup, any owner information, name of person surrendering the animal, if applicable, and final disposition, to include name and address of the reclaimant or adopter. A copy of the registry shall be provided to department of animal services monthly, and be made available for inspection by the department at the impounding agency, at any time, upon the department's request. The records shall be maintained by the impounding agency for two years.

(e)

If an animal bites and causes injury to any human, the animal shall be immediately impounded for rabies observation and quarantine[d], if necessary, for the proper length of time or held for ten days. Thereafter the animal shall either be returned to the owner or destroyed in an expeditious and humane manner in accordance with the provisions of this article and F.S. ch. 767, when applicable.

(f)

Any owner or person having custody of an animal suspected of biting a human who fails to surrender the animal to the department of animal services for impoundment or inspection when requested by an animal control code enforcement office shall be in violation of this article.

(g)

For violations of this article, an owner may be subject to a written warning or such penalties as prescribed in this article, in addition to or in lieu of impoundment of the animal.

(h)

Every owner who voluntarily surrenders an animal must provide photo identification and sign a form acknowledging that the surrender is voluntary and acknowledging the discretion of the department to dispose of the animal. The department shall not be liable for the disposition of any voluntarily surrendered animal after receipt of the animal from its owner. The animal shall be immediately available for adoption, placement or other appropriate disposition once surrendered. Owners surrendering animals shall be responsible for paying an intake fee, and should the animal(s) not be current on vaccination required by the county, rabies vaccination fees shall also be paid by the owner wishing to surrender his/her animal(s). Owners wishing to surrender an animal with the request for euthanasia shall be allowed to do so at the discretion of the department. It is not the policy or practice of the department to supply "on-demand" euthanasia procedures, but in the interest of relieving a suffering animal, the department may provide the service for a fee or at no charge, at its sole discretion. Notwithstanding the foregoing, such fees shall not apply to any animal surrendered to the department by a licensed veterinarian or boarding kennel pursuant to F.S. § 705.19. No owner-surrendered or stray animals from outside the department jurisdiction shall be accepted except for humane reasons; such animals shall be referred to another agency. The photo identification of the owner/person wishing to surrender an animal that shows an address outside of the department jurisdiction shall be used as the origin of the animal. If an animal is accepted for humane reasons from an owner or person living outside of the department's jurisdiction, a fee equal to the average cost(s) of all services provided shall be charged.

Sec. 14-49. - Adoption, redemption and disposition of animals.

All animals, which have been impounded or rescued in accordance with the provisions of this article, may be disposed of as provided below:

(1)

Within the holding period, animals may be redeemed by the owner or his/her agent upon the payment of any fees or costs associated with the impoundment. If the animal is a dog or cat which is unlicensed, it is necessary for the owner to obtain a license before redeeming the animal. Owners or agents of dogs or cats which have no positive identification shall be required to submit a statement of ownership in addition to obtaining a license and paying all associated fees and costs prior to the animal being redeemed.

(2)

If not redeemed within the holding period, animals may be disposed of by humane euthanasia or offered for adoption to any qualified person, upon payment of the adoption fee and, if applicable, such other costs associated with the impoundment. Animals that appear to be severely diseased or injured and suffering, and those animals medically determined to be suffering from a contagious or infectious disease that could constitute a hazard to other animals or humans may be euthanized at the discretion of the director, or his or her designee, at any time.

(3)

All dogs and cats placed for adoption shall be vaccinated, licensed, and sterilized before custody is relinquished to the new owner.

(4)

Those animals which have passed medical and behavior screening, but have not been adopted, may be offered to state chartered nonprofit humane organizations for the purpose of providing adoptions of such animals. Fees and costs may be waived for the disposition of animals in this manner.

(b)

No animal may be disposed of to any medical school, college, university or person for experimentation or vivisection purposes, or to any person providing, selling, or supplying animals to any medical school, college, university or person for experimentation or vivisection purposes.

Sec. 14-50. - Sterilization.

All dogs and cats adopted from the county shall be sterilized by a veterinarian before adoption, except when a veterinarian determines that sterilization would endanger the animal's health due to its age, infirmity or illness.

(b)

A dog which is impounded two times within a 24-month period shall be sterilized before it may be redeemed for the second time, except when a veterinarian determines that the sterilization would endanger the animal's health due to its age, infirmity or illness.

(c)

For the purposes of controlling pet overpopulation and ensuring all animals adopted from the county are sterilized in an expeditious manner, the county shall be considered the legal owner of: all stray dogs that remain in the shelter three days after intake/impound (i.e., on the third day sterilization may take place) unless positive, traceable ownership may be indicated by a registered microchip, city tag or private id tag; and all stray cats upon intake/impound unless positive, traceable ownership may be indicated by a registered microchip, city tag, other form of traceable permanent identification, or private identification tag. The county is hereby authorized to perform sterilization procedures on any animal any time after it becomes county property. Such ownership provisions shall not affect the holding periods established in section 14-48.

Secs. 14-51—14-60. - Reserved.
DIVISION 3. - DOGS AND CATS

Sec. 14-61. - Rabies vaccinations and licensing.

Every person possessing, harboring, keeping, or having control or custody of a dog or cat over the age of four months within the county shall secure a county license from a veterinarian or from the department of animal services and, as a part of such license, shall show proof of a current rabies vaccination which shall have been administered by, or under the supervision of, a veterinarian. Evidence of circulating rabies virus antibodies shall not be used as a substitute for obtaining a license, current vaccination in managing rabies exposure or the need for a booster vaccination.

(1)

The duration of immunity of the vaccine shall be recognized in accordance with the current Compendium of Animal Rabies Prevention and Control developed by the National Association of State Public Health Veterinarians.

(2)

Animals not meeting the definition of "currently vaccinated" include:

a.

Dog, cat, ferret, horse, cattle or sheep whose first vaccination was given less than 28 days before exposure to a known or suspected rabid animal;

b.

Dog, cat, ferret, horse, cattle or sheep whose previous vaccination expired;

c.

Dog, cat, ferret, horse, cattle or sheep not vaccinated by, or under the supervision of, a veterinarian;

d.

Any wild animal, or wild and domestic animal hybrids.

(3)

Veterinarians or authorized entities shall distribute the county license tags and rabies vaccination certificates to dog or cat owners according to the most recent procedure promulgated by the department.

(4)

Licenses may be issued without the administration of a rabies vaccination provided a veterinarian has examined the dog or cat and has certified in writing that a rabies vaccination could endanger its health because of infirmity, debility, illness, or other medical consideration. The dog or cat must be vaccinated as soon as its health improves sufficiently to tolerate the vaccine. An exemption that extends beyond 12 months must be renewed annually through submission of a new exemption letter. No exemption letter shall be deemed valid after one year from the date it was written.

The certificate and tag shall be approved and supplied by the board of county commissioners. No other license and rabies certificate or tag shall be valid in the county, except as otherwise provided under this article. The certificate shall provide space for pertinent data for identification of the animal. The license tag shall consist of a serially numbered piece of metal or other material bearing the same number as the certificate. All dogs and cats shall be required to wear a tag, except as otherwise provided under this section. The person to whom a dog or cat license has been issued shall cause the tag to be securely fastened by a substantial device about the animal's neck so as to be clearly visible at all times. If a license tag is lost or destroyed, a duplicate shall be issued by the department upon presentation of the certificate and upon payment of a fee as established by the board of county commissioners. In lieu of the tag, owners of cats may choose a breakaway collar or an alternate form of identification, as approved by the department.

(6)

Failure to comply with the provisions of subsections (a)(1) through (5) above or the current procedures promulgated by the department may result in loss of licensing and tag issuing authority.

(b)

Licenses, either certificate or tag, shall not be transferable from one dog or cat to another.

(c)

Licenses under this article expire when the rabies vaccination expires. A license shall be renewed on or before the date of expiration.

(d)

Those persons who relocate their dogs or cats, which are over the age of four months, to the county shall secure a license within 30 days of relocation.

(e)

When ownership of a dog or cat is transferred from one party to another, the transferor shall report the change of ownership to the department on such form as provided by the department, whether such change is effectuated by sale, barter, gift, or otherwise, within 30 days of such transfer. The new owner shall maintain a record of the date of transfer, the name and address of the transferor, and proof of previous vaccination and license. Such records shall be maintained by the new owner for a minimum period of one year from the date of transfer and shall be subject to inspection upon demand by any animal control code enforcement officer. All owners of dogs or cats over four months shall obtain a county license within 30 days of the date that they became the owner as defined in this article.

(f)

Every person selling or transferring ownership of a dog or cat shall keep records of the most recent proof of vaccination, license, and, when applicable pursuant to F.S. ch. 828, certificate of veterinary inspection. The previous owner shall maintain such records for a minimum period of one year from the date of transfer. All dogs and cats offered for sale, and copies of vaccination or license records, or certificates of veterinary inspection, held by the seller and veterinarian shall be subject to inspection by any animal control officer.

(g)

Every person owning, possessing, harboring, keeping or having control or custody of a dog or a cat shall keep records of proof of vaccination, license, and when applicable pursuant to F.S. ch. 828, certificates of veterinary inspection. Every person owning, possess[ing], harboring, keeping or having control or custody of a ferret shall keep records of proof of vaccination. Such records shall be subject to inspection upon demand by any animal control code enforcement officer.

(h)

The board of county commissioners is authorized to establish reasonable fees for the issuance and renewal of dog or cat licenses. License fees shall be waived for the following:

(1)

Those persons who are legally blind and whose dogs are registered seeing eye dogs; or those persons who are legally deaf and whose dogs are certified "hearing" dogs; or such other physically handicapped persons whose dogs are certified and trained to assist the physically handicapped.

(2)

Dogs owned by a law enforcement agency and used for law enforcement purposes.

(3)

The initial license issued to dogs or cats adopted from state chartered nonprofit humane organizations based upon registry data provided in accordance with subsection 14-48(c).

(i)

The provisions of this section shall not apply to racing greyhounds.

(Ord. No. 92-15, § 2, 3-10-92; Ord. No. 98-8, § 1, 1-6-98; Ord. No. 98-66, § 6, 7-28-98; Ord. No. 98-100, § 2, 11-24-98; Ord. No. 02-56, § 6, 7-9-02; Ord. No. 06-54, § 3, 6-20-06; Ord. No. 08-54, § 10, 10-7-08; Ord. No. 14-07, § 1, 1-28-14)

Sec. 14-62. - Guard dogs.

Registration.

(1)

Guard dog owners or services shall register all dogs used in their business, whether housed or used in the county, with the department. The registration shall include: Name, address and telephone number of the service's manager; the breed, sex, weight, age, color, registration number of the guard dog, and other distinguishing physical features of the dog; a county rabies vaccination and license certificate; and a tag that is highly visible and conspicuously different from ordinary dog tags, as approved and supplied by the board of county commissioners. As a condition to registration, proof of ownership must be presented by either a notarized bill of sale or a notarized affidavit.

Guard dogs which are newly acquired by guard dog services shall be vaccinated against rabies and registered with the department within 72 hours of acquisition.

(3)

The fee for registration of a guard dog with the department shall be established by the board of county commissioners and shall be a one-time charge for each individual dog.

(4)

Such registration shall not constitute a waiver of the annual license or other requirements of this article.

(b)

[Identification.] Each guard dog shall be permanently identified by microchip implantation.

(c)

Reporting requirements. Any person possessing, harboring, keeping or having control or custody of a guard dog shall immediately notify the department when such guard dog:

(1)

Is loose or unconfined;

(2)

Has bitten a human being or attacked another animal; or

(3)

Is sold or given away, or dies. Prior to a guard dog being sold or given away, the owner shall provide the name, address and telephone number of the new owner to the department.

(d)

Inspection. As a condition to possessing, harboring, keeping, or having control or custody of a guard dog, any animal control code enforcement officer shall, at any reasonable hour, have access to and shall have the right to inspect any premises housing the guard dog to determine compliance with F.S. chs. 828 and 767 and this article.

(e)

[Unlawful custody.] It shall be unlawful for any person to own, harbor, keep, maintain, use or otherwise have custody of any guard dog in the county which has not been vaccinated, registered, and microchipped as provided by this article.

(f)

Transportation of guard dog.

(1)

Any vehicle transporting a guard dog must be clearly marked showing that it is transporting a dangerous dog. A compartment separate from the driver is required which shall allow adequate ventilation for the animal.

(2)

No guard dog shall be transported in the trunk of a car or on open-bed trucks.

(3)

Guard dogs must be muzzled and leashed, or maintained in a proper enclosure, as defined in this article, when not on guard duty at a commercial establishment.

(g)

Requirements for businesses using guard dogs.

Each business which hires or uses a guard dog must provide proper fencing to keep the guard dog from digging or jumping out, or must otherwise properly confine the animal within a secure enclosure.

(2)

At each appropriate location and entry point, and at 50-foot intervals along the fence perimeter, a sign shall be posted including the words "Bad Dog."

(3)

Entry points shall have a sign posted with the telephone number of the dog's trainer or handler in case of an emergency.

(Ord. No. 92-15, § 4, 3-10-92; Ord. No. 98-66, § 7, 7-28-98; Ord. No. 14-07, § 1, 1-28-14)

Sec. 14-63. - Dogs or cats at large.

No dog or cat shall run at large within the county, as defined under this article. Any person who possesses, harbors, keeps, or has control or custody of any dog or cat which is running at large shall be in violation of this article, regardless of the knowledge, intent or culpability of the owner.

(b)

This section shall not apply to police dogs as defined in F.S. § 843.19 when such dogs are engaged by a law enforcement agency in an official capacity, or to any dog which is actually engaged in or being trained for the sport of hunting during a legal hunting season within authorized areas and supervised by the owner.

(c)

The owner of any female dog or cat in heat (estrus) which is not kept confined in a secure enclosure, such as a building, veterinary hospital, boarding kennel or closed kennel, such that the female dog or cat cannot come in contact with any male dog or cat, except when the owners of both animals intend to breed such animals, shall be deemed in violation of this article. A fenced area is not sufficient enclosure for the purpose and intent of this subsection.

(Ord. No. 92-15, § 5, 3-10-92; Ord. No. 14-07, § 1, 1-28-14)

Sec. 14-64. - Dangerous animals.

Procedures to classify an animal dangerous.

(1)

Investigation. The department shall investigate reported incidents involving any animal whose actions may result in the animal being classified as dangerous. As part of the investigation, the department shall, if possible, interview the animal's owner and require a notarized affidavit from any person, including any animal care officer or enforcement officer, who may have information relating to whether the animal might be dangerous.

(2)

Initial determination. Upon completing its investigation, the department shall make an initial determination as to whether there is sufficient cause to classify the animal as dangerous. If the department determines that there is sufficient cause, the department shall provide written notification of its initial determination to the owner by registered mail, certified hand delivery (signed receipt), or service in conformance with the provisions of F.S. ch. 48, as amended, relating to service of process.

(3)

Availability of hearing to challenge the initial determination. The written notification referenced in subsection (a)(2) shall inform the owner that, notwithstanding any other provisions of this article, if the owner wishes to challenge the initial determination, the owner must file a request for a hearing with the department within seven calendar days after the owner receives notice of the department's initial determination.

(4)

Effect of not timely requesting hearing. If the owner fails to timely request a hearing pursuant to subsection (a)(3) above, the animal shall be classified as dangerous. The department shall provide written notice of this classification to the owner by registered mail, certified hand delivery (signed receipt), or service in conformance with the provisions of F.S. ch. 48, as amended, relating to service of process. The notice shall inform the owner that he or she may, within ten business days after receipt of the notice, file a petition for writ of certiorari review in county court, to appeal the classification.

Effect of timely requesting hearing. If the owner timely requests a hearing pursuant to subsection (a)(3) above, the hearing shall be held no sooner than five calendar days after filing of the request and no later than 21 calendar days after the filing. The hearing shall be conducted in accordance with section 14-67. If the hearing officer determines that the animal should be classified as dangerous, the department shall provide written notice of such classification (along with a copy of the hearing officer's decision) to the owner by registered mail, certified hand delivery (signed receipt), or service in conformance with the provisions of F.S. ch. 48, as amended, relating to service of process. The notice shall inform the owner that he or she may, within ten business days after receipt of the notice, file a petition for writ of certiorari review in county court, to appeal the classification.

Confinement of animal pending investigation, hearing and appeal. Any animal that is the subject of a dangerous animal investigation, that is not impounded with animal services, shall be maintained by the owner in a proper enclosure as that term is defined in section 14-26. The owner shall post the premises with clearly visible warning signs at all entry points that inform both children and adults of the presence of a dangerous animal on the property. Furthermore, it is unlawful for the owner of the animal to permit the animal to be outside a proper enclosure unless the animal is muzzled and restrained by a substantial chain or leash and under the control of a competent person over the age of 18. The muzzle shall be made in a manner that will not cause injury to the animal or interfere with its vision or respiration, but shall prevent it from biting any person or animal. When being transported, such animals shall be safely and securely restrained within a vehicle. The provisions of this section shall apply pending the outcome of the investigation and resolution of any hearing or appeals related to the dangerous animal classification. The address of where the animal resides shall be provided to animal services. No animal that is the subject of a dangerous animal investigation may be relocated or ownership transferred pending the outcome of the investigation or any hearings or appeals related to the determination of the dangerous animal classification.

(7)

Failure to securely confine an animal during investigation. In the event that any animal control code enforcement office has sufficient cause to believe that an animal is or may be dangerous and that the owner is unable or unwilling to securely confine the animal pending a final determination, the animal control code enforcement officer may impound the animal pending the investigation or any hearing or appeals regarding the dangerous animal classification, if deemed necessary to protect the public. If the animal is subsequently classified as dangerous by the animal control authority and such classification is appealed, it shall remain impounded pending final resolution. The owner shall be responsible for boarding fees, veterinary and other costs incurred by the county to maintain the animal during such investigation, classification and appeals.

(8)

Timing for compliance with dangerous animal requirements. Within 14 calendar days after an animal has been classified as dangerous under subsections (a)(4) or (5) above, or within 14 calendar days after such classification has been upheld in any appeal (dismissal of the appeal by the owner shall be deemed to uphold the classification), the owner of the animal must comply with all the dangerous animal requirements referenced in subsection (b) below.

(b)

Dangerous animal requirements.

(1)

Registration. Any person who owns (or keeps, if that person is someone other than the owner) a dangerous animal within the county must register the animal as dangerous with the department. Any person who brings an animal into the county that has been declared dangerous by another jurisdiction, and who intends to reside in the county with such animal, shall register the dangerous animal within 14 calendar days of establishing residency in the county. The fees for registration shall be as established by resolution.

(2)

Conditions precedent to registration. No dangerous animal may be registered with the department unless and until all of the following requirements have been met:

a.

The owner shall, at the owner's expense, have the dangerous animal implanted with a department-approved electronic animal identification device (microchip), and shall provide the department with the microchip manufacturer and number. The owner may obtain microchips from the department, if available, at the fee set by resolution. The microchip number will become the dangerous animal registration number.

The animal shall be spayed/neutered unless a licensed veterinarian has examined the animal and certifies, in writing (with a copy provided to the department within such 14-day period), that at such time spaying/neutering the animal would endanger its health. Under the circumstance, the animal shall be spayed/neutered as soon as its health permits.

c.

The owner shall display a sign on his or her property warning that there is a dangerous animal on the premises. Said sign shall be clearly visible from all entry points and inform both children and adults of the presence of a dangerous animal on the property. The sign shall read "Dangerous Animal" or "Beware of Animal."

d.

The owner of a dangerous animal must have in place, on the property where the dangerous animal will be kept, the proper enclosure of a dangerous animal as defined above in this article, if said property allows.

The owner of a dangerous animal must provide department with two color photos displaying full body, head and face of the animal.

f.

The owner shall provide evidence of a current Pinellas County license and rabies vaccination for the animal.

g.

The owner shall execute a document consenting to the department entering the exterior of the owner's property, with or without prior notice, for the sole purpose of conducting inspections to ensure that the animal's owner is meeting his or her responsibilities, as applicable, under subsection (c) below.

(c)

Responsibilities of dangerous animal owners. The owner (or keeper, if other than owner) of a dangerous animal shall:

(1)

Renew the dangerous animal registration annually.

(2)

Ensure that the animal, while on the owner's property, is securely confined indoors, or securely confined in a proper enclosure of a dangerous animal as defined above. At any time that a dangerous animal is not so confined, the animal shall be muzzled and restrained in such a manner as to prevent it from biting or injuring any person or animal, and kept on a substantial chain or leash by a person able to exercise control over the animal. The muzzle must be made in a manner that will not cause injury to the animal or interfere with its vision or respiration but will prevent it from biting any person or animal. However, the foregoing requirements of this subsection do not apply:

a.

When the animal is in attendance at and participating in any animal show, contest, or exhibition not prohibited under F.S. § 828.122, as amended, and sponsored by an animal club, association, society, or similar organization.

b.

While the animal is being transported within the cab or passenger portion of any motor vehicle, provided the vehicle has a roof, and the animal cannot escape through an open window.

c.

When the owner is exercising the animal in a securely fenced or enclosed area that does not have a top, provided that the animal remains within the owner's sight and only member of the immediately household or persons 18 years of age or older are allowed in the enclosed or fenced area when the animal is present.

(3)

Notify the department immediately if the dangerous animal becomes loose, unconfined, attacks, or bites a human being or another animal, dies, is sold, or is given away. In the event of the animal's death, the owner shall provide to the department satisfactory evidence (as determined by the department) of the animal's death. If the dangerous animal is sold or given away, the owner shall provide to the department the name, address, and telephone number of the new owner of the dangerous animal. The new owner shall, within 14 calendar days after receiving the animal, execute a new document to be supplied by the department, acknowledging that he or she is aware of the dangerous animal classification, and agreeing that the new owner shall comply with all of the requirements of this article.

(4)

Notify the department immediately if the owner believes that the dangerous animal has been stolen. The owner must, concurrently with that notification, report the theft to the appropriate local law enforcement authority and provide the official police report to the department.

(5)

Notify the department immediately if the owner moves to another address with the dangerous animal, which notification shall identify such address.

(6)

Have the dangerous animal destroyed in a humane manner at his or her sole expense by the department or a licensed veterinarian if the owner is unable or unwilling to comply with all applicable requirements and mandates contained in this article.

(7)

Meet the obligation under any agreement executed as referenced in subsection (b)(2)g of this section.

(d)

[Department authority.] The department shall have the authority to make whatever inspections are deemed necessary to ensure that the provisions of this article are complied with.

(e)

[Surrender of dangerous animal.] The owner of a dangerous animal may surrender the dangerous animal to the department if the owner is unable or unwilling to comply with the requirements of this article.

(f)

[Inapplicability to law enforcement animals.] This article shall not apply to animals owned and used by a law enforcement agency.

(g)

Violations of dangerous animal requirements or responsibilities of dangerous animal owners. Each failure to comply with a dangerous animal requirement or responsibility of a dangerous animal owner contained in this article shall constitute a noncriminal infraction, punishable by a fine.

(h)

Impoundment, confiscation, and destruction of dangerous animals.

(1)

If an animal that has previously been classified as dangerous attacks or bites a person or a domestic animal without provocation, the department shall immediately confiscate and impound the animal and, after written notice to the owner and expiration of ten business days from the date the owner receives the notice, destroy such dangerous animal in an expeditious and humane manner. This ten-day time period shall allow the owner to request a hearing under section 14-67.

(2)

If an animal attacks and causes severe injury to or death of any human, the animal shall be immediately confiscated by the department, placed in quarantine, if necessary, for the proper length of time, or otherwise impounded, and held for ten business days after the owner is given written notice, and thereafter destroyed in an expeditious and humane manner. This ten-day time period shall allow the owner to request a hearing under section 14-67.

(3)

For any period of impoundment or quarantine referenced in subsections (h)(1) or (2) above, or referenced elsewhere in this article, the owner shall be responsible for payment of all boarding costs and other fees associated therewith.

(4)

Notice under this subsection shall be effected by registered mail, certified hand delivery (signed receipt), or service in conformance with the provisions of F.S. ch. 48, as amended, relating to service of process.

(5)

If the owner requests a hearing or files an appeal under subsection (h)(1), (2) or (3) above, the animal must be held by the department, at the owner's expense, and may not be destroyed while the hearing or appeal is pending. If any owner or keeper of a dangerous animal is a minor, the parent or guardian of such minor shall be responsible for complying with the provisions of this article.

Sec. 14-67. - Hearings.

Hearing officer. There is hereby created for the purposes of this article the position of hearing officer. Said hearing officer shall be the director of the health department, or his/her designee, or alternatively a member in good standing of the Florida Bar.

(b)

Burden of proof. The department shall bear the burden of establishing that an animal is dangerous by a preponderance of evidence. The owner shall bear the burden of establishing any factual or legal defense to the classification of dangerousness by a preponderance of evidence.

(c)

Hearing procedures. These procedures govern hearings before a hearing officer as provided in this article. Such hearings shall provide an opportunity for the owner to be heard. All hearings shall be conducted in accordance with the Florida Rules of Civil Procedure and the Florida Evidence Code, except as otherwise stated herein. However, the hearing shall be conducted in an informal manner to the extent practicable. Each party shall be afforded the following rights:

(1)

To be accompanied, represented, and advised by counsel;

(2)

To offer the testimony of witnesses and examine opposing witnesses on relevant matters; and

(3)

To present his or her case by oral or documentary evidence.

(d)

Evidence.

(1)

In any hearing before a hearing officer, irrelevant, immaterial, or unduly repetitious evidence shall be excluded. All other evidence of a type commonly relied upon by reasonably prudent persons in the conduct of their affairs shall be admissible, whether such evidence would be admissible in a trial in the courts of the state. Any part of the evidence may be received in written form, and all testimony of parties and witnesses shall be made under oath. Hearsay evidence may be used for the purpose of supplementing or explaining other evidence, but it shall not be sufficient in itself to support a finding unless it would be admissible over objection in civil actions.

(2)

A party shall be permitted to conduct cross-examination when testimony is taken or documents are made a part of the record.

(3)

The rules of privilege shall be effective to the same extent that they are recognized under state law.

(e)

Written determinations of the hearing officer.

(1)

After conducting a hearing, the Hearing Officer shall issue a determination within 20 calendar days of the hearing.

(2)

All determinations of the hearing officer shall be in writing, signed, and dated by the hearing officer, shall contain findings of fact and conclusions of law, and shall be served upon the owner by registered mail, certified hand delivery (signed receipt), or service in conformance with the provisions of F.S. ch. 48, as amended, relating to service of process.

(f)

Obligation to pay hearing officer's fee; deposit. The non-prevailing party shall be responsible for paying the hearing officer's fee in full. When filing a written request for a hearing, the owner shall provide a deposit in the amount established by resolution as security for payment of the hearing officer's fee. If the owner prevails in the hearing, the deposit shall be returned in full. The dividing line between inland salt waters and open waters of the Gulf of Mexico, for the purpose of this section, shall be established by a line drawn from the farthest point to the farthest point of the outside beach or shoreline at noon low tide, or of the mainland or islands in question, where such beach or shoreline joins the open Gulf of Mexico, as the case may be, said line to be drawn across the entrance to the pass, inlet, harbor, river, creek, lagoon, bay, or bayou, and be considered as the dividing line between inland waters and open waters.

It shall be unlawful to set any net or seine of any description in the inland salt waters of Pinellas County and allow it to remain for a period of time exceeding four hours. The time of such net being in the water [is] to be calculated from the time any portion of such nets is or are first placed in the water. It is the intent of the legislature to provide for uniform building codes and uniform life safety codes for the county. It is further the intent of the legislature to provide for continuing uniformity of the aforementioned codes by placing the sole authority for making technical amendments to the codes, applicable within the boundaries of Pinellas County, with the Pinellas County Construction Licensing Board.

The resolution of these disputes shall be in accordance with applicable general law. The decision of the board interpreting a code, resolving a conflict of interpretation, or adopting an amendment following a recommendation by the applicable board of adjustment and appeals shall be the final local determination of the matter which is subject to appeal to the Florida Building Commission pursuant to section 553.73, Florida Statutes, and/or the state fire marshal pursuant to chapter 633, Florida Statutes.

Provided, however, if the municipality in which the dispute occurred has established a board of adjustment and appeals the aggrieved party must first appeal to the municipal board. The codes shall be interpreted liberally to provide safe, economic and sound buildings and structures in the county. Code interpretations of any board of adjustment and appeals made under this section shall be final administrative actions and shall not be subject to review by the board [county construction licensing board]. Final decisions

DIVISION 1. - GENERALLY

Sec. 26-26. - Definitions.

(a)

A "children's center" includes any day nursery, nursery school, kindergarten, or other facility whatsoever which, with or without compensation, cares for five or more children 17 years of age or under, not related to the operator by blood, marriage, or adoption, away from the child's own home for from two to 12 hours per day per child. This term shall not be construed to include any center under the jurisdiction of the state board of education or to include any nonpublic academic school except in regard to children below first grade level.

(b)

A "day nursery" means a children's center consisting of improved realty, equipment, and staff, conducted for children ranging in age from two years through six years nine months for the purpose of providing shelter, food, rest and care and training. Such centers may accept schoolchildren under 17 years before and after school hours.

(c)

A "nursery school" means a children's center consisting of improved realty, equipment and staff, conducted for children ranging in age from two years through five years nine months for the purpose of offering an educational program of directed, organized play and training at the level of the child's growth and development, and providing shelter, food, rest and care, for from two to seven hours per day per child.

(d)

A "kindergarten" means a children's center consisting of improved realty, equipment and staff, conducted for children ranging from five years through six years nine months in age, for the purpose of offering an educational program of directed, organized play and training at the level of the children's growth and development, and providing shelter, food, rest, and care for from two to seven hours per day per child.

No more than three of the four children may be under two years of age. (f)

"Children's centers" licensed hereunder shall not provide regular overnight care for children. Overnight care on New Year's Eve and other similar occasions to be specified by the license board for a number not in excess of the total enrollment authorized on its license is permissive, subject to the determination by the license board that such overnight care is reasonable under the circumstances.

To be registered the applicant shall file evidence of holding a current state or county occupational license and/or a current competency license issued by the state, county or any municipality in the county for the type of work for which registration is desired, on a form prescribed by the board, with evidence of successful compliance with the local examination and licensing requirements, if any, in the area for which registration is desired, accompanied by the registration fee fixed by this division. (b)

The board may receive an application on prescribed forms with supporting data; and upon finding of fact supporting the need or justification, the board may grant a limited and restricted registration to a contractor not domiciled in the county for one project. Renewal application or registration cannot be granted. (b) (1) Examinations shall be held at times and places within the county as the board determines, but there shall be at least three examinations a year. Each applicant shall take an objective written examination about his fitness for a certificate in the category for which application is made. There shall be a type of examination for all contractor categories that shall apply to the type of work covered by the certificate applied for. The examination shall cover knowledge of basic principles of contracting and construction applicable to the category for which a certificate is requested. It shall be an open-book examination consisting of multiple choice, fill-in, true-false, or short answer questions, and may include or consist of diagrams, plans, or sketches in connection with which the applicant is required to demonstrate his knowledge of construction by answering questions keyed to the diagrams, plans or sketches or make a drawing if required by a certificate of competency examination. All examinations shall be prepared by an independent testing agency, subject to approval of the board.

A passing grade on the examination is 70 percent.

(3)

Persons desiring to engage in specialty building trades with the county, not covered by this division, that require a municipal or county examination for licensing or certification shall be required to take and pass only one such examination that shall then be recognized in all other municipalities and the county without the necessity for an additional examination.

(c)

Examinations for journeymen certificates of competency shall be conducted by an independent testing agency and shall be held at the times, conducted in the manner, require the passing grade and shall be otherwise similar to those prescribed in subsection (b) of this section.

(d)

Upon receipt of the fee and application, the board shall investigate the financial responsibility and credit, business reputation of the applicant and of any business organization on behalf of which he proposes to engage in contracting, the education and experience of the applicant. Within 30 days from the date of the examination, the board shall tell the applicant in writing whether he has qualified or not and, if the applicant has qualified, that it is ready to issue a certificate in the category for which application was made, subject to compliance with the requirements of subsection (e) of this section.

(e)

As a prerequisite to issuance of a contractor's certificate, the board shall require the applicant to submit satisfactory evidence that he has obtained public liability and property damage insurance for the safety and welfare of the public in amounts to be determined by the board and a code compliance bond not to exceed $5,000.00 in accordance with F.S. § 489.131(3)(e). Thereupon, the certificate shall be issued forthwith, but this subsection does not apply to inactive certificates.

(f)

If an applicant for an original certificate, after having been notified to do so, does not appear for examination within one year from the date of filing his application, the fee paid by him shall be credited to the board as an earned fee. A new application for a certificate shall be accompanied by another application fee. Forfeiture of a fee may be waived by the board for good cause.

(g)

When a certificate holder desires to engage in contracting in any area of the county including municipalities, as a prerequisite therefor, he shall only be required to exhibit to the local official evidence of holding a current certificate issued by the board accompanied by the fee for the occupational license and building permit required of other persons. He shall not be required to take a municipal examination to prove his competency to obtain a municipal license.

(h)

When a state certificate holder desires to engage in contracting in any area of the county, including municipalities, as a prerequisite therefor, he shall be required to exhibit to the local building official, tax collector, or other person in charge of the issuance of licenses and building permits in the area evidence of holding a current state certificate accompanied by the fee for the occupational license and the building permit required of other persons. State certificate holders must register with the board to provide proof of current general liability insurance in amounts determined by the construction industry licensing board pursuant to F.S. ch. 489, and provide a code compliance bond not to exceed $5,000.00 in accordance with F.S. § 489.131(3)(e). (j)

Persons not desiring to engage in contracting on a countywide basis may take any required examination of any municipality within which he wishes to limit his business, except that he must register with the board in addition thereto.

A municipality may require persons desiring to engage in the business of contracting within its boundaries to comply with the examination requirements provided in this division rather than requiring its own examination, but it shall not require both.

The application shall also show that the person applying for the examination is legally qualified to act for the business organization in all matters connected with its contracting business; and that he has authority to supervise construction undertaken by the business organization. The registration or certification shall be in the name of the qualifying individual. If a natural person so qualified on behalf of the business organization ceases to be affiliated with the business organization, he shall inform the board as provided in this division. In addition, if the natural person is the only qualified natural person affiliated with the business organization, the business organization shall notify the board of this termination and shall have a period of 60 days from the termination of his affiliation with the business organization in which to qualify another natural person under the provisions of this division, failing which, the certification of the business organization shall be subject to revocation by the board.

When a business organization makes application for an occupational license in any municipality, the application shall be made with the tax collector in the name of the business organization; and the license, when issued, shall be issued to the business organization upon payment of the appropriate licensing fee and exhibition to the tax collector of a valid certificate issued by the board. (b)

Failure to renew the certificate or registration during September shall cause the certificate or registration to become inoperative, and it is unlawful thereafter for any person to engage or offer to engage or hold himself out as engaging in contracting under the certificate or registration unless the certificate or registration is restored or reissued.

A certificate or registration that is inoperative because of failure to renew shall be restored on payment of the proper renewal fee, if the application for restoration is made by September 30 of the subsequent year. (a)

On its own motion or the verified written complaint of any person, the board may investigate the action of any contractor certified or registered under this division and hold hearings pursuant to law. When any complaint involves a contractor certified or registered under this division for acts or omissions occurring in any area of the county that has a local board, the board shall forward the complaint to the local board where the alleged violation occurred for its action. Where no local board exists, or when such local board waives its jurisdiction, the board shall take jurisdiction. The board may take appropriate disciplinary action if the contractor is found to be guilty of or has committed any one of the acts or omissions constituting cause for disciplinary action set out herein or adopted as rules or regulations by the board.

(b)

The following acts constitute cause for disciplinary action:

(7)

Acting in the capacity of a contractor under any certificate or registration issued hereunder except in the name of the certificate holder or registrant as set forth on the issued certificate or registration, or in accordance with the personnel of the certificate holder or registrant as set forth in the application for the certificate or registration, or as later changed as provided in this division.

b.

The contractor has abandoned a customer's job and the percentage of completion is less than the percentage of the total contract price paid to the contractor as of the time of abandonment, unless the contractor is entitled to retain such funds under the terms of the contract or refunds the excess funds within 30 days after the date the job is abandoned.

c.

The contractor's job has been completed, and it is shown that the customer has had to pay more for the contracted job than the original contract price, as adjusted for subsequent change orders, unless such increase in cost was the result of circumstances beyond the control of the contractor, was the result of circumstances caused by the customer, or was otherwise permitted by the terms of the contract between the contractor and the customer.

(9)

Being disciplined by any municipality or county for an act or violation of this division, which discipline shall be reviewed by the board before the board takes any disciplinary action of its own.

(10)

Failing in any material respect to comply with the provisions of this division.

(11)

Abandoning a construction project in which the contractor is engaged or under contract as a contractor. A project is to be considered abandoned after 90 days if the contractor terminates the project without notification to the prospective owner and without just cause.

(12)

Signing a statement with respect to a project or contract falsely indicating that the work is bonded; falsely indicating that payment has been made for all subcontracted work, labor, and materials which results in a financial loss to the owner; purchaser, or contractor; or falsely indicating that workers' compensation and public liability insurance are provided.

(13)

Being found guilty of fraud or deceit or of gross negligence, incompetency, or misconduct in the practice of contracting.

(14)

Proceeding on any job without obtaining applicable local building department permits and inspections.

If a contractor disciplined under subsection (b)(12) is a qualifying agent for a business organization and the violation was performed in connection with a construction project undertaken by that business organization, the board may impose an additional administrative fine not to exceed $1,000.00 against the business organization or against any partner, officer, director, trustee, or member if such person participated in the violation or knew or should have known of the violation and failed to take reasonable corrective action.

(d)

The board may specify by rule the acts or omissions which constitute violations of this section.

(e)

The board is authorized to take the following disciplinary action:

(1)

Suspend the certificate holder or registrant from all operations as a contractor during the period fixed by the board, but the board may permit the certificate holder or registrant to complete any contracts then uncompleted.

Revoke a certificate or registration.

Impose an administrative fine or penalty not to exceed $1,000.00 (which shall be recoverable by the board only in an action at law).

The lapse or suspension of a certificate or registration by operation of law or by order of the board or a court, or its voluntary surrender by a certificate holder or registrant, does not deprive the board of jurisdiction to investigate or act in disciplinary proceedings against the certificate holder or registrant.

I, Florida Constitution. To that end, the board finds it necessary to impose reasonable regulations prohibiting lobbying in only certain limited circumstances, while otherwise allowing open access to government officials. In balancing the important yet competing rights of its citizens protected by the federal and state constitutions and to promote transparency and integrity in the decision making process, the board finds it necessary to require disclosure of certain activities related to lobbying as more fully set forth herein.

Charter reference— General powers of county, § 2.01.

Cross reference— Public access advisory council, § 2-476 et seq.; businesses, ch. 26.

State Law reference— General powers of chartered counties, Fla. Const. art. VIII, § 1(g); authority to regulate businesses, F.S. § 125.01(1)(h); cable television franchises, F.S. § 166.046; theft of cable services, F.S. § 812.14 et seq.

ARTICLE I. - IN GENERAL

Sec. 30-1. - Intent.

(a)

Authority. Federal and state law authorizes the county to grant one or more nonexclusive franchises to construct, operate, maintain and reconstruct cable systems within the unincorporated limits.

(b)

Findings and intent.

(1)

Benefits and impact of cable systems. The board finds that the development of cable systems has the potential of having great benefit and impact upon the residents of the county. Because of the complex and rapidly changing technology associated with Cable Systems, the board further finds that the public convenience, safety and general welfare can best be served by establishing regulatory powers which should be vested in the county or such persons as the county may designate.

(2)

Providing the means to attain franchise. It is the intent of this chapter to provide for and specify the means to attain the best possible cable service to the public and any franchises issued pursuant to this chapter shall be deemed to include this as an integral finding thereof.

(3)

Preservation of full range of authority. It is the further intent of this chapter to establish regulatory provisions that permit the county to regulate cable system franchises to the extent permitted by federal and state law, including but not limited to the Communications Act of 1934, the Federal Cable Communications Policy Act of 1984, the Federal Cable Television Consumer Protection and Competition Act of 1992 and the Federal Telecommunications Act of 1996, applicable Federal Communications Commission ("FCC") regulations and applicable Florida law all as they presently exist or are hereinafter amended.

(4)

Maintenance of regulatory control. It is the intent of this chapter to effectively regulate cable system franchise(s) in the county's areas of concerns by assuring compliance with the terms and conditions of this chapter and any franchise agreement granted hereunder.

(5)

Effect of competition. The county desires competition in cable services and believes competition will benefit the residents of the county. Further, the county believes that competition can develop without substantial injury to a grantee or a grantee's ability to perform on its obligations in any franchise agreement. In order to further support competition, certain obligations of a grantee under this chapter or any franchise agreement granted hereunder may be waived during periods of effective competition in the belief that market forces attendant to effective competition will most effectively regulate for the benefit of the consuming public. In the event that the grantor's judgment in this regard proves to be misplaced, the grantor reserves the right to selectively rescind an effective competition waiver, but only to the extent deemed necessary to support the public welfare.

Conditioned upon receipt of a proper permit, to erect, install, construct, repair, rebuild, reconstruct, replace, maintain, and retain, cable lines, related electronic equipment, supporting structures, appurtenances, and other property in connection with the operation of the cable system in, on, over, under, upon, along and across rights-of-way or other public places within the designated service area.

Future cable services franchised. To maintain and operate said franchise properties for the origination, reception, transmission, amplification, distribution and delivery of cable services, and such other cable services as may hereinafter be permitted by law.

(4)

Establish obligations. To set forth the general obligations of a grantee under the franchise.

(b)

Franchise required. It shall be unlawful for any person to construct, install, repair, maintain, or operate a cable system in the unincorporated Pinellas County area within any rights-of-way without a properly granted franchise awarded pursuant to the provisions of this chapter.

(1)

Anticipatory construction. The county reserves the right to grant a right-of-way utilization permit to a cable franchise applicant to install conduit and/or cable in anticipation of the granting of a franchise. Such installations shall be at the applicant's risk, with no recourse against the county in the event the pending franchise application is not granted in which case the county may further require that the franchise applicant comply with the provisions of section 30-50 as if the property was abandoned and to secure such compliance with a performance bond. The county may require an applicant to provide a separate trench for its conduit and/or cable, at the applicant's cost.

(2)

Extended operation and continuity of services. Upon denial of renewal or revocation of the franchise, the grantor shall have the discretion to permit a grantee to continue to operate the cable system for an extended period of time. A grantee shall continue to operate the cable system under the terms and conditions of this chapter and the franchise agreement and to provide the regular subscriber service and any and all of the services that may be provided at that time. It shall be the right of all subscribers to continue to receive all available services provided that financial and other obligations to a grantee are honored. The grantee shall use reasonable efforts to provide continuous, uninterrupted service to its subscribers, including operation of the cable system during transition periods following franchise denial of renewal or termination.

(c)

Term of the franchise. A franchise granted hereunder shall be for a term of years or portion thereof established in the franchise agreement, commencing on the county's adoption of an ordinance, resolution, or contractual agreement authorizing the franchise.

(d)

Areas embraced and geographic coverage.

(1)

Areas embraced. Any franchise granted hereunder shall be valid within the service area as defined in this chapter.

(2)

Geographic coverage. Unless otherwise established in the franchise agreement:

a.

Passing dwelling units. Provided that the grantee is able to secure all necessary rights-of-way and private easements on reasonable terms and conditions, a grantee shall design, construct and maintain the cable system to have the capability to pass every dwelling unit in the unincorporated county, subject to any line extension or overbuild requirements of the franchise agreement.

b.

Provision of service. After service has been established by activating trunk and/or distribution cables for any service area, a grantee shall provide service to any requesting subscriber within that service area within 30 days from the date of request, provided that the grantee is able to secure all rights-of-way and private easement necessary to extend service to such subscriber within such 30-day period on reasonable terms and conditions.

c.

Change of county limits through annexation or contraction. The franchise area is subject to reduction by annexation and that a grantee has no vested right in the franchise area, that the franchise area is subject to expansion or contraction and that the obligations of a grantee extend to an expanded unincorporated area, and that any franchise is awarded subject to the provisions of general or special laws of Florida now extant or hereinafter enacted.

Additional mandatory extension. Extension for the cable system into any areas not specifically treated in the plan required in section 30-44(a) shall nonetheless be required if the terms of any of the following conditions are met:

1.

Mandatory extension rule. A grantee shall extend the cable system upon request to any area not designated for extension in the construction plan attached as part of its franchise agreement when potential subscribers can be served by extension of the cable system past dwelling units equivalent to a density of 20 residential dwelling units per street mile of cable contiguous to the activated cable system.

2.

Early extension. In areas not meeting the requirements for mandatory extension of service, a grantee shall provide, upon the request of one or more potential subscribers desiring service, an estimate of the costs required to extend service to said subscribers. A grantee shall then extend service upon request of said potential subscribers according to the rate schedule. A grantee may require advance payment or assurance of payment satisfactory to a grantee. The amount paid by subscribers for early extension shall be nonrefundable and such payments shall be treated as consideration for early extension unless, within a period of two years from the completion of such extension the area reaches the density required for mandatory extension, in which event, the subscribers shall be credited with the amounts paid for early extension.

(3)

Areas not subject to county ownership or rights. It is understood that there are within Pinellas County various streets which the county does not have the unqualified right to authorize a grantee to use, because of reservations in favor of the dedicators or because of other legal impediments; therefore, in making any grant hereunder, the county does not warrant or represent as to any particular street or portion of a street that it has the right to authorize a grantee to install or maintain portions of its cable system therein, and in each case the burden and responsibility for making such determination in advance of the installation shall be upon a grantee. A grantee shall have no obligation to provide cable services to such areas.

(e)

Federal or state jurisdiction. All disputes arising out of this chapter or any franchise agreement granted hereunder may be decided by a court of competent jurisdiction. Venue shall, if in state court, be in the circuit court for the Sixth Judicial Circuit, in and for Pinellas County, Florida, Clearwater Division, or if in federal court, the United States District Court for the Middle District of Florida, Tampa Division.

(f)

No property right being conferred. A franchise does not convey a property right to the grantee or a right to renewal other than as may be required under state or federal law.

(g)

Franchise nontransferable.

(1)

Consent required. A grantee shall not sell, transfer, lease, assign, sublet or dispose of, in whole or in part, either by forced or involuntary sale, or by ordinary sale, contract, consolidation or otherwise, the franchise or any of the rights or privileges therein granted, without the prior consent of the board and then only upon such terms and conditions reasonably related to the technical, legal or financial qualifications of the transferee as may be reasonably prescribed by the board, which consent shall not be unreasonably denied. Any attempt to sell, transfer, lease, assign or otherwise dispose of the franchise without the consent of the board shall be a material violation of this chapter and the franchise agreement. The granting of a security interest in any assets, or any mortgage or other hypothecation, shall not be considered a transfer for the purposes of this section.

(2)

Change in control. The requirements of section 30-26(g)(1) shall apply to any change in control of a grantee. The word "control" as used herein is not limited to major stockholders or partnership interests, but includes actual working control in whatever manner exercised. In the event that a grantee is a corporation, there shall be a rebuttable presumption of a change in control where ownership or control of more than 30 percent of the voting stock of a grantee is acquired by a person or group of persons acting in concert, none of whom own or control the voting stock of the grantee as of the effective date of the franchise, singularly or collectively.

(3)

Exception for subsidiary transfers. Notwithstanding anything in this section to the contrary, if a grantee is a wholly-owned subsidiary of a parent company, transfer of the franchise from a grantee to another wholly-owned subsidiary of the same parent company or to that same parent company shall not require prior consent of the grantor.

Notice of transfer required. A grantee shall notice grantor in writing of any foreclosure or any other judicial sale of all or a substantial part of the franchise property of the grantee or upon the termination of any lease or interest covering, all or a substantial part of said franchise property. Such notification shall be considered by grantor as notice that a change in control of ownership of the franchise has taken place and the provisions under this section governing the consent of grantor to such change in control of ownership shall apply.

(5)

Procedure and criteria for approval of a transfer.

a.

Grantor inquiry. For the purpose of determining whether it shall consent to such change, transfer, or acquisition of control, grantor may inquire into the qualifications of the prospective transferee or controlling party, and a grantee shall assist grantor in such inquiry. In seeking grantor's consent to any change of ownership or control, a grantee shall have the responsibility of insuring that the grantee and/or the proposed transferee complete an application in accordance with Federal Communications Commission Form 394 or equivalent. An application shall be submitted to grantor not less than 120 days prior to the proposed date of transfer.

Transferee burden. The transferee shall be required to establish that it possesses the qualifications and financial and technical capability to operate and maintain the cable system and comply with all franchise requirements for the remainder of the term of the franchise.

c.

Grantor consent. If, in the reasonable judgment of the grantor, the legal, financial, character, and technical qualifications of the applicant are satisfactory and if the grantee is then in compliance with all material requirements of the franchise, the grantor may consent to the transfer of the franchise. The consent of the grantor to such transfer shall not be unreasonably denied or delayed.

Consent not a waiver. Approval by the grantor of a transfer of a franchise does not constitute a waiver or release of any of the rights of the grantor under this chapter or the franchise agreeement.

(6)

Foreclosure issues. If any financial institution having a pledge of the grantee or its assets for the advancement of money for the construction and/or operation of the franchise shall take control of and operate the cable system, it shall notify the grantor. Further, said financial institution shall also submit a plan for such operation within 30 days of assuming such control that will insure continued service and compliance with all franchise requirements during the term the financial institution exercises control over the cable system. The financial institution shall not exercise control over the cable system for a period exceeding one year unless extended by the grantor in its reasonable discretion and during said period of time it shall have the right to petition the grantor to transfer the franchise to another grantee.

(h)

Nonexclusive franchise.

(1)

Nonexclusivity of grant. A grantee's right to use and occupy rights-of-way for the purposes herein set forth shall be nonexclusive, and the county reserves the right to grant the use of rights-of-way, for the same or a different purpose, to any person or persons at any time upon terms and conditions satisfactory to the county and to grant a similar franchise to any person(s) or entities other than a grantee.

(2)

Additional grants subject to equities. Consistent with F.S. § 166.046(3), if the county considers granting an additional franchise on terms more favorable or less burdensome to the subsequent grantee (whether by the grant of greater benefits or the imposition of lesser obligations), or if another party utilizing the rights-of-way offers service competitive with a grantee, then the existing grantee(s) shall have the right to renegotiate their franchise(s) to incorporate the more favorable terms and/or reduce its obligations to achieve competitively neutral and nondiscriminatory treatment prior to or at the same time as the adoption of such additional franchise. Any ultimate renegotiation of the incumbent franchise will be done in such a way that the incumbent(s) is/are not disadvantaged because of the negotiation period and competitive neutrality will be preserved throughout. For purposes of adjusting franchise terms and maintaining a franchise in full force and effect, the initial judgment on whether terms are more favorable or less burdensome or whether treatment is competitively neutral and nondiscriminatory is within the judgment of the board, reasonably exercised. Nothing herein precludes a grantee's right to challenge the legality or reasonableness of the board's decision. All grantees shall be noticed upon filing of an application for an additional franchise.

Multiple franchises. The county may grant any number of franchises subject to applicable state or federal law. The county may limit the number of franchises granted, based upon, but not necessarily limited to, the requirements of applicable law and specific local considerations, such as:

1.

The capacity of the rights-of-way to accommodate multiple cables in addition to the cables, conduits and pipes of the utility systems, such as electrical power, telephone, gas and sewerage.

2.

The benefits that may accrue to cable subscribers as a result of cable system competition, such as lower rates and improved service.

3.

The disadvantages that may result from cable system competition, such as the requirement for multiple pedestals on residents' property, and the disruption arising from numerous excavations of the rights-of-way.

b.

Refusal to award. The county may not unreasonably refuse to award an additional competitive franchise.

(i)

Other business activities. A franchise adopted pursuant to this chapter authorizes only the operation of a cable system as provided for herein, and does not take the place of any other franchise, license, or permit which might be required by the controlling federal, state or local law for the provision of other services or other business activities.

(j)

Emergency use of facilities.

(1)

Override capability. The cable system shall be maintained in such a way as to allow, in an override mode, county use of the distribution capacity of the cable system over all of the channels which the county may lawfully override and to access the emergency alert system. A grantee shall not claim the county's rights hereunder have been preempted by federal or state law. This override capacity shall be made available in amounts and at times deemed reasonably necessary by the board for testing (at least twice per year) and on a continuing basis in the case of emergency, disaster or like circumstances. The cable system shall at all times comply with applicable FCC rules for emergency override and be upgraded consistent with FCC rules.

(2)

Cooperation in emergency communications. All grantees are encouraged to cooperate with surrounding cable companies in the formulation of a county-wide network for the purpose of emergency communications services and the dissemination of information that may be of interest to all citizens of the Tampa Bay Area.

(k)

Interpretation of franchise terms.

(1)

Incorporation and conflicts. This chapter applies to a franchise agreement as if fully set forth in the franchise agreement. Unless expressly provided for to the contrary in a franchise agreement, the express terms of this chapter prevail over conflicting or inconsistent provisions in a franchise agreement.

(2)

Construction. The provisions of this chapter shall be construed in a manner consistent with all applicable federal and state laws, and shall apply to all franchises granted or renewed after the effective date of this chapter to the extent permitted by applicable law. The provisions of a franchise agreement must be liberally construed in order to effectuate the intent of this chapter consistent with the public interest.

(3)

Governing laws. Any franchise agreement granted hereunder shall be construed to have been executed in the county, and shall, in determining validity, interpretation, effect, construction, application or any other respect, be governed by the applicable laws of the State of Florida and applicable federal law. References to applicable law or applicable requirements refer to applicable law or requirements as the same may be amended from time to time.

(l)

Notices and public hearings.

(1)

Notice generally. All notices required under this chapter or any franchise agreement granted hereunder shall be by certified mail, return receipt requested, and the date of issuance is the postmark date of the transmittal. When any provision of this chapter or any franchise agreement granted hereunder provides for a time period after notice, the time period begins to run from the date of transmittal.

a.

Notice to county. All notices from the grantee to the county pursuant to this chapter or any franchise agreement adopted hereunder shall be to the county administrator with copy to the office of the county attorney or to such other officers as may be designated by the board.

b.

Notice to grantee. A grantee shall maintain with the county, throughout the term of its franchise, an address for service of notices by mail. A grantee shall also maintain within the county, a local office and telephone number for the conduct of matters related to this chapter or any franchise agreement granted hereunder during normal business hours. Unless provided for to the contrary in the franchise agreement, county notices to a grantee shall be to the last address provided to the county by the grantee.

(2)

Public hearings. Public hearings relating to this chapter or any franchise agreement adopted hereunder shall be held in accordance with law.

(Ord. No. 99-46, § 2, 5-11-99)

g.

A proposed construction and service schedule;

h.

Any information deemed relevant to the county's decision making under this section.

i.

Any additional information that the county reasonably deems applicable.

(3)

Consideration of initial applications.

a.

Upon receipt of any application for an initial franchise, the county administrator or a delegate shall prepare a report and make recommendations respecting such application to the board.

A public hearing shall be set prior to any initial franchise grant, at a time and date approved by the board. Within 30 days after the close of the hearing, the board shall make a decision based upon the evidence received at the hearing as to whether or not the franchise(s) should be granted, and, if granted, subject to what conditions. The board may grant one or more franchises, or may decline to grant any franchise.

(b)

Franchise renewal. Franchise renewals shall be in accordance with applicable law. The county and a grantee, by mutual consent, may enter into renewal negotiations at any time during the term of the franchise.

(c)

Franchise agreement amendment. Amendment of existing franchise agreements shall be by reference to the existing franchise agreement and shall incorporate the amendment into the body of or amend a specific section of the franchise agreement.

(d)

Fees.

(1)

Transfers. The county may charge for actual out-of-pocket costs incurred by the county with respect to the consideration of an application for transfer or change in control not to exceed $15,000.00.

(2)

Renewals. Renewals shall be at the expense of the county.

(Ord. No. 99-46, § 2, 5-11-99; Ord. No. 00-65, § 4, 8-15-00)

Secs. 30-28—30-40. - Reserved.

ARTICLE III. - FRANCHISE ADMINISTRATION

Sec. 30-41. - Minimum consumer protection and service standards.

(a)

Customer service obligations. As a minimum, the grantee shall comply with the customer service standards found in Federal Communications Commission regulations, 47 Code of Federal Regulations (C.F.R.) Section 76.309, and any amendments substitutions thereto. Adoption of any franchise agreement under this chapter shall serve as written notice, pursuant to 47 C.F.R. Section 76.309.a, of the county's intent to enforce those customer service standards.

(b)

Noncompetitive customer service obligations. In the event of the loss of effective competition, the following additional consumer protection and service standards shall apply and the grantee(s) shall maintain the necessary facilities, equipment and personnel to maintain:

(1)

Operational standards.

Telephone answering standards.

1.

Sufficient toll-free telephone line capacity during normal business hours to assure that telephone answer time by a customer service representative, including wait time, shall not exceed 30 seconds; and callers needing to be transferred shall not be required to wait more than 30 seconds before being connected to a service representative. Under normal operating conditions, a caller shall receive a busy signal less than three percent of the time.

Emergency toll free telephone line capacity on a 24-hour basis, including weekends and holidays. After normal business hours, the telephone calls may be answered by a service or an automated response system, including an answering machine. Calls received after normal business hours must be responded to by a trained company representative on the next business day. During periods when an answering service or machine is used, grantee shall provide on-call personnel who shall contact the answering service or machine, at a minimum, every four hours to check on requests for service or complaints.

3.

Grantee shall not be required to acquire equipment or perform surveys to measure compliance with the telephone answering standards above unless an historical record of complaints indicates a clear failure to comply. The standards of section 30-41(b)(1)a., b above shall be met not less than 90 percent of the time measured on a quarterly basis.

A conveniently located local business and service and/or payment office open during normal business hours where grantee provides adequate staffing to accept subscriber payments and respond to service requests and complaints. Normal business hours shall include some evening hours, at least one night per week, and/or some weekend hours. The grantee may petition the grantor to reduce its business hours if the extended hours are not justified by subscriber demand, and grantor may not unreasonably deny the petition.

c.

The standards of section 30-41(b)(1), (c) below, shall be met not less than 95 percent of the time measured on a quarterly basis.

1.

An emergency system maintenance and repair staff, capable of responding to and repairing major system malfunction on a 24-hour per day basis.

2.

An installation staff, capable of installing service to any subscriber requiring a standard installation within seven days after receipt of a request, in all areas where trunk and feeder cable have been activated. "Standard installations" shall be those that are located up to 125 feet from the existing distribution system, unless otherwise defined in any franchise agreement.

3.

Grantee shall schedule, within a specified four-hour time period during normal business hours, all appointments with subscribers for installation of service, service calls and other activities at the subscriber location. Grantee may schedule installation and service calls outside of normal business hours for the express convenience of the customer. Grantee shall not cancel an appointment with a customer after the close of business on the business day prior to the scheduled appointment. If a grantee representative is running late for an appointment with a customer and will not be able to keep the appointment as scheduled, the customer shall be contacted and the appointment rescheduled, as necessary, at a time which is convenient for the customer.

(2)

Service standards.

Grantee shall render efficient service, make repairs promptly, an interrupt service only for good cause and for the shortest time possible. Scheduled interruptions insofar as possible, shall be preceded by notice and shall occur during a period of minimum use of the cable system, preferably between midnight and 6:00 a.m. local time.

The grantee shall maintain a repair force of technicians normally capable of responding to subscriber requests for service within the following time frames:

1.

For a system outage: Within two hours, including weekends of receiving subscriber calls or requests for service which by number identify a system outage of sound or picture of one or more channels, affecting at least ten percent of the subscribers of the system.

2.

For an isolated outage: Within 24 hours, including weekends of receiving requests for service identifying an isolated outage of sound or picture for one or more channels that affects five or more subscribers. On weekends an outage affecting fewer than five subscribers shall result in a service call no later than the next business day.

3.

For inferior signal quality: Within two business days of receiving a request for service identifying a problem concerning picture or sound quality.

c.

Grantee shall be deemed to have responded to a request for service under the provisions of this section when a technician arrives at the service location and begins work on the problem. In the case of a subscriber not being home when the technician arrives, the technician shall leave written notification of arrival.

Grantee shall not charge for the repair or replacement of defective or malfunctioning equipment provided by grantee to subscribers, unless the defect was caused by the subscriber, or the equipment owned by the subscriber requires repair or replacement.

e.

Unless excused, grantee shall determine the nature of the problem resulting in a request for service within two business days of beginning work and resolve all cable system related problems within five business days unless technically infeasible.

(3)

Billing and information standards.

a.

Subscriber bills shall be clear, concise and understandable. Bills shall be fully itemized, with itemizations including, but not limited to, basic and premium service charges and equipment charges. Bills shall also clearly delineate all activity during the billing period, including optional charges, rebates and credits.

In case of a billing dispute, the grantee shall respond to a written complaint from a subscriber within 30 days.

Grantee shall automatically provide credits or refunds to such subscribers whose service has been interrupted for 24 consecutive hours or more. Credits or refunds shall automatically be provided by grantee on a pro rata basis to any subscriber(s) affected by interruption(s) of service for more than two hours due to actions or outages under the control of the grantee, exclusive of scheduled repairs, maintenance or franchise-required construction that grantee has provided advance written notice of to subscribers. In cases where advance written notice is provided to subscribers, the time period detailed in said notice shall not exceed four hours in any 24-hour period. In cases where said notice has been given to subscribers and the service interruption exceeds the period detailed in said notice, the provisions of this section shall apply.

In the event grantee has improperly or inadvertently disconnected cable services to a subscriber, grantee shall provide for restoration without charge to subscriber as soon as possible but no later than within two days of discovery of disconnection. Grantee shall credit or provide refunds to any subscriber improperly or inadvertently disconnected from receiving cable services for the period of time without cable service. All credits or refunds for service shall be issued no later than the customer's next billing cycle following the determination that a credit is warranted. For subscribers terminating service, refunds shall be issued promptly but no later than 30 days after the return of any grantee supplied equipment. Grantee shall provide written information on each of the following areas at the time of the installation of service, at least annually to all subscribers, and at any time upon request:

Products and services offered; and 2.

Prices and options for programming services and conditions of subscription to programming and other services; and 3.

Installation and service maintenance policies; and 4.

Instructions on how to use the cable service; and 5.

Channel positions of programming carried on the system; and 6.

Billing and complaint procedures, including the address and telephone number of the grantee office designated for dealing with cable-related issues.

d.

Subscribers shall be notified of any changes in rates, programming services or channel positions as soon as possible in writing and in accordance with state and federal law. Notice must be given to subscribers a minimum of 30 days in advance of such changes if the change is within the control of the grantee. In addition grantee shall notify subscribers 30 days in advance of any significant changes in the information required in the immediately preceding section 30-41(b)(3), (c) above.

(4)

Verification of compliance with standards.

a.

Upon ten days prior written notice. Grantee shall respond to request for information made by grantor regarding grantee's compliance with any or all of the standards required in this section. Grantee shall provide sufficient documentation to permit grantor to verify grantee's compliance.

In order to determine whether sufficient telephone lines are provided, the grantor may require that a busy study, traffic study or other study be conduced, at grantee's expense, if any, by the local telephone company. Should grantee have its own telephone equipment which can report on telephone line(s) usage the grantee may submit such report from its own system. The grantor, pursuant to this chapter, may require grantee to acquire equipment to determine compliance with the telephone answering standards of this section.

c.

Grantee shall take necessary steps to ensure that adequate telephone lines and/or staffing are available to permit grantee to satisfy its obligations under this chapter and the franchise agreement. Consideration shall be given for periods of promotional activities or outages. The monthly billing period shall be considered as a normal, daily activity for purposes of determining the availability of adequate telephone lines and/or staffing.

(5)

Subscriber complaints and disputes.

Grantee shall establish written procedures for receiving, acting upon and resolving subscriber complaints without intervention by the grantor. The written procedures shall prescribe the manner in which a subscriber may submit a complaint either orally or in writing specifying the subscriber's grounds for dissatisfaction. grantee shall file a copy of these procedures with grantor. The written procedures shall include a requirement that the grantee respond to any written complaint from a subscriber within 30 days of receipt.

Upon prior written request, grantor shall have the right to review grantee's response to any subscriber complaints in order to determine grantee's compliance with the franchise requirements, subject to the subscriber's right to privacy.

c.

Grantee response to subscriber complaints, as well as complaints made by subscribers to grantor and provided by grantor to grantee, shall be initiated within one business day of receipt by grantor. The resolution of subscriber complaints shall be effected by grantee not later than three business days after receipt of the complaint. Should a grantee supervisor not be available when requested by a subscriber, a supervisor shall respond to the subscriber's complaint at the earliest possible time, and in no event later than the end of the next business day. For complaints received by grantor and provided by grantor to grantee, grantee shall notify grantor of grantee's progress in responding to, and resolving, said complaints.

(c)

Additional service obligations. Upon a finding of necessity by the board at a public hearing, the county reserves any lawful right to establish, in consultation with the grantee(s) and the grantee(s) shall comply with, additional reasonable service standards in the future, as permitted by federal and state law, that may be more comprehensive and more stringent than those contained in the existing FCC regulations. When deemed appropriate by the county compliance time lines may be established for achieving any additional service standards.

(d)

Verification of compliance with obligations.

(1)

County monitoring. The county's designated representative shall be responsible for monitoring grantee's compliance with the terms of this section.

Grantee demonstration of compliance. Upon 30 days notice, a grantee shall establish its compliance with any or all of the standards required in this section, as applicable. A grantee shall provide such sufficient documentation as is reasonably necessary to permit the county to verify the compliance.

(3)

Material breach. In addition to those material breaches enumerated in this chapter, a repeated and verifiable pattern of noncompliance with the consumer protection standards of this section, as applicable, after a grantee's receipt of 30 days' notice and an opportunity to cure, may be deemed a material breach of this chapter or any franchise agreement adopted hereunder.

(e)

Subscriber complaints and disputes.

(1)

Written procedures. A grantee shall establish written procedures for receiving, acting upon and resolving subscriber complaints without intervention by the county. The written procedures shall prescribe the manner in which a subscriber may submit a complaint either orally or in writing specifying the subscriber's grounds for dissatisfaction. A grantee shall file a copy of these procedures with the county. Said procedures shall include a requirement that a grantee respond to any written complaint from a subscriber within 30 days of receipt.

(2)

Response review. The county shall have the right, upon 30 days' notice, to review a grantee's response to written subscriber complaints and to any unwritten complaints that resulted in a service call or other comparable response. This requirement shall apply only to records maintained in the ordinary course of business.

(3)

Continuity of service after transfer. In the event of a change of control of a grantee, or in the event a new operator acquires the cable system, the original grantee shall cooperate with the county, new grantee or operator in maintaining continuity of service to all subscribers. During such period, a grantee shall be entitled to the revenues for any period during which it operates the cable system less the franchise fee payment and any PEG obligations to the county.

(f)

Other requirements.

(1)

Business office and hours. The grantee shall maintain a business office in the county. The office shall be open during all usual business hours, have a listed telephone, and be so operated that customers may make

Continuous failure to operate system. In the event a grantee fails to operate the cable system to provide cable service for seven consecutive days without prior approval or subsequent excuse by the county, the county may, at its sole option, operate the cable system or designate an operator until such time as a grantee restores service under conditions acceptable to the county or a permanent operator is selected. If the county should fulfill this obligation for the grantee, then during such period as the county or its designee fulfills such obligation, the county shall be entitled to collect all revenues from the cable system, and the grantee shall indemnify the county against any damages the county may suffer as a result of such failure.

(3)

Photo identification of filed personnel. All field personnel of a grantee or its contractors or subcontractors who, in the normal course of work come into contact with members of the public or who require entry onto subscribers' premises shall carry a photo-identification card. A grantee shall account for all identification cards at all times. Every vehicle of the grantee or its major subcontractors shall be clearly identified as working for the grantee.

(Ord. No. 99-46, § 2, 5-11-99)

(3)

Audit.

Right to audit; presumption of correctness. Upon 30 days prior written notice, the county shall have the right to conduct an independent audit of a grantee's records to determine whether a grantee has paid the required franchise fees and PEG obligations or has otherwise fulfilled its financial obligations under this chapter or its franchise agreement. Absent proof to the contrary, the methodology that is employed in computing the amount of an underpayment is presumed to yield an appropriate computation.

Notice of underpayment. Any additional amount due to the county as a result of the audit shall be paid within 30 days following written notice to the grantee by the county which notice shall include a copy of the audit report.

2.

Cost of the audit. If such audit indicates an average annual combined franchise fee/PEG obligation underpayment of five percent or more over a three-year audit period, the grantee shall assume all reasonable costs of such audit.

3.

Audit frequency. Except within three years of the termination of a franchise term, or in response to a request to transfer the franchise, no audit shall be conducted more frequently than every three years without a finding of necessity by the board.

4.

Scope of the audit. Except in the case of fraud or in the case of new issues that arise that could not have been reasonably anticipated or professionally accommodated by the auditor at the time of a previous audit, no audit of a previously audited period shall subject a grantee to additional obligations.

Interest. If timely paid pursuant to section 30-42, interest will not be imposed for any payment necessary as a result of the audit if the payment to correct for a shortfall does not exceed ten percent of the total payments made during the audit period. In the event such payment exceeds ten percent of the total payments made during the year, the grantee will be liable for interest and late charges for the entire amount due. If not timely paid pursuant to section 30-42, interest shall be paid pursuant to section 30-42 from the due date dating from the year that the underpayment occurs.

(4)

Accord and satisfaction. Except as otherwise provided by law, no acceptance of any payment, renewal or other form of assent to continued service by the county shall be construed as a release or as an accord and satisfaction of any claim the county may have for further or additional sums payable as a franchise fee under this chapter or for the performance of any other obligation of the grantee.

(5)

Nonpayment or late payment of financial obligations fees. In the event that any franchise fee payment or recomputed amount is not made on or before the dates specified in this chapter or the franchise agreement, a grantee shall pay as additional compensation:

a.

Interest on financial obligations. An interest charge, computed from such due date, at an annual rate equal to the prime lending rate of any national bank selected by the county, plus one percent during the period for which payment was due; and

b.

Delinquency penalty. If a regular payment or a payment required as a result of an audit is late by 45 days or more, a sum of money equal to five percent of the amount due in order to defray those additional expenses and costs incurred by the county by reason of delinquent payment.

Interest in the case of fraud. In the event of fraud, interest shall be calculated daily from the date that the amount fraudulently withheld should have been paid without taking into account any notice from the county.

Protesting audit results.

1.

Right to protest. Upon notice of any underpayment as a result of an audit under section 30-42 and if the audit underpayment amount is paid, under protest, a grantee shall have the right to provide evidence at a hearing before the board or its designee, pursuant to section 30-49, to rebut the presumption of correctness of the audit established under section 30-42.

2.

Notice of protest. A grantee may, within ten days of notice provided under section 30-42, exercise its section 30-42 right to a hearing. Upon receipt of a notice of a request for a hearing either preceded or accompanied by payment of the amount of the underpayment, the board or its designee shall set a hearing date which shall not be held any sooner than 25 days nor any later than 45 days after notice of the underpayment.

3.

Refund. If the board or its designee determines that the presumption of correctness of the audit results has been rebutted, in whole or in part, based on competent substantial evidence, presented at the hearing, a refund of the amount due the grantee shall be issued within 15 days of the decision with interest calculated pursuant to section 30-42.

(6)

Documentation. Franchise fee payments shall, at a minimum, be accompanied by an itemized statement, approved by the county, showing the specific methodology used in calculating the franchise fee. The county may request and a grantee shall provide, to the county's satisfaction, a clarification of that methodology.

(7)

Payment on termination. When a franchise terminates for any reason, the grantee must file with the county within 90 days of the date the franchise operations stop a an audited financial statement or a financial statement certified by a financial officer of the grantee, showing the gross revenues received by the grantee since the end of the previous fiscal year. Adjustments must be made at that time for franchise fees and PEG obligations due to the date that the grantee's operations ceased.

(b)

Alternate franchise fee formulation.

(1)

County-initiated. To the extent allowed by law, the county may, at any time, amend this chapter to provide an alternate formulation which is revenue neutral in the sense that it will not exceed the federally allowed maximum franchise fee nor exceed the amount provided for in the relevant franchise agreement if less than the federally allowed maximum franchise fee.

(2)

Dispositive decision. Within 90 days of a dispositive determination of the invalidity of the gross revenue percentage as a fair rental charge or inappropriate formulation for a franchise fee, the county may determine an appropriate reformulation pursuant to section 30-42 or such other revenue neutral basis to which the county and a grantee(s) may agree.

(3)

Termination for failure of material provision. Failing an agreement as provided for in the immediately preceding section 30-42 the county may renegotiate pursuant to the provisions of section 30-66.

(4)

Nonpayment of alternate fee. Failure to pay any lawfully imposed franchise fee based on the legal percentage of gross revenue, the reformulated basis pursuant to section 30-42, or agreed upon basis pursuant to section 30-42, shall be deemed a material breach of the franchise agreement.

(5)

County authority removed by state statute. Any state statute which removes the authority of the county to assess franchise fees is not a basis for implementing this section 30-42(b).

(c)

Other taxing authorities. To the extent that taxes or other assessments are imposed by taxing authorities on the use of county property as a result of an operator's use or occupation of the rights-of-way, all grantee(s) under this chapter shall be responsible for payment of their pro rata share of such taxes, payable annually unless otherwise required by the taxing authority. Such payments shall be in addition to any other fees payable pursuant to this chapter.

(d)

Public, educational, and governmental access obligations. Public, educational, and governmental access or PEG obligations including but not limited to channel capacity and support shall be established in the franchise agreement.

(Ord. No. 99-46, § 2, 5-11-99; Ord. No. 00-65, § 5, 8-15-00)

Sec. 30-43. - Security provisions.

(1)

Availability of funds. The security fund shall be available to the county as security for:

a.

Faithful performance of all applicable provisions of this chapter and of the franchise agreement adopted under this chapter;

b.

Compliance with all orders, permits, and directions of the county; and

c.

Payment by the grantee of any claims, liens, or taxes due and unpaid to the county, liquidated damages, damages, or costs or expenses that the county is compelled to pay by reason of any act or default of the grantee in connection with a franchise granted under this chapter.

(2)

Failure to maintain security fund. Failure to maintain or to replenish the security fund as required under this section shall be deemed a material breach of the franchise.

(3)

Grantee rights. A grantee(s) shall retain all rights to litigate any of the actions taken by the county in drawing upon the security fund including review pursuant to section 30-49.

(4)

Amount of the security fund.

a.

Initial amount. The initial security fund shall be established in the franchise agreement. No more often than every five years, the board may review the enforcement history of the franchise and may increase or decrease the amount of the security fund to an amount deemed by the board to be reasonably necessary to secure performance.

b.

Replenishment of the instrument. If the security fund is drawn upon by the county in substantial compliance with the procedures established in this chapter, a grantee shall cause the security fund to be replenished to the original amount no later than 30 days after each withdrawal by the county.

(5)

Surety qualifications. Any performance bond, letter of credit or surety bond shall be issued by an institution or surety qualified to do business in Florida and with rating for financial condition and financial performance in Best's Key Rating Guide, Property/Casualty Edition satisfactory to the county's risk manager; shall be in a form approved by the county; and shall contain the an endorsement in substantially the following form, approved by the county attorney:

(b)

Forms of security.

(1)

Performance bond. If a performance bond can be obtained that can respond to the requirements of section 30-43 and the applicant is not otherwise disqualified under section 30-43, the security fund may be established in the form of a performance bond.

a.

Disqualifying criteria. Unless the board makes a finding that an applicant for a new or renewal franchise has an established record of failure to comply with notices of noncompliance with other franchise agreements or unless there are outstanding noticed noncompliance issues, an applicant may provide a security fund in the form of a performance bond in an amount and form and under circumstances established in this chapter and the franchise agreement.

b.

Minimal requirements for performance bond. The performance bond must be drafted in such a way and in a form approved by the county attorney, approval of which will not be unreasonably denied, that substantially complies with the following minimal requirements:

The performance bond must be capable of responding with a cash payment in response to claims for any or all issues outlined in section 30-43; and 2.

Meet the criteria of this section.

c.

Revocation of performance bond as a form of security. Upon a finding by the board, in its judgment, reasonably exercised, that any one of the following contingencies exist, the county may reconsider the right to secure by performance bond in favor of an escrow account, an irrevocable letter of credit or the surety bond requirements in this section.

1.

The franchise is transferred or there is otherwise a change in control to a new grantee the history of which does not qualify for a performance bond under this section; or 2.

The county documents repetitive violations of provisions of this chapter or the franchise agreement or the enabling ordinance with failure on the part of the grantee to cure after notice; or 3.

The county deems it necessary to litigate in order to collect on the security fund and the county is successful in requiring payment, in whole or in substantial part, by the grantee or surety.

d.

Reinstatement of the right to secure by performance bond. No sooner than two years after a revocation of the right to secure by performance bond or two years of operation under an alternate security fund instrument, whichever is later, a grantee may petition the board for reinstatement of the right to secure by performance bond. If the county is not conducting an audit, or negotiating the results of an audit, and there are not outstanding issues to which the security fund would be responsive, reinstatement shall be granted if no incident as outlined in this section have occurred during the preceding two years.

(2)

Alternate security fund instruments. A grantee may provide an alternate security fund, in the form of a surety bond, escrow account, or letter of credit which shall at a minimum, contain, in language approved by the county attorney, the following concepts:

a.

Draws. In the event of a failure of the grantee/principal, or its successors or assigns, to pay the county/obligee upon being billed pursuant to the franchise agreement and the cable system regulatory ordinance, or to maintain this or replacement security acceptable to the county as required by the franchise agreement and the cable TV enabling ordinance, county/obligee shall give the surety/escrow agent/financial institution under the surety bond/escrow account/letter of credit a written statement of such failure by certified or registered mail to surety/escrow agent/financial institution at (mailing address) ("notice"). The mailing of such notice by the county/obligee shall be deemed to be conclusive evidence of such failure by the grantee/principal under this chapter or the franchise agreement for purposes of this bond/escrow account/letter of credit. Within 30 days of receipt of the county/obligee's notice, surety/escrow agent/financial institution shall pay the amount set forth in the county/obligee's notice, without condition or qualification, subject to the penal sum of this surety bond/escrow account/letter of credit.

Failure to pay. Failure to reimburse or pay the county/obligee as herein provided shall cause the surety/escrow agent/financial institution to be additionally liable for any and all reasonable costs and expenses, including attorney's fees and interest at the legal rate, incurred by the county/obligee in enforcing this bond. Such liability shall be in addition to the penal sum of this surety bond/escrow account/letter of credit, but shall not, in any event, be greater than ten percent of the penal sum of the bond.

c.

Nonenforcement by county. Forbearance by the county/obligee in enforcing any conditions of this chapter or the franchise agreement or the cable system regulatory ordinance or this surety bond/escrow account/letter of credit shall not waive or abridge any right of the county/obligee hereunder. Extensions of time granted the grantee/principal, or other changes or modification to the franchise agreement or the cable system regulatory ordinance, shall not change or diminish the obligation of this surety bond/escrow account/letter of credit.

Multiple claims. Multiple claims are permitted on this surety bond/escrow account/letter of credit up to the total penal sum of this surety bond/escrow account/letter of credit in the aggregate over a period of one year, after which a new or renewed surety bond/escrow account/letter of credit shall be established in the full face amount required in the franchise agreement.

e.

Waiver of defenses. Recognizing that this surety bond/escrow account/letter of credit guarantees payment by the grantee/principal to the county/obligee upon billing pursuant to the franchise agreement or the cable system regulatory ordinance, surety/escrow agent/financial institution hereby explicitly waives any defenses that the grantee/principal might assert or raise relating to the franchise agreement or the cable system regulatory ordinance or arising out of the performance or nonperformance of the franchise agreement or cable system regulatory ordinance by either a grantee/principal or county/obligee. Surety/escrow agent/financial institution also covenants that it will not assert or raise any such defenses.

In the event of a judicial challenge to the denial of renewal or revocation of the franchise, this right in the county and obligation of the grantee shall not ripen until final disposition of the challenge.

To the extent possible, if the county requests copies that contain bona fide trade secrets, a grantee will provide the county with summaries of any required documents or copies thereof with trade secrets deleted therefrom. The burden of proof shall be on a grantee to establish the nature of any information requested to be submitted as a bona fide trade secret, to the reasonable satisfaction of the county. The county shall be held harmless by the grantee with respect to the release of any information released pursuant to a public records request. The county shall not object to the grantee's intervention in any proceeding involving a request for public records related to the grantee that the grantee reasonably believes are either not public records or excepted under F.S., ch. 119.

Payment for records. All reports and records related to compliance issues that are required under this chapter shall be furnished at the sole expense of the grantee, except as otherwise provided in this chapter or the franchise agreement.

(6)

Noncompliance. The willful refusal, failure, or neglect of a grantee to file any of the reports required as and when due under this chapter, may be deemed a material breach of the franchise if such reports are not provided to the county within 30 days after written request therefor, and may subject the grantee to all remedies, legal or equitable, which are available to the county under this chapter or the franchise agreement.

b.

Misrepresentation. Any materially false or misleading statement or representation made knowingly and willfully by the grantee in any report required under this chapter or under the franchise agreement may be deemed a material breach of the franchise and may subject the grantee to all remedies, legal or equitable, which are available to the county.

(c)

Opinion survey. Not more than once annually, the county may prepare a subscriber satisfaction survey pertaining to quality of cable service, which shall be transmitted to subscribers in a grantee's invoice for cable services. The results of such survey shall be provided to the county on a timely basis. The additional cost of such survey shall be borne by the county.

(Ord. No. 99-46, § 2, 5-11-99)

Sec. 30-48. - Review of system performance.

(a)

Triennial review.

(1)

Review. Notwithstanding FCC Emergency Alert System Certification, at a frequency established in the franchise agreement, but no more frequently than every three years throughout the term of the franchise, if effective competition is not present and if requested by the county, the county and a grantee shall meet to review cable system performance and quality of cable service. The various reports required pursuant to this chapter, results of technical performance tests, the record of subscriber complaints and a grantee's response to complaints, and the information acquired in any subscriber surveys, shall be utilized as the basis for review. In addition, any subscriber may submit comments or complaints during the review meetings, either orally or in writing, and these shall be considered. Within 30 days after the conclusion of a cable system performance review meeting, the county may issue findings with respect to the cable system's franchise compliance and quality of service. Notice of the reviews shall be published and, in the discretion of the board, may be the subject of a public hearing and the county administrator may determine the issues that the grantee must address in the hearings.

Noncompliance. If the county determines that a grantee is not in compliance with the material requirements of this chapter or the grantee's franchise agreement, the county may direct the grantee's to correct the areas of noncompliance within 30 days. Failure of a grantee, after due notice, to correct the areas of noncompliance within the period specified therefor or to commence compliance within such period and diligently achieve compliance thereafter, shall be considered a material breach of the franchise, and the county may exercise any remedy within the scope of this chapter and the franchise agreement.

(b)

Special review. When there have been complaints made or where there exists other evidence which, in the reasonable judgment of the county, casts reasonable doubt on the reliability or quality of cable service to the effect that the grantee is not in substantial compliance with the requirements of this chapter or its franchise, the county shall have the right to compel the grantee to test, analyze and report on the performance of the cable system in order to protect the public against substandard cable service. The county may not compel a grantee to provide such tests or reports unless and until the county has provided a grantee with at least 30 days' notice of its intention to exercise its rights under this section and has provided the grantee with an opportunity to be heard prior to its exercise of such rights. Such test or tests shall be made and the report shall be delivered to the county no later than 30 days after the county notifies the grantee that it is exercising such right. Such tests shall be made at the grantee's sole cost. Such report shall include the following information: The nature of the complaints which precipitated the special tests, what cable system component was tested, the equipment used and procedures employed in said testing, the results of such tests, and the method by which such complaints were resolved. Any other information pertinent to the special test shall be recorded.

(Ord. No. 99-46, § 2, 5-11-99)

Sec. 30-49. - Franchise violations.

(a)

Remedies for violations. If a grantee fails to perform in a timely manner any material obligation required by this chapter or a franchise agreement granted hereunder, following notice from the county and an opportunity to cure such nonperformance in accordance with the provisions of this section of this chapter, the county may at its option and in its sole discretion:

(1)

Cure. Cure the violation and recover the actual cost thereof from the security fund or performance or construction bond established herein if such violation is not cured within 30 days after written notice to the grantee of the county's intention to cure and draw upon the security fund; and/or

(2)

Liquidated damages.

Procedures. Subject to the procedures set forth in this section, the county may assess against a grantee liquidated damages in an amount set forth below for any such violations(s) if such violation is not cured, or if a grantee has not commenced a cure, on a schedule acceptable to the county, within 30 days after written notice to the grantee of the county's intention to assess liquidated damages. Such damages may be withdrawn from the security fund, and shall not constitute a waiver by the county of any right or remedy it may have under this chapter or the franchise agreement or applicable law.

Categories of liquidated damages. For the violation of any of the following provisions of this chapter or any franchise granted hereunder, liquidated damages shall be recoverable from the security fund as follows:

1.

Construction. For failure to complete cable system construction in accordance with a cable system construction schedule established in the franchise agreement unless the board specifically approves the delay by motion or resolution, due to the occurrence of conditions beyond a grantee's control, the grantee shall pay to the county or the county may draw from the security fund, up to $1,500.00 per day for each day, or part thereof, the deficiency continues.

2.

All other violations. For any other violation of the requirements and obligations under this chapter or the franchise agreement granted hereunder, a grantee shall pay to the county or the county may draw from the security fund up to $75.00 per day for each day that each violation occurs or continues.

3.

Collection contingent upon county compliance. The liquidated damages described in this section shall not be recoverable against a grantee unless the county has furnished the grantee with written notice of the proposed collection of liquidated damages and the grantee has failed to cure the asserted violation of this chapter within 30 days of notice or such time designated in the notice issued pursuant to this section, whichever is longer.

(3)

Local ordinance violation process. In addition to all remedies otherwise provided for in this chapter or in the franchise agreement, violations of this chapter may be pursued as provided for in F.S., ch. 125 and section 1-8 of the Pinellas County Code.

(4)

Other remedies. Pursue its other available remedies at law or in equity.

(b)

Procedure for remedying franchise violations. Supplemental to and running concurrent with any notice requirements otherwise provided for in this chapter, prior to pursuing any remedy or other damages against a grantee specified in this section, the county shall give a grantee notice and opportunity to be heard on the matter, in accordance with the following procedures:

(1)

Notice. The county shall first notice a grantee of a violation and demand correction within a reasonable time, which shall not be less than ten days in the case of the failure of the grantee to pay any sum or other amount due the county under this chapter or the grantee's franchise agreement and 30 days in all other cases.

(2)

Failure to cure. It shall be deemed a failure to cure if:

a.

A grantee fails to correct the violation within the time prescribed, or

b.

A grantee fails to commence correction of the violation within the time prescribed and diligently remedy such violation thereafter, or

c.

A grantee fails to present to the county an acceptable timetable for correction of the violation and adhere to the timetable or any agreed extensions thereof.

(3)

Notice of violation or failure to cure. The county's staff shall give notice of the county's staff's initial determination of a grantee's failure to cure. Said notice shall specify the violations alleged to have occurred and of its initial determination of the chosen remedy. One notice shall suffice for more than one day of the violation and for subsequent days of a violation that continues beyond the notice but prior to the hearing.

(4)

Hearing. A grantee may, within ten days of said notice, exercise its right to a hearing. Upon receipt of a request for a hearing the board or its designee shall set a hearing date which shall not be held any sooner than 25 days after notice.

(5)

Board determination. The board or its designee shall hear and consider the issue(s) and shall hear any person interested therein, and shall determine in its discretion, and based on competent substantial evidence presented at the hearing, whether or not any material violation by the grantee has occurred and if so, if the proposed remedy is appropriate under the circumstances of the case.

(6)

Decision. Subsequent to the hearing, the board or its designee shall consider all relevant evidence, and thereafter render its decision.

(7)

No violation found. In the event the board or its designee finds that the grantee has corrected the violation or has diligently commenced correction of such violation after notice thereof from the county and is diligently proceeding to fully remedy such violation, or that no material violation has occurred, the proceedings shall terminate and no liquidated damages shall be recovered under subsection (a) of this section.

(8)

Violation found. In the event the board or its designee finds that material violations exist, or that grantee has not corrected the same in a satisfactory manner or has not diligently commenced correction of such violation after notice thereof from the county and is not diligently proceeding to fully remedy such violation, the board or its designee may pursue one or more of the remedies provided in this chapter as it, in its discretion, deems appropriate under the circumstances. Nothing herein prevents the board's or its designee's conditioning any remedies in order to satisfy itself that the remedy is appropriate under the circumstances.

(9)

Noncurable violations. Violations that are not considered curable by the board or its designee, in their reasonable judgment, need not require any cure period or evidence of cure.

(10)

Review of decisions. Challenges to decisions made by the county under this section shall be brought in the Pinellas County Circuit Court or if in federal court, the United States District Court for the Middle District of Florida, Tampa Division.

(11)

Liquidated damages. In the event that staff or the board or its designee elects to require the payment of liquidated damages, the grantee shall be noticed with a bill for the liquidated damages. After a grantee's failure to pay within ten days of the noticed bill, absent an appeal which stays the decision, the county may assess the security fund.

(Ord. No. 99-46, § 2, 5-11-99; Ord. No. 00-65, § 6, 8-15-00)

Sec. 30-50. - Force majeure; grantee's inability to perform.

In the event a grantee's performance of any of the terms, conditions or obligations required by this chapter or any franchise agreement granted hereunder is prevented by a cause or event not within a grantee's control, such inability to perform shall be deemed excused and no penalties or sanctions shall be imposed as a result thereof; provided, however, that such inability to perform shall not relieve a grantee from any obligations pertaining to refunds and credits for interruptions in service. For the purpose of this section, causes or events not within the control of a grantee shall include without limitation acts of God, strikes, sabotage, riots or civil disturbances, restraints imposed by order of a governmental agency or court, explosions, acts of public enemies, and natural disasters such as floods, earthquakes, landslides, and fires, but shall not include financial inability of the grantee to perform or failure of the grantee to obtain any necessary permits or licenses from other governmental agencies or the right to use the facilities of any public utility where such failure is due solely to the acts or omissions of a grantee, or the failure of the grantee to secure supplies, services or equipment necessary for the installation, operation, maintenance or repair of the cable system where the grantee has failed to exercise reasonable diligence to secure such supplies, services or equipment.

(Ord. No. 99-46, § 2, 5-11-99)

Sec. 30-51. - Termination of franchise by grantor.

Right to terminate reserved. In addition to all other rights and powers pertaining to the grantor by virtue of granting a franchise under this chapter or otherwise, the grantor reserves the right, as defined in federal or state legislation and this chapter, to terminate and cancel any franchise and all rights and privileges of a grantee under this chapter or the franchise agreement in the event that a grantee:

Violation of grant. Violates any material provision of this chapter or its franchise agreement or any rule, order, or determination of the grantor made pursuant to this chapter or its franchise agreement, except where such violation, other than of subsection (a)(2) below, is without fault or through excusable neglect.

(2)

Performance of material obligations. If a grantee shall default in the performance of its material obligations under this chapter or the franchise agreement and shall continue such default after receipt of due notice and reasonable opportunity to cure the default;

(3)

Insurance; security. If a grantee shall fail to provide or maintain in full force and effect the insurance coverage, performance bond, or security fund as required in this chapter or the franchise agreement;

(4)

Concurrent jurisdictional agencies. If a grantee shall violate any material order or ruling of any regulatory body having jurisdiction over the grantee relative to the grantee's franchise, unless such order or ruling is being contested by a grantee by appropriate proceedings conducted in good faith;

(5)

Financial security. If a grantee becomes insolvent, unable or unwilling to pay its debts, or is adjudged a bankrupt.

(6)

Interruption of service. Failure to restore service after 96 consecutive hours of interrupted service; except when approval of such interruption is obtained from the county.

(7)

Unauthorized disposition. Attempts to dispose of its cable system in all or a part of the franchise area as defined in the franchise agreement in a manner other than as provided in this chapter or the franchise agreement to prevent the grantor from purchasing same.

(8)

Evasion, fraud or deceit. Evades any of the provisions of this chapter or its franchise agreement or practices any fraud or deceit upon the grantor.

(9)

Other material breaches. For all purposes under this chapter or any franchise agreement adopted hereunder, enumeration of what constitutes a material breach does not limit the board's discretion in deciding if an alleged breach is material.

(10)

Excuses. The foregoing shall not constitute a major breach if the violation occurs but it is without fault of the grantee or occurs as a result of circumstances beyond its control. A grantee shall not be excused by mere economic hardship nor by misfeasance or malfeasance of its directors, officers or employees.

(b)

Other remedies available. The termination and forfeiture of the grantee's franchise shall in no way affect any right of grantor to pursue any remedy under this chapter or the franchise agreement or any provision of law.

(1)

Unauthorized transfer ineffective. In addition to the provisions for termination provided for in subsection (a) upon 60 days' notice to the grantee, grantor shall have the right to declare ineffective, null and void, any actual change in, transfer of, or acquisition by any other party of, control of a grantee or a grantee's franchise, unauthorized by the grantor, for which notice to the grantor would be required under the grantee's franchise agreement or this chapter. Any declaration by the board under this section means that the grantee remains liable for all obligations under the franchise until the transfer is approved by the grantor.

(2)

Objection to unauthorized transfer. In the event a grantee provides a notice of an unauthorized transfer, grantor shall have 60 days from receipt of a grantee's notice of transfer to provide its notice of intent to terminate pursuant to this section. If grantor does not provide such notice of intent within 60 days of receipt of a grantee's notice of transfer, grantor shall have been deemed to have waived its right under this section and grantor will not exercise its right to declare ineffective, null and void under this section without a finding by the board that the change in control would result in a substantive detrimental change in a grantee's legal, technical, or financial ability to honor its obligations under this chapter or the franchise agreement. Nothing in this section prohibits or waives the right of the board to review, consent or deny proposed transfers under subsection 30-26(g).

(c)

Termination procedure. Any termination and cancellation shall be by ordinance duly adopted after 60 days' notice to a grantee, and shall in no way affect any of the grantor's rights under this chapter or the franchise agreement or any provision of law. Before a franchise agreement granted pursuant to this chapter may be terminated and canceled under this section, a grantee shall be provided with an opportunity to be heard before the board.

(Ord. No. 99-46, § 2, 5-11-99)

Sec. 30-52. - Termination of franchise by grantee.

(a)

Grantee termination allowed. A grantee may terminate a franchise agreement adopted pursuant to this chapter and all of its obligations under this chapter and the franchise agreement under the following circumstances:

(1)

FCC/court order. At any time following 60 days' prior written notice to the grantor (or such shorter prior written notice as may be required under an applicable final order by the FCC or a federal court order) if, pursuant to an applicable final order by the FCC or a federal court.

(2)

Open video option. At any time, if a grantee determines in the good faith exercise of its business judgment that developments in applicable law or technology indicate that video consumers in the county can be better served by a grantee and/or its affiliate, through a mode of operation other than a cable system, and submits to the grantor:

a.

Certification, approved by the Federal Communications Commission (FCC) pursuant to the authority granted by Section 653 of the Telecommunications Act of 1996, of the operation of this cable system as an open video system; and

b.

An agreement with the grantor containing provisions substantially similar to the provisions contained in this chapter or its franchise agreement, to the extent that such provisions are applicable to a grantee as a video program provider utilizing an open video system and/or are required under Section 653 of the Telecommunications Act of 1996; and

c.

Its affiliate's adoption of provisions substantially similar to the provisions contained in this chapter or its franchise agreement, to the extent that any such provision is applicable to such affiliate, is in compliance with any applicable common carrier requirements, and also remains applicable to operation of an open video system under Section 653 of the Telecommunications Act of 1996. Submissions pursuant to this section shall be reviewed and approved or denied by the board within 90 days of their delivery by a grantee.

(b)

Other authorized uses of the cable system. Nothing in this section or any other section of this chapter or a franchise agreement adopted pursuant to this chapter shall be construed to preclude an affiliated entity from being entitled to acquire or use this cable system for all lawful purposes related to that affiliates telecommunications business in accordance with that entity's then existing authority or any subsequent authority granted from grantor, as it may be created in the future or amended or renewed from time to time.

(Ord. No. 99-46, § 2, 5-11-99)

Sec. 30-53. - Termination of subscriber service; abandonment.

(a)

Removal of facilities upon request by subscriber. Upon termination of service to any subscriber, a grantee shall promptly, and without charge, remove its facilities and equipment, not including inside wiring, from the premises of such subscriber upon and to the extent of his/her written request.

(b)

Receivership and foreclosure.

(1)

Termination. A franchise granted hereunder shall, at the option of grantor, cease and terminate 120 days after appointment of a receiver or receivers, or trustee or trustees, to take over and conduct the business of a grantee, whether in a receivership, reorganization, bankruptcy or other action or proceeding, unless such receivership or trusteeship shall have been vacated prior to the expiration of said 120 days, or unless: (1) such receivers or trustees shall have, within 120 days after their election or appointment, fully complied with all the terms and provisions of this chapter and the franchise granted pursuant hereto, and the receivership or trustees within said 120 days shall have remedied all the faults under the franchise or provided a plan for the remedy of such faults which is satisfactory to the grantor; and (2) such receivers or trustees shall, within said 120 days, execute an agreement duly approved by the court having jurisdiction in the premises whereby such receivers or trustees assume and agree to be bound by each and every term, provision and limitation of the franchise granted.

(2)

Notice required. In the case of a foreclosure or other judicial sale of the franchise property, or any material part thereof, grantor may serve notice of termination upon a grantee and the successful bidder at such sale, in which event the franchise granted and all rights and privileges of the grantee hereunder shall cease and terminate 30 days after service of such notice, unless: (1) grantor shall have approved the transfer of the franchise, as and in the manner that this chapter provides; and (2) such successful bidder shall have covenanted and agreed with grantor to assume and be bound by all terms and conditions of the franchise.

(Ord. No. 99-46, § 2, 5-11-99)

Secs. 30-54—30-65. - Reserved.

ARTICLE IV. - PROTECTION OF RIGHTS

Sec. 30-66. - County rights.

(a)

Reservation of county rights. In addition to any rights specifically reserved to the county by this chapter, the county reserves to itself every right and power which is required to be reserved by a provision of any statute, ordinance, case law or under the franchise. In addition to any rights generally reserved in the foregoing general reservation:

(1)

Franchise agreement subject to other laws. This chapter and any franchise agreement adopted hereunder is subject to and shall be governed by all applicable provisions of federal, state, county and local law.

(2)

Franchise agreement subject to exercise of police powers. All rights and privileges granted in any franchise agreement granted hereunder are subject to the police powers of the county and its rights under applicable laws and regulations to exercise its governmental powers to their full extent.

(3)

Amendment of this chapter. The county reserves the right to amend this chapter provided such amendment does not materially or adversely affect the rights of the grantee under this chapter or its franchise agreement.

(4)

Right to renegotiate.

a.

Loss of effective competition.

Upon a finding by the board that there has been a loss of effective competition for any franchise negotiated under competitive conditions, and to the extent that the board reasonably determines that the existing grantee has failed to voluntarily make the county whole, or a loss or substantial diminution of franchise fees pursuant to subsection 30-42(b), PEG access support or security [as hereinafter described], the county reserves the right to require good faith negotiation of new franchise terms. For purposes of these negotiations:

2.

In the event of a loss of effective competition, if grantee fails to negotiate in good faith or if the negotiations fail, in the judgment of the grantor, reasonably exercised, the grantor may reduce the term to the remaining term or three years, whichever is shorter and require negotiations for a new franchise agreement. Also in the event of a loss of effective competition, all terms of the franchise agreement shall remain unchanged except for the ability of the grantor to negotiate issues that the board determines were both actively influenced by the competitive environment at the time of the negotiations and that were inadequate under the franchise agreement to meet the needs of the grantor.

Loss of PEG access support or security. In the event of a loss, other than by operation of general law, of PEG access support or security from a particular grantee, all terms of the franchise agreement for such particular grantee shall remain unchanged except for the ability to negotiate the issue that was lost or substantially diminished. Loss of security refers to the loss of the right of the grantor to require security, pursuant to section 30-43, for the performance by the grantee of its obligations.

(b)

Waiver. Any grantee may petition and the county shall have the right to waive any provision of this chapter or the franchise agreement granted hereunder, except those required by federal or state regulation, if the county, in its judgment reasonably exercised, determines:

(1)

Public interest. That the waiver is in the public interest; and

(2)

Undue hardship. That the enforcement of such provision will impose an undue hardship on the grantee or the subscribers.

(3)

No special privilege. That granting the waiver does not confer on the grantee any special privilege that is denied by this chapter or other franchise agreement to other similar grantees.

(4)

Material alterations. That the enforcement of such provision will materially alter the rights and obligations of the grantee under this chapter or its franchise agreement.

(5)

Effective competition. Special consideration may be made where the provisions that are the subject of a waiver request are, in the judgment of the board, being accommodated through competition.

(c)

Conditions of waiver. Any waiver may be conditioned as deemed appropriate by the county. To be effective, such waiver shall be evidenced by a statement in writing signed by a duly authorized representative of the county. Waiver of any provision in one instance shall not be deemed a waiver of such provision subsequent to such instance nor be deemed a waiver of any other provision of the franchise unless the statement so recites.

(Ord. No. 99-46, § 2, 5-11-99; Ord. No. 00-65, §§ 7, 8, 8-15-00)

Sec. 30-67. - Rights of grantee.

In addition to any rights specifically reserved to the grantee by this chapter, and by the foregoing general reservation, the county specifically recognizes:

(1)

Protection of vested rights. Nothing in this chapter is intended to preclude any grantee's or the county's claim and protection of any rights vested pursuant to Florida law.

(2)

Unauthorized reception. It is a violation of this chapter for a person to intercept or use any video, voice, or data signal transmissions over a cable system, unless the interception or use is authorized by the grantee or other person having the lawful right to authorize the reception or use.

(Ord. No. 99-46, § 2, 5-11-99)

Sec. 30-68. - Rights of individuals.

(a)

Denial of access. A grantee shall not deny service, deny access, or otherwise discriminate against subscribers or cable channel users to any group of potential residential cable subscribers or cable channel users because of the income of the residents of the local area in which such group resides.

(b)

Equal employment opportunities. A grantee shall adhere to the applicable equal employment opportunity requirements of federal, state and local regulations, as now written or as amended from time to time.

(c)

Cable tapping. Neither a grantee, nor any person, agency, or entity shall, without the subscriber's consent, tap, or arrange for the tapping, of any cable, line, signal input device, or subscriber outlet or receiver for any purpose except routine maintenance of the cable system, detection of unauthorized service, polling with audience participation, or audience viewing surveys to support advertising research regarding viewers where individual viewing behavior cannot be identified.

(d)

Right of privacy. In the conduct of providing its services or in pursuit of any collateral commercial enterprise resulting therefrom, a grantee shall take reasonable steps to prevent the invasion of a subscriber's right of privacy or other personal rights through the use of the cable system as such rights are delineated or defined by applicable law. A grantee shall not without lawful court order or other applicable valid legal authority utilize the cable system's interactive two-way equipment or capability for unauthorized personal surveillance of any subscriber.

(e)

Use of and respect for easements. If a subscriber requests service, permission to install upon subscriber's property shall be presumed. No cable line, wire amplifier, converter, or other piece of equipment owned by a grantee shall be installed by a grantee in the subscriber's premises or the premises of others, other than in appropriate easements, without first securing any required consent. In the use of easements which have been dedicated for compatible uses the cable operator shall ensure:

(1)

That the safety, functioning, and appearance of the property and the convenience and safety of other persons not be adversely affected by the installation or construction of facilities necessary for a cable system; and

(2)

(3)

That the owner of the property be justly compensated by the cable operator for any damages caused by the installation, construction, operation, or removal of such facilities by the cable operator.

(f)

Subscriber lists. The grantee, or any of its agents or employees, shall not sell, or otherwise make available to any party without consent of the subscriber pursuant to state and federal privacy laws, any list which identifies the viewing habits of individual subscribers, without the prior written consent of such subscribers. This does not prohibit the grantee from providing composite ratings of subscriber viewing to any party.

(g)

Continuity of service. It shall be the right of all subscribers to continue receiving service insofar as their financial and other obligations to the grantee are honored. In the event that the grantee elects to rebuild, modify, or sell the cable system, or the county gives notice of intent to terminate or not to renew the franchise, the grantee shall act so as to ensure that all subscribers receive service so long as the franchise remains in force.

(a)

A state of emergency shall be declared by proclamation of an official authority. Upon finding that the threat no longer exists, the board, or, if a quorum of the board is unable to meet, an official authority, may, by proclamation, terminate the state of emergency.

Nothing in this section shall be construed to limit the authority of the board to declare or terminate a state of emergency and take any action authorized by law when sitting in regular or special session.

(b)

A proclamation declaring a state of emergency shall activate the disaster emergency plans applicable to the county and shall be the authority for use or distribution of any supplies, equipment, materials, facilities assembled or arranged to be made available pursuant to such plans.

(c)

Upon the declaration of a state of emergency pursuant to this section, an official authority may impose by executive order any or all of the following restrictions:

(1)

Prohibit or regulate the purchase, sale, transfer, or possession of explosives, combustibles, firearms, dangerous weapons of any kind, or alcoholic beverages;

DIVISION 2. - EMERGENCY HOUSING

Sec. 34-36. - Housing emergency declaration.

(a)

Purpose. The purpose of this division is to provide reasonable flexibility in land development regulations to afford temporary housing options to otherwise displaced residents during the aftermath of a disaster that rendered existing housing stock uninhabitable.

(b)

Activation. Upon declaration of a state of emergency pursuant to division 1 of this article, and during the pendency thereof, the board of county commissioners, as a part of the original declaration or at any time during the duration of a declared state of emergency, may declare a state of housing emergency for all or any part of the incorporated and/or unincorporated areas of Pinellas County.

(c)

Areas embraced.

(1)

A housing emergency declaration must define the boundaries of all areas subject to the provisions of this section 34-36 and section 34-37. The areas embraced may include the entire unincorporated and incorporated areas of Pinellas County or any part thereof.

(2)

On its own initiative or upon petition by the governing body of a municipality, and based on findings regarding the status of housing stock in the areas being considered, the board of county commissioners or an official authority may amend the housing emergency declaration resolution to expand or contract the areas embraced.

(d)

Termination.

(1)

A housing emergency declaration survives the termination of the article ii, division 1 emergency declaration and may only terminate, in whole or in part, by formal action of the board of county commissioners or an official authority to amend or terminate the areas embraced by the housing emergency declaration.

(2)

The status of the housing emergency declaration shall be evaluated 90 days after its declaration and every 90 days thereafter as long as the housing emergency declaration is in effect to determine if formal action by the board of county commissioners or an official authority is warranted to amend or terminate the declaration.

Effect of a housing emergency declaration. Upon the activation of a housing emergency declaration, the provisions of section 34-37, below, become applicable in all the areas embraced by the housing emergency declaration. If there is a disaster housing plan adopted as a part of the county's comprehensive emergency management plan, the disaster housing plan shall be compatible with section 34-37, below.

Community sites means sites where three or more temporary housing units are provided. These sites can include, but are not limited to, existing mobile home parks and mobile home subdivisions, and areas where extensive construction and building of an entire community is involved, which may include such things as building roads; laying water, sewer, electrical, and telecommunications lines; and arranging for public transportation, police, fire, and emergency medical services.

Manufactured home means a structure, transportable in one or more sections, which in the traveling mode is eight body feet or more in width or 40 body feet or more in length, or, when erected on site, is 320 square feet or more, and which is built on a permanent chassis and designed to be used as a dwelling with or without a permanent foundation when connected to the required utilities, and includes plumbing, heating, air conditioning and electrical systems contained therein; except that such term shall include any structure that meets all the requirements of this paragraph except the size requirements and with respect to which the manufacturer voluntarily files a certification required by the secretary (U.S. Department of Housing and Urban Development) and complies with the standards established under this title. For mobile homes built prior to June 15, 1976, a label certifying compliance to the Standards for Mobile Homes, National Fire Protection Association (NFPA) 501, is required. For the purposes of these provisions, a mobile home shall be considered a manufactured home.

Modular dwelling unit means any residential unit, constructed to the standards promulgated by the Florida Building Commission, away from the installation site, and which bears a department of economic opportunity insignia.

Nonresidential means, on applicable future land use maps and zoning maps, future land use designations and zoning categories where residential uses are normally not permitted.

Temporary housing unit means manufactured home, recreational vehicle, or modular dwelling unit.

Wrap-around services means the delivery of infrastructure and additional essential services to address disaster-related needs of affected residents living in community sites. These services go beyond the physical need for housing and typically include basic social services and access to utilities, transportation, grocery stores, medical facilities, and employment opportunities.

(b)

Single-family or two-family residential parcels. Upon the activation of a housing emergency declaration and subject to the conditions contained in this subsection, temporary housing may be provided by placing temporary housing units on parcels of land where the existing primary residence is declared uninhabitable due to damage from a disaster. The damaged primary residence must be located on a parcel designated by the applicable future land use map and/or by the applicable zoning map for use as a detached, single-family residence or a two-family (duplex) residence.

(1)

A permit for a temporary housing unit must be obtained through the Pinellas County Planning and Development Services Department or the applicable municipal department or official.

(2)

The permit for a temporary housing unit shall be issued for no more than 12 months. A temporary housing unit shall be removed no later than 12 months after the date of the issuance of the temporary housing building permit, or the temporary housing unit shall be removed upon the issuance of the certificate of occupancy following the repair or replacement of the damaged on-site residence, whichever occurs first, unless an appropriate extension of the temporary housing permit has been granted by the applicable department or official, provided that repair or replacement of the damaged primary residence has commenced within the validity period of the temporary housing permit and continues in good faith.

(3)

A maximum of one temporary housing unit (or two (2) in the case of a two-family residence) will be allowed on a parcel containing an existing home site provided:

a.

The home located on the parcel has been declared uninhabitable by the Pinellas County Planning and Development Services Department or designee or the applicable municipal department or official.

b.

The water service and wastewater service must be properly connected to a functioning water service and sanitary sewer system or septic system in accordance with codes in effect at the time. However, if connection to a functioning service is not feasible, other temporary water and wastewater services may be utilized subject to Pinellas County Health Department approval.

c.

Setback requirements will be waived during the duration that the temporary housing unit is permitted. However, the temporary housing unit cannot extend into any public right-of-way, conservation/drainage easement, floodway, preservation area, or onto any adjacent property that is not owned by the household who will be residing in the temporary housing unit unless an applicable permit is obtained from the appropriate jurisdiction allowing the temporary housing unit to extend into the public right-of-way or there is written authorization from the adjacent property owner allowing the temporary housing unit to extend into the adjacent property.

d.

An adequate, functional electrical service with proper connection for temporary housing units shall be utilized, if feasible, and approved by the Pinellas County Planning and Development Services Department or applicable municipal department or official.

e.

Only a state or locally licensed contractor or an owner-builder will be allowed to apply for a permit and perform any work related to the connection of plumbing, electrical and mechanical service systems at the site. Contractors must be registered with the Pinellas County Construction Licensing Board.

(4)

In the case where a manufactured housing unit or a modular dwelling unit is permitted by the applicable zoning district or future land use designation as a permanent housing structure, and if said structure is intended to become permanent, all applicable setback and other land development regulations shall be met at the time when the housing unit becomes permanent.

(c)

Multifamily residential parcels and nonresidential parcels. Upon the activation of a housing emergency declaration, up to two temporary housing units may be used as temporary housing on a parcel in any zoning district that permits multifamily residential use or nonresidential use, with the exception of parcels designated as preservation, conservation, or comparable designation for environmentally sensitive lands on the applicable future land use map and parcels covered under subsection (b) of this section, subject to the following conditions:

(1)

Temporary housing units shall not be permitted in the preservation, conservation, preservation-resource management and similar applicable zoning districts that designate environmentally-sensitive land. Temporary housing units shall not be permitted on environmental lands that are owned or managed by Pinellas County, in special flood hazard areas (velocity zone or 100-year floodplain), in the coastal high hazard area as defined in the local government comprehensive plan (or coastal storm area, if adopted by the local government), or in any area in the federal, state, county, or municipal resource-based park or open space system that is determined by that agency to be of critical environmental significance.

(3)

A permit for a temporary housing unit must be obtained through the Pinellas County Planning and Development Services Department or the applicable municipal department or official.

(4)

The permit for a temporary housing unit shall be issued for no more than 12 months. A temporary housing unit shall be removed no later than 12 months after the date of the issuance of the temporary housing building permit, unless an appropriate extension of the temporary housing permit has been granted by the applicable department or official.

(5)

Functioning public water and wastewater services shall be utilized if feasible. However, if connection to functioning public services is not feasible, other water and wastewater services may be utilized subject to Pinellas County Health Department approval.

(6)

An adequate, functional electrical service with proper connection for temporary housing units shall be utilized, if feasible, and approved by the Pinellas County Planning and Development Services Department or applicable municipal department or official.

(7)

Only a state or locally licensed contractor will be allowed to apply for a permit and perform any work related to the connection of plumbing, electrical and mechanical service systems at the site. Contractors must be registered with the Pinellas County Construction Licensing Board.

(8)

Setback requirements will be waived during the duration that the temporary housing unit is permitted. However, the temporary housing unit cannot extend into any public right-of-way, conservation/drainage easement, floodway, preservation area, or onto any adjacent property that is not owned by the household who will be residing in the temporary housing unit unless an applicable permit is obtained from the appropriate jurisdiction allowing the temporary housing unit to extend into the public right-of-way or there is written authorization from the adjacent property owner allowing the temporary housing unit to extend into the adjacent property.

(9)

In the case where a manufactured housing unit or a modular dwelling unit is permitted by the applicable zoning district or future land use designation as a permanent housing structure, and if said structure is intended to become permanent, all applicable setback and other land development regulations shall apply at the time when the housing unit becomes permanent.

(d)

Community sites. Upon the activation of a housing emergency declaration, temporary housing units may be used as temporary housing in a community site regardless of the property's applicable zoning and/or future land use map designation, with the exception of parcels designated as preservation, conservation, or comparable designation for environmentally sensitive lands on the applicable future land use map, subject to the following conditions:

(1)

Any zoning district except preservation, conservation, preservation-resource management and similar applicable zoning districts that designate environmentally-sensitive lands may be considered for a community site. A community site shall not be permitted on environmental lands that are owned or managed by Pinellas County, in special flood hazard areas (velocity zone or 100-year floodplain), in the coastal high hazard area as defined in the local government comprehensive plan (or coastal storm area, if adopted by the local government), or in any area in the federal, state, county, or municipal resource-based park or open space system that is determined by that agency to be of critical environmental significance.

(2)

The suitability of properties for community sites will be prioritized based on criteria to be established by Pinellas County in cooperation with the municipalities.

(3)

(4)

Authorization from the Pinellas County Administrator (for unincorporated areas or county-owned property) or from the respective chief administrative official of a municipality of Pinellas County, or their designee, must be provided before arranging for the establishment of a community site.

(5)

A concept plan for a community site of more than ten temporary housing units shall be approved by the Pinellas County Planning and Development Services Department or the applicable municipal department or official prior to the issuance of permits for locating temporary housing units on the community site.

(6)

Permits must be obtained for the temporary housing units through the Pinellas County Planning and Development Services Department or the applicable municipal department or official.

(7)

The permit for a temporary housing unit shall be issued for no more than 12 months. Permit extensions may be granted by the applicable department or official as appropriate.

(8)

Functioning public water and wastewater services shall be utilized if feasible. If connection to functioning public services is not feasible, other water and wastewater services may be utilized subject to Pinellas County Health Department approval.

(9)

An adequate, functional electrical service with proper connection for temporary housing units shall be utilized, if feasible, and approved by the Pinellas County Planning and Development Services Department or applicable municipal department or official.

(10)

Only a state or locally licensed contractor will be allowed to apply for a permit and perform any work related to the connection of plumbing, electrical and mechanical service systems at the site. Contractors must be registered with the Pinellas County Construction Licensing Board.

(11)

Minimum setbacks shall be in compliance with the host parcel's zoning designation, unless otherwise approved by the respective municipality.

(12)

In the case where a manufactured housing unit or a modular dwelling unit is permitted, by the applicable zoning district or future land use designation as a permanent housing structure, and if said structure is intended to become permanent, all applicable setback and other land development regulations shall apply at the time when the housing unit becomes permanent.

DIVISION 2. - REDEVELOPMENT TRUST FUNDS AND PLANS

Sec. 38-61. - 1982 plan and trust fund for City of St. Petersburg.

(a)

The creation of the redevelopment trust fund by the City of St. Petersburg, Florida, for the intown redevelopment area (the "fund") is hereby approved.

(b)

The county shall annually pay to the City of St. Petersburg for deposit to the fund a sum equal to the increment in the income, proceeds, revenues, and funds of the county derived from or held in connection with the intown redevelopment area, for the use of St. Petersburg's Community Redevelopment Agency in its undertaking and carrying out of the intown redevelopment plan. The increment shall be determined annually and shall be that amount equal to 95 percent of the difference between paragraphs (b)(1) and (b)(2) below:

(1)

The amount of ad valorem taxes levied each year by each taxing authority, exclusive of any amount from any debt service millage on existing or future bonded indebtedness, on taxable real property contained within the geographic boundaries of the intown redevelopment area; and

The amount of ad valorem taxes which would have been produced by the rate upon which the taxes levied each year by or for each such taxing authority, exclusive of any debt service millage on existing or future bonded indebtedness, upon the total of the assessed value of the taxable property in the intown redevelopment area as shown upon the most recent assessment roll used in connection with the taxation of such property by each such taxing authority prior to the effective date of Ordinance 82-24 providing for the appropriation to the trust fund.

(3)

In calculating the increment, the amount of the ad valorem taxes levied based on the county-wide debt service on existing or future county bonds shall be totally excluded from the calculation. All increments in this amount shall continue to be used for its voter-approved purposes and shall not be appropriated in any part of the fund. Any adjustments made in the appropriation will be based upon the final extended tax roll.

(4)

(5)

Beginning January 1, 2016, the increment shall be that amount equal to 85 percent of the difference between the amounts calculated in paragraphs (b)(1) and (b)(2) of above.

(c)

Subject to the limitations provided herein, the county shall annually budget, appropriate and pay to the fund the tax increment due the fund prior to April 1 of each taxable year. The county's obligation to annually budget and appropriate on or before October 1 and pay over to the fund by April 1 of each year shall commence immediately upon the effective date of Ordinance No. 05-25 and continue until all loans, advances and indebtedness incurred as the result of the intown redevelopment plan have been paid. The county's increment contributions are to be accounted for as a separate revenue within the fund but may be combined with other revenues for the purpose of paying debt service. In no year shall the county's obligation to the fund exceed the amount of that year's tax increment as determined in subsection (b). With the exception of the financing reflected in attachment A to Ordinance No. 05-25, no new sale of bonds or indebtedness supported by tax increment revenues may occur nor may existing indebtedness so supported be refunded without approval of the board of county commissioners before 2020, except as otherwise approved as provided in subsection (d)(2)e. Said approval may be granted by resolution or interlocal agreement. Furthermore, there shall be no reimbursement of city payments from any funding source to existing projects made prior to adoption of the ordinance from which this section derives. In no event shall the contribution of tax increment revenues as provided in Table 2 to the intown redevelopment plan supplant funding otherwise provided by city, state, federal or private sources as set out in the "Other Potential Funding Sources" column to the projects in Table 2 to the intown redevelopment plan.

(d)

Duration of the fund.

(1)

The county's obligation to annually appropriate to the fund shall commence immediately upon the effective date of Ordinance No. 05-25 (April 7, 2005) and continue until the earlier of April 7, 2032, or until all loans, advances and indebtedness incurred as the result of the plan, and approved by the board have been paid, subject to subsection (d)(2) below.

(2)

Fifteen-year review. Notwithstanding the duration of the fund established in subsection (d)(1), above, on or before April 7, 2020, the county may review its tax increment contribution to the fund to determine whether given the totality of the circumstances, it continues to be prudent to dedicate the county portion of the tax increment revenues at the existing level, beyond 15 years, provided that there shall be no reduction in the dedication of tax increment revenues for as long as there are unpaid loans, advances or indebtedness approved as provided herein and secured by the county's tax increment revenues. The county may continue the contribution, eliminate it or reduce it, except as otherwise provided in subsection (d)(2)f. Any reduction or elimination may require the city to seek additional funding sources for the redevelopment plans and projects that will be in addition to any tax increment financing.

Redevelopment conditions for 15-year tax increment financing (sometimes hereinafter referred to as "TIF") review. The success of the plan relies on significant private investment in residential, employment and retail uses so that the community redevelopment area is marketable. Absent realizing this investment, the plan is not succeeding. The following are the performance criteria:

1.

Performance of TIF revenues.

i.

During the 15-year review period, do the annual TIF revenues collected compare to the estimated revenues.

ii.

Measures: Collected TIF revenues (per property appraiser and tax collector).

2.

Implementation of intown redevelopment plan.

i.

During the 15-year review period, how has the city performed in implementing the intown redevelopment plan with particular emphasis on use of TIF funds in implementation.

ii.

Measures.

Capital projects built or substantially completed compared to the intown redevelopment projects of the intown redevelopment plan; and CRA programs and programs outlined in the plan implementation chapter the intown redevelopment plan.

b.

Changes in employment opportunities in the intown/CRA comparing year 2005 to the year 2020.

3.

Effectiveness of intown redevelopment plan at mitigating blighting influence.

i.

During the 15-year review period, do the actions implementing the intown redevelopment plan have the desired effect of redeveloping the CRA.

ii.

Measures.

A comparison, from the year 2005 to year 2020, of the changes in the median household income in the intown redevelopment area to the citywide median household income.

b.

A comparison of the land-value to improvement-value in the intown redevelopment area from year 2005 to year 2020.

c.

A comparison of the changes, from year 2005 to year 2020, in the percentage of land in the intown redevelopment area that is devoted to surface parking, or is vacant, or is otherwise underutilized.

d.

A comparison of the percentage of deteriorated or dilapidated structures in the intown redevelopment area from the year 2005 to year 2020.

b.

The city shall submit all data and analysis to the county as well as additional data requested by the county to perform for the 15-year review no later than October 1, 2019.

c.

The board of county commissioners shall complete its review prior to April 7, 2020, and shall notify the city in writing by April 7, 2020, if it intends to eliminate or reduce the amount and/or duration of the county's tax increment contribution as permitted herein. In the absence of such notification, the contribution shall continue as provided herein.

d.

Notwithstanding the review provision set forth above, the city may at any time bring requests for approval of the issuance of bonds or other indebtedness pledging the county's share of tax increment revenue to the board for consideration.

It is the intention of the city and county to complete the projects to the greatest extent possible within the 15-year review period and without incurring avoidable financing costs by utilizing the tax increment revenue stream proceeds. Notwithstanding any provision herein to the contrary, the city may incur additional debt, including any refundings thereof, beyond that reflected in Attachment A and beyond the year 2020, but not beyond 2032, without board approval, providing the following conditions, as may be supplemented by interlocal agreement between the county and city, are met:

1.

The county and city financial advisors agree, by written notice to the county and city that: (i) based on the historical receipt of tax increment revenues, the term of the debt is the shortest reasonable length of time to obtain debt financing to complete the projects and ensure the payment of all indebtedness from tax increment revenues without reliance on other revenues; and (ii) the type of debt instrument proposed to finance the completion of the projects from available tax increment revenues is the most cost effective debt instrument, based upon then current market conditions; and (iii) the transaction has been structured so that the bonds or other indebtedness is callable, as is customary in the market, from tax increment revenues; and (iv) the financing has been structured to satisfy any other requirements as may be agreed to by the county and city by interlocal agreement,

2.

If the county and city financial advisors do not agree on any matter which requires their agreement in this subsection (d)(2)e., then the county and city financial advisors shall jointly choose a third financial advisor who shall determine whether the proposed indebtedness meets the requirements of this subsection (d)(2)e. on which the financial advisors are required to agree. The third financial advisor's opinion shall be binding on the parties. If the county and city financial advisors do not agree on a third financial advisor, then either party may petition the court to determine whether the requirements of this subsection (d)(2)e. on which the financial advisors are required to agree, have been met.

3.

The county's obligation to appropriate tax increment revenues under this section, subject to the foregoing conditions being met, shall terminate the earlier of (i) April 7, 2032, or (ii) at such time as the $117.354 million dollars of funding required for the projects, plus related financing costs, has been repaid, and no refunding thereof shall extend the maturity beyond April 7, 2032, without board approval.

4.

The city shall provide written notification of the terms of any financing authorized herein along with a report of the financial advisors' approvals to the board at least 30 days prior to the adoption of any ordinance or resolution by the city authorizing any such financing.

f.

In the event the city incurs additional financing pursuant to the provisions set forth in subsection (d)(2)e. above, obligating the county's tax increment revenues beyond 2020, the provisions of subsection (d)(2)e. remain in effect and such reports shall be provided by the city; however, the county's ability to adjust the increment shall not occur to the extent that the county's share of tax increment revenues are pledged to any existing indebtedness authorized as provided in subsection (d)(2)e.

g.

Any financing mechanism utilized by the city, and not meeting the conditions set forth in subsection (d)(2)e. above, which would obligate the county to tax increment contributions beyond 2020 must be approved by the board.

(e)

Review and audit.

(1)

Copies of reports of audits required by F.S. § 163.387(8) shall be provided to the board of county commissioners each fiscal year.

(2)

Review and approve annual progress reports to be prepared by the city, with a due date coinciding with the monthly date of this section. The reports shall detail the relationship between accomplishments of the redevelopment program and those projects that are proposed in the redevelopment plan ultimately adopted by the city.

The increment shall be determined and appropriated annually and shall be that amount equal to 95 percent of the difference between:

(1)

The amount of ad valorem taxes levied each year by or for the county, exclusive of any amount from debt service millage, on taxable real property contained within the geographic boundaries of the redevelopment area as defined in the adopted Redevelopment Plan for Downtown Clearwater (Ordinance No. 7153-03, as amended by Ordinance No. 7231-03); and

a.

For the original CRA area: the amount of ad valorem taxes which would have been produced by the rate upon which the tax is levied each year by or for the county, exclusive of any debt service millage, upon the total of the assessed value of the taxable real property in the above-referenced redevelopment area as shown upon the most recent assessment roll used in connection with the taxation of such property by the county prior to the effective date (December 17, 1981) of Ordinance No. 2576-81 of the City of Clearwater; or

(2)

In calculating the increment, the amount of the ad valorem taxes levied based on the countywide debt service on county bonds shall be totally excluded from the calculation. All increments in this amount shall continue to be used for its voter-approved purpose and shall not be appropriated in any part to the fund. Any adjustments made in the appropriation will be based upon the final extended tax roll. In no year shall the county obligation to the fund exceed the amount of that year's tax increment as defined by this section.

(3)

No sale of bonds or indebtedness supported by the county's tax increment may occur nor may existing indebtedness so supported be refunded without approval of the board of county commissioners. Nothing in this section, however, shall require the City of Clearwater or the City of Clearwater's Community Redevelopment Agency to issue bonds or incur loans or other indebtedness as a condition precedent to the county depositing into the fund the amounts set forth in subsection (b) hereof.

(3)

Use of that portion of the tax increment attributable to the county shall be limited to capital improvements, land acquisition and environmental remediation as more specifically provided in Ordinance 7153-03, as amended by Ordinance 7231-03 and as it is amended from time to time.

(d)

Duration of the fund.

(1)

However, the fund shall receive the tax increment only as, if and when such taxes are collected. The county's obligation to annually appropriate to the fund shall commence immediately upon effective date of this section and continue for 30 years from the effective date of the ordinance from which this section derives.

(2)

Fifteen-year review. Notwithstanding the duration established in subsection 4.1, above, in 2019, the county may review its tax increment contribution to determine whether given the totality of the circumstances, it continues to be appropriate to dedicate the county portion of tax increment at the existing level, beyond 15 years. The county may continue the contribution or eliminate it. Nothing herein precludes the county from considering dedication at a reduced commitment provided that option is legally available.

Sec. 38-117. - Pinellas Community Housing Trust Fund Program.

The Pinellas Community Housing Trust Fund Program ("program") is created for the purpose of providing funds to promote homeownership and to expand the production and preservation of rental and owner housing affordable to very low-income, low-income, and moderate-income households. The board authorizes and directs the HFA to establish a special revenue fund for housing trust fund proceeds designated as the housing trust fund, for the purpose of implementing the program. There shall be deposited into the fund a portion of the general revenue tax and other revenue sources as determined by the board. Housing trust fund proceeds that are not currently needed for the purposes of the program administered shall be deposited to the credit of the fund and may be invested as provided by law. The interest received on any such investment shall be credited to the fund. The funds deposited to the local housing assistance fund must be encumbered within 24 months and expended within 60 months from the end of the county fiscal year in which the funds are distributed. Exceptions to this time frame may be approved by a super majority vote of the HFA on a case-by-case basis. Exceptions will only be granted for good cause. Examples of good cause are natural disasters, requirements of other federal, state and local agencies, adverse market conditions, and others. Full documentation must be submitted to the HFA before an extension will be considered (e.g., project status, work plan and completion schedule and commitment of funds).

(3)

To receive funds under the program, an eligible sponsor must submit a complete application to the HFA demonstrating compliance and eligibility with the program requirements herein and rules established by the HFA.

(4)

(Ord. No. 09-44, § 1, 7-21-09)

Sec. 38-118. - Housing assistance strategies; partnerships.

(a)

Housing assistance strategies shall be developed and implemented to make affordable residential units available to persons of very low-income, low-income, or moderate-income, and to persons with special needs. Housing assistance strategies are intended to increase the availability of affordable residential units by combining local resources and leveraging private and public funds to reduce the cost of housing.

(1)

Eligible housing assistance strategies may allocate housing trust fund proceeds to:

a.

Produce new rental and owner housing. Eligible costs include, but are not limited to, land acquisition, predevelopment costs, site development, and construction activities.

b.

Preserve existing rental and owner housing. Eligible costs include, but are not limited to, the purchase and renovation of existing units and preserving expiring use properties.

c.

Promote housing opportunities. Eligible costs include, but are not limited to, down payment and closing cost assistance, interest-rate buy-downs, matched savings programs, tenant-based rental assistance, and employer-assisted housing programs.

d.

Provide housing services. Eligible activities include, but are not limited to, homebuyer counseling, budgeting and financial literacy, landlord-tenant counseling, and self-sufficiency counseling.

(2)

HFA shall have a policy assuring that housing trust fund proceeds are not used in conjunction with, or subordinated to, sub-prime loans or with loans to which fees are added in excess of two percent of the purchase price or rehabilitation amount.

(3)

HFA shall have a policy prohibiting subordination of housing trust fund proceeds in any instance where the borrower withdraws cash, including debt consolidation, as a result of the subordination, unless such cash proceeds are used to improve the real property and the proceeds of such improvement are distributed by the entitlement community to a licensed contractor.

(b)

HFA shall assure the involvement of appropriate public sector and private sector entities as partners in order to combine resources to reduce housing costs for the targeted population. This partnership process may involve, but not be limited to:

(1)

Lending institutions.

(2)

Housing builders and developers.

(3)

Nonprofit and other community-based housing and service organizations.

(4)

Providers of professional services relating to affordable housing.

(5)

Advocates for low-income persons.

(6)

Real estate professionals.

(7)

Other persons or entities who can assist in providing housing or related support services.

(c)

Each housing assistance strategy shall be governed by the criteria and administrative procedure established by the HFA, and approved by the board.

(d)

The HFA shall apply the following minimum criteria to awards made to eligible sponsors or eligible persons for the purpose of providing eligible housing through an approved local housing assistance plan:

(1)

Housing trust fund proceeds must be leveraged at a minimum ratio of 2:1.

(2)

A minimum of 80 percent of housing trust fund proceeds must be utilized as either non-forgiven loans that generate program income or for the direct acquisition of land. Land acquired must be used to ensure that adequate sites for affordable community housing exist and remain available and shall be restricted by perpetual affordability requirements. Any housing trust fund proceeds used for land acquisition shall be recaptured upon the sale, transfer, or other disposition of the property unless otherwise approved by the board.

(3)

A minimum of 15 percent of housing trust fund proceeds must benefit persons with special needs or persons earning 30 percent or less of the area median income.

(4)

The sales price, value, or affordable rents, as applicable, of new or existing eligible housing may not exceed the maximum sales prices, values, and affordable rents established annually by the HFA.

(5)

All units constructed, rehabilitated, or otherwise assisted with housing trust fund proceeds must be occupied by very low-income persons, low-income persons, or moderate-income persons.

(6)

The number of units assisted with housing trust fund proceeds in multi-unit housing projects shall be proportionate to the ratio of housing trust fund proceeds to total project cost.

(7)

Loans or grants for eligible rental housing constructed, rehabilitated, or otherwise assisted from housing trust fund proceeds must include a land use or deed restriction to assure continued use serving the eligible population for a period of not less than 30 years or the term of the loan, whichever is greater. Eligible sponsors that offer rental housing for sale before the affordability term must offer first right of refusal to eligible nonprofit organizations for purchase at the current market value, as determined by independent appraisal, for continued occupancy by eligible persons.

(8)

Loans or grants for minor rehabilitation of eligible housing units assisted with housing trust fund proceeds must include affordability restrictions to assure continued use serving eligible persons for a period of not less than five years.

(9)

Loans or grants for eligible homeowner housing constructed, acquired, rehabilitated, or otherwise assisted with housing trust fund proceeds, with the exception of minor rehabilitation, must include affordability restrictions to assure continued use serving eligible persons for a period of not less than 20 years.

(10)

Housing trust fund proceeds shall be subject to the recapture funds requirements set forth herein if affordability restrictions are not met.

(11)

The maximum sales price or value per unit and the maximum award per unit for eligible housing benefiting from awards made pursuant to this section must be established annually.

(12)

The benefit of assistance provided through the Pinellas Community Housing Trust Fund Program must accrue to eligible persons occupying eligible housing. This provision shall not be construed to prohibit use of housing trust fund proceeds for a mixed-income or mixed-use development to the extent that housing trust fund proceeds are used specifically to fund the eligible housing portion of the development.

(e)

All housing trust fund proceeds, program income, recaptured funds, and other funds received or budgeted to implement the local housing assistance plan shall be deposited into the local housing assistance fund; however, housing trust fund proceeds and program income resulting from housing trust fund proceeds used to match federal HOME program expenditures may be repaid to the HOME program fund if required by federal law or regulations. Expenditures other than for the administration and implementation of the local housing assistance plan may not be made from the fund.

(f)

All housing trust fund proceeds deposited in the local housing assistance fund shall be used to administer and implement the local housing assistance plan. The cost of administering the plan may not exceed ten percent of the housing trust fund proceeds and program income deposited into the local housing assistance fund. Administrative expenses may not be charged against recaptured funds.

(g)

The HFA shall provide an annual report to the board on the activities and accomplishments of the Pinellas Community Housing Trust Fund program by January 15 of each year. The report must include, but is not limited to:

(3)

The average area purchase sales price or value of single-family units and the amount of rent charged for rental units based on unit size.

(4)

The sales price or value of housing produced and an accounting of what percentage was financed by the housing trust fund proceeds, other public monies, and private resources.

ARTICLE V. - COUNTYWIDE HISTORIC PRESERVATION PROGRAM

Sec. 38-141. - Established.

A countywide historic preservation program is established.

(Ord. No. 08-11, § 1, 2-19-08)

Sec. 38-142. - Declaration of historic preservation as public policy.

(a)

The board of county commissioners finds that Pinellas County and its municipalities have played an important part in the history of the State of Florida and the nation and that history is evidenced by the historic resources located throughout Pinellas County. Historic resources are defined to include historic buildings, structures and objects, historic districts and archaeological sites. The board further finds that the preservation and protection of these historic resources are a public necessity due to their character and value as visible reminders of the shared history and heritage of these municipalities, Pinellas County, Florida and the nation.

(b)

The board finds that the preservation and protection of these historic resources contribute to the education, culture, economy and quality of life of the citizens of Pinellas County. The board further finds that the county's historic resources are irreplaceable and therefore, this legacy must be protected for future generations.

(c)

The board finds that preservation of historic resources will assist in the creation of a higher quality of life for all citizens; therefore, the board directs that historic preservation goals be integrated into all aspects of county policies and procedures and encourages decisions that support and further the goals of historic preservation.

(Ord. No. 08-11, § 2, 2-19-08)

Sec. 38-143. - Benefits of historic preservation.

The board of county commissioners finds that there are many diverse and valuable benefits that arise from historic preservation including the following benefits:

(1)

Historic resources are a tangible reminder of our past, of our ancestors and their way of life. The preservation of these historic resources educates us about our past, expresses the connections across generations and cultures and provides continuity of our shared history.

(2)

Historic resources are valued as things of beauty as they evidence a variety of architectural styles, building methods and materials as well as expressing our cultural diversity and values.

(3)

Through their architecture and aesthetic appeal, historic resources create a sense of place that is unique to each site, the surrounding community, the municipality and to Pinellas County.

(4)

Historic preservation is a significant positive contributor to the economy of Pinellas County and Florida through heritage tourism, creation of jobs, private investment in historic sites and enhancement of the value of historic areas. In 2002, the total economic impact of historic preservation in Florida was $4.2 billion dollars annually and this impact is expected to continue. (Ord. No. 08-11, § 3, 2-19-08)

Sec. 38-144. - Establishment of countywide historic preservation program components.

The board of county commissioners hereby establishes the components of the countywide historic preservation program as follows:

(1)

Survey and identification.

a.

The county shall establish and maintain a county register of historic resources (hereinafter "historic register") (defined to include significant historic buildings, structures and objects, historic districts and archaeological sites) within the county and its municipalities.

b.

The historic register will be updated on a regular basis, readily available to the public through the county's website and shall be organized to allow for research on the major features of the site, such as building type, year built, style, location/jurisdiction, architect/builder and applicable county criteria. The criteria for listing historic resources on the historic register shall be consistent with the standards established by the National Park Service for the National Register of Historic Places and with the criteria described on Exhibit A attached to Ordinance No. 08-11. The eight local criteria that reflect the themes of development and history in Pinellas County include: Coastal living, tourism, agriculture, transportation, wars, Florida boom, community life, and pre-history/archaeology.

Preservation programs. The county shall develop and promote preservation regulations and programs that support the historic preservation policies of this article.

Programs that will be pursued include the identification of a model historic preservation plan element, model preservation protection ordinance, model design guidelines as well as outstanding examples of preservation documents and programs from other governments or preservation sources. This information will be readily available to the public through the county's website and in publication form.

Educational outreach. The county shall provide educational programs and technical assistance to municipalities, owners of historic property, architects and contractors, preservation commission and historic society members, developers, historic preservation professionals and other citizens interested in historic preservation.

The educational programs may include but are not limited to a "how- to tool box" for preservation advocates describing preservation methods, workshops and conferences, technical assistance, preservation website, publications and presentations.

Financial incentives. The county shall research, develop and promote financial and tax incentives at all levels of government that will encourage historic preservation.

In addition to promoting and adopting the existing historic preservation incentives such as the local ad valorem tax incentive and the federal income tax credit, other financial and tax incentives for adoption by local governments and the State of Florida shall be pursued. The program shall also develop and promote creative local incentives and emergency funding for threatened historic/archaeological sites.

(5)

The county shall demonstrate leadership through protecting and preserving the historic resources owned or leased by the county.

(6)

The county shall integrate the historic preservation public policy of this article and all historic resources into its planning processes, including the comprehensive plan and all of its elements, neighborhood/sector plans and any other applicable plans that govern the future development in the county. The county shall evaluate the development of criteria for the review of land use plan amendments, rezoning applications and site plan applications in relation to their impact on historic resources.

(7)

Within one year after adoption of this article, the county shall evaluate its comprehensive plan, land development regulations, policies and procedures to determine their level of consistency with the historic preservation public policy as adopted in this article. As soon as is practicable after the evaluation is complete, the county shall amend its comprehensive plan, land development regulations, policies and procedures to include goals, objectives, regulations, policies and procedures that implement this historic preservation public policy.

The board finds that a historic preservation protection ordinance is a critical component in the implementation of this historic preservation policy and directs the county staff to develop such an ordinance. The board further recognizes that there are varying levels of significance among the historic resources on the historic register; therefore, the revised comprehensive plan and land development regulations will reflect varying levels of protection for historic resources based on the differing levels of significance.

After adoption of this article and while the review of the county's comprehensive plan and ordinances are underway, the county will consider development of a process to identify threatened historic resources and a method to place a hold on irreparable harm to the historic resource while alternatives to demolition are explored.

The board of county commissioners directs the county staff to also conduct an evaluation of the countywide plan and rules and any other applicable planning documents to determine their level of consistency with the historic preservation public policy as adopted in this article. The board directs that this evaluation be conducted within one year after adoption of this article. As soon as is practicable after the evaluation is complete, the county staff, in cooperation with the Pinellas Planning Council, shall propose amendments to the countywide plan and rules that implement this historic preservation public policy.

(9)

The protection of historic resources of countywide, state or national significance is declared to be in the county's public interest. Therefore, within one year of adoption of this article, the county shall research and evaluate the development of an ordinance to restrict the demolition of historic resources that have countywide, state and/or national significance. This provision would focus on resources that are listed in the National Register of Historic Places or potentially eligible for listing as determined by the state historic preservation officer.

(10)

The county shall authorize the staff and financial resources required to implement and administer the historic preservation public policy of this article.

(Ord. No. 08-11, § 4, 2-19-08)

Sec. 38-145. - Local historic preservation program for municipalities.

(a)

Minimum components. The board of county commissioners encourages all municipalities within the county to embrace the importance of historic preservation public policy as adopted in this article and will assist and support the municipalities as they develop their local preservation program. The board of county commissioners strongly encourages each municipality to adopt a local historic preservation program with the following minimum components:

(1)

Survey and identify historic resources (defined to include historic buildings, structures and objects, historic districts and archaeological sites) within its boundaries in accordance with the standards established by the National Park Service for the National Register of Historic Places. Historic resource surveys should be an ongoing systematic process with the goal to ultimately survey all historic areas within the municipality's boundaries.

(2)

Protect the historic resources within its municipal boundaries through local regulations. The municipality is encouraged to develop its historic preservation program in compliance with the certified local government program established by the National Park Service.

(4)

Demonstrate leadership through protecting and preserving the historic resources owned or leased by the municipality.

(5)

Demonstrate leadership through protecting and preserving the historic resources owned or leased by the municipality.

(6)

Develop and implement regulatory and financial incentives to encourage private property stewardship of historic resources.

(7)

Municipalities who have adopted a local preservation program composed with these minimum components (subsections (1)—(5) above) shall be given priority in technical assistance, educational opportunities, financial incentives and other preservation resources offered by the county.

(b)

Optional components. The following elements are optional components of a historic preservation program and the board strongly encourages the municipalities to additionally incorporate these components into its local preservation program:

(1)

The municipality is encouraged to develop diverse educational programs to inform historic property owners, citizens and the development community about the municipality's preservation program and the importance of historic preservation.

(2)

The municipality is encouraged to publish information about historic resources and make this information accessible to the public.

(3)

The municipality is encouraged to implement other preservation programs and projects that reflect its community character.

(Ord. No. 08-11, § 5, 2-19-08)

Sec. 38-146. - Implementation.

(a)

Historic preservation advisory board. The board of county commissioners shall appoint a historic preservation advisory board to implement the historic preservation policy of this article. The initial term of appointment for board members shall be two years.

Copies of Hillsborough County Sheriff's Office reports dealing with several adult businesses in the county.

The board of county commissioners has considered a report by the county sheriff's office which documents in detail the criminal activities which are associated with adult uses in the county.

(3)

The county planning department has conducted a study to determine the amount of available land area within the unincorporated county for adult uses after the adoption of this article. This study has found that given the dense population of Pinellas County, distance requirements greater than 400 feet between adult and certain other land uses would not provide a sufficient area in which adult uses could be located and constitutional strictures to be met.

The board of county commissioners, therefore, finds that the 400-foot distance requirement is a reasonable balance between the concern for the public health, safety and welfare of the citizens and a need to provide a sufficient area for adult uses to be located.

(4)

The board of county commissioners has determined that a one-year amortization period for nonconforming adult uses is reasonable in that the premises affected by this article are readily adaptable to conforming uses.

(5)

The board of county commissioners recognizes that as adult uses, as defined herein, affect surrounding sites in a deleterious manner, particularly when several adult uses are concentrated, special regulation of these uses is necessary to ensure that these effects will not contribute to the blighting or downgrading of the surrounding neighborhood.

(6)

The board of county commissioners has determined that adult uses should be dispersed rather than concentrated and finds that a minimum distance of 400 feet between adult uses serves an important function in preventing the concentration of adult uses.

(7)

The board of county commissioners has determined that this article is necessary to prevent crime, protect the county's retail trade, maintain property values, and protect and preserve the quality of the county's neighborhoods, commercial districts, and the quality of urban life.

(8)

The board of county commissioners has received a recommendation from the local planning agency, pursuant to F.S. ch. 163.

(b)

With respect to other regulatory issues at the time of the adoption of Ordinance No. 91-8 (September 29, 1991):

(1)

Adult uses in the county lend themselves to ancillary unlawful and unhealthy activities that are presently uncontrolled by the operators of the establishments. There is presently no mechanism to make the owners of these establishments responsible for the activities that occur on their premises.

(2)

Sexual acts are a regular occurrence at the adult use establishments, especially in private or semiprivate booths or cubicles for viewing films or live sex shows.

(3)

Such establishments exist within Pinellas County, Florida:

a.

Where the superficial tissues of one person are manipulated, rubbed, stroked, kneaded, and/or tapped by a second person, accompanied by the display or exposure of specified anatomical areas;

b.

Where dancers, entertainers, performers or other individuals, for commercial gain, perform or are presented while displaying or exposing a specified anatomical area.

(4)

Employees of adult use establishments engage in a higher incidence of certain types of criminal behavior than employees of other establishments.

(5)

Employees of adult use establishments engage in a higher incidence of certain types of sexual behavior than employees of other establishments, including offering to perform sexual acts.

(6)

Sexual acts are a regular occurrence at adult use establishments, especially those which provide private or semiprivate booths or cubicles for viewing films or videos, defined under this article as adult theaters.

(7)

Offering and providing such space, areas and rooms where such activities take place creates conditions that generate prostitution and other crimes as well as unhealthy conditions.

(8)

Persons frequent certain adult theaters for the purpose of providing sex within the premises of such adult theaters.

(9)

At least 50 communicable diseases may be spread by activities occurring in adult use establishments, including, but not limited to, syphilis, gonorrhea, human immune deficiency virus infection (AIDS), genital herpes, hepatitis B, Non A, Non B, amebiasis, salmonella infections and shigella infections.

(10)

Since 1981 and to the present, there have been an increasing cumulative number of reported cases of acquired immunodeficiency syndrome (AIDS) caused by the human immunodeficiency virus (HIV) in the United States: 843 in 1982, 3,064 in 1983, 7,699 in 1984, 15,948 in 1985, 29,003 in 1986, 49,743 in 1987, 82,406 in 1988, 117,781 in 1989, and 157,525 through November, 1990; and in Florida: 110 cases in 1982, 345 in 1983, 778 in 1984, 1,628 in 1985, 2,980 in 1986, 5,228 in 1987, 8,111 in 1988, 11,466 in 1989, and 13,927 through November, 1990.

period in 1989.

(18)

The Surgeon General of the United States in his report of October 22, 1986, has advised the American public that AIDS and HIV infection may be transmitted through sexual contact, intravenous drug abuse, exposure to infected blood and blood components, and from an infected mother to her newborn.

(19)

According to the best scientific evidence, AIDS and HIV infection, as well as syphilis and gonorrhea, are principally transmitted by sexual acts.

(20)

According to the best scientific evidence, numerous other diseases and infestations, including chlamydia, pelvic inflammatory disease, chancroid, herpes, hepatitis B, lymphogranuloma venereum, granuloma inguinale, genital warts, trichomoniasis, scabies, pediculosis, amebiasis, giardiasis, and others are transmitted by sexual acts.

(21)

Sanitary conditions in some adult theaters are unhealthy, in part because of the unregulated nature of the activities, because of the failure of owners and operators of the facilities to self-regulate those activities, and in part because of the substandard facilities and maintenance of those facilities.

(22)

The United States Centers for Disease Control have issued universal precautions, including housekeeping and disinfection guidelines, for the prevention of transmission of the HIV virus and other diseases, which guidelines should be followed by adult-oriented establishments.

(23)

Sexually transmitted disease clinic patients interviewed by disease intervention specialists of the county health department have admitted sexual contacts with patrons and employees at various adult use establishments.

(24)

Upon inspection by staff members of the county sheriff's office and members of the county health department, semen has been found in the areas of adult use establishments where persons view adult-oriented films or witness sexually explicit live entertainment.

(25)

Mingling and sexual contact between patrons and employees is generally initiated by the exchange of money and may reasonably be expected to serve as an opportunity to solicit for and an inducement to agree to unprotected sexual activity, including prostitution, and thus poses a threat to the health of both groups and promotes the spread of communicable as well as social diseases.

(26)

Unprotected sexual intercourse, especially prostitution, is a major contributing factor to the increase of sexually transmitted diseases and AIDS. Based on interviews of STD clinic patients, who report sexual contacts with patrons and employees at various adult use establishments, it is reasonable to conclude that the entertainment provided in such establishments is conducive to the arrangement of such liaisons to be later consummated off-premises.

When the previously described activities characteristic of adult use establishments are present within the county, other activities which are illegal or unhealthful tend to accompany them, concentrate around them and be aggravated by them. Such other activities include, but are not limited to, prostitution, pandering, solicitation for prostitution, lewd and lascivious behavior, exposing minors to harmful materials, possession, distribution and transportation of obscene materials.

Adult use establishments are usually constructed, partly or wholly, of substandard material, and are usually maintained in a manner reflecting disregard for the health and safety of the occupants.

(c)

The concerns raised in the foregoing legislative findings in this section relate to substantial and legitimate governmental interests.

(d)

Adult use establishments have operational characteristics which should be reasonably regulated in order to protect those substantial governmental concerns.

(e)

A reasonable and simple licensure procedure is an appropriate mechanism to place the burden of that reasonable regulation on the owners, operators and managers of the adult use establishments. Further, such a licensing procedure will place a heretofore nonexistent incentive on the owner/operator to see that the adult use establishment is run in a manner that is consistent with the health, safety and welfare of its patrons and employees as well as the citizens of the county. It is appropriate to require reasonable assurances that the licensee is the actual owner/operator of the adult use establishment, fully in possession and control of the premises and the activities occurring therein.

(f)

Adult use establishments are a pervasively regulated industry, making reasonable inspections and administrative searches necessary to enforce regulatory standards.

(g)

Removal of doors on adult booths and requiring sufficient lighting in adult theaters advances the substantial governmental interest in curbing the illegal and unsanitary sexual activity occurring at adult theaters.

(h)

The prevention of sexual contact between patrons and employees at adult use establishments is unrelated to the suppression of free expression but serves to address the concerns raised in the findings contained in this section. Although the dancer's erotic message may be slightly less effective from three feet away, the ability to engage in the protected expression is not significantly impaired.

(i)

Separating dancers from patrons and prohibiting dancers and patrons from engaging in sexual fondling and caressing in adult cabarets would reduce the opportunity for prostitution transactions and thus should deter prostitution.

(j)

Requiring that the facilities of adult theaters be constructed of materials that are easily cleanable, that the facilities be cleaned on a regular basis, and that the employees cleaning the facilities take reasonable precautions to avoid contact with possible disease transmitting media is reasonably related to the protection of both employees and patrons from sexually transmitted diseases.

(k)

Requiring licensees of adult use establishments to keep information regarding current employees and certain past employees will help reduce the incidence of certain types of criminal behavior by facilitating the identification of potential witnesses or suspects and by preventing minors from working in such establishments.

(l)

The disclosure of certain information by those persons ultimately responsible for the day-to-day operation and maintenance of the adult use establishment is beneficial where such information is substantially related to the significant governmental interest in the operation of such uses in such manner as to prevent the spread of sexually transmitted diseases and to reduce or eliminate the criminal activity associated with adult use establishments.

(m)

It is desirable in the prevention of the spread of communicable diseases and in the investigation of criminal activity to obtain a limited amount of information regarding certain employees who either engage in the conduct which this article is designed to prevent or are likely to be witnesses to such activity.

(n)

A substantial rational relationship between sexually oriented businesses and sexually related crimes establishes a compelling justification for barring those persons prone to such crimes from the management of such businesses.

(o)

The fact that an applicant for an adult use license has been convicted of a sexually related crime leads to a rational inference that the applicant is more likely to engage in conduct in contravention of this article.

(p)

The barring of a person from participating in an adult use business may cease when circumstances indicate to the county that offenders are no longer criminally inclined.

(q)

The barring of such individuals from management of adult uses for a period of years serves as a deterrent to and prevents the conduct which leads to the transmission of sexually transmitted diseases and to the promotion of that criminal activity associated with adult uses.

(r)

Because the weight of evidence shows that while adult bookstores which only sell or rent adult material and have no adult booth/theater component have similar secondary effects as other adult uses, such bookstores do not promote the transmission of sexual diseases, an exemption of such limited adult establishments from the licensure requirements, but not the locational requirements of this article is appropriate.

(s)

Because grocery stores, convenience stores and other similar establishments which may carry some magazines or books containing some adult materials do not have similar secondary effects as other adult uses, they should be exempt from regulations under this section.

(t)

The board of county commissioners has determined that a one-year amortization for presently nonconforming adult use or uses which become nonconforming in the future is reasonable in that the premises affected by this article are readily adoptable to conforming uses.

(Ord. No. 90-65, § 1.6, 7-24-90; Ord. No. 91-8, art. 2, 1-29-91; Ord. No. 93-89, art. 1, 10-19-93; Ord. No. 97-74, §§ 2, 3, 9-9-97)

Sec. 42-58. - Regulation of obscenity subject to state law.

It is not the intent of the board of county commissioners to legislate with respect to matters of obscenity. These matters are regulated by state law, including F.S. ch. 847.

(Ord. No. 90-65, § 1.8, 7-24-90; Ord. No. 91-8, art. 2, 1-29-91)

Sec. 42-59. - Regulation of massage establishments subject to state law.

It is not the intent of the board of county commissioners to legislate with respect to matters of massage establishments. These matters are regulated by state agency, the department of professional regulation, board of massage, and by F.S. ch. 480.

(Ord. No. 90-65, § 1.9, 7-24-90; Ord. No. 91-8, art. 2, 1-29-91)

Sec. 42-60. - Enforcement of article.

(a)

In the event the sheriff learns or finds upon sufficient cause that a licensed adult use establishment is operating contrary to the respective general requirements of section 42-106, or the applicable special requirements of sections 42-107(1)a., b., c., d., h., (2), (3), (4) and (5) and section 42-108, he shall notify the licensee of the violation and shall allow the licensee a 30-day period in which to correct the violation. Subsequent inspections for violations of the foregoing provisions shall not require any notice prior to citation as the licensee and its employees are deemed to have been placed on notice of the requirements of this article by the first notice and cure period. The frequency of citation for these violations, however, shall be no more frequent than every 15 days.

(b)

The filing of an application to the board of adjustment for a variance from subsections 42-107(1)d, e and/or f preclude citation for those provisions until the expiration of such time as the board of adjustment, in its conditions for any variance, provide for correction of the violation, consistent with the variance. If the licensee fails to so correct the violation before the expiration of the time period provided for by the board of adjustment, the sheriff may issue citations in the same manner as subsequent inspections under subsection (a).

(c)

Whoever violates any section of division 6 of this article may be prosecuted and punished as provided by F.S. § 125.69 (2000), except that a penalty of imprisonment shall not be imposed for violations of sections 42-138 and 42-139. Nothing in this requirement shall be interpreted to bind sheriff's deputies to the requirements of code inspectors under F.S. § 125.69 (2000).

(d)

In addition to the penalties provided for violation of county ordinances in section 1-8, adult bookstores, adult theaters, special cabarets, physical culture establishments or adult photographic or modeling studios not in conformity with the requirements of this article shall be subject to the appropriate civil action, including injunctive relief, in the court of appropriate jurisdiction for their abatement. Except as provided in subsections (a) and (b) of this section, each day that any violation is committed shall constitute a separate offense.

(e)

It is the responsibility of the licensee, owner, employee or operator of an adult use business establishment to ensure compliance with this article, notwithstanding the issuance of an occupational license, building permit, zoning clearance for an alcohol license or any other governmental permit.

The office of the sheriff is responsible for all enforcement actions brought under division 6 of this article. The health department and the department of justice and consumer services may assist the office of the sheriff in its investigative responsibilities.

(e)

The planning department is responsible for ascertaining whether an existing adult use or a proposed establishment for which a license is being applied for complies with all locational requirements of county ordinances, pursuant to section 42-106(4), and if it complies, issuing an approval in the form of a valid adult use permit pursuant to division 5 of this article.

(f)

Any law enforcement officer or employee of the departments referenced in subsections (b), (c) and (d) of this section who is authorized by the head of that department shall, at any reasonable hour, have access to and shall have the right to inspect the premises of all licensees under this article for compliance with any or all of the applicable codes, statutes, ordinances, and regulations in effect in the county and within the responsibilities of their respective department as outlined in subsections (b), (c) and (d) of this section. Such officer or employee shall require strict compliance with the provisions of this article. Reports of violations shall be reported to the department of justice and consumer services.

Failure to respond to a request for information necessary to complete the application within 15 days shall result in a denial of the application on the basis of abandonment and the applicant shall be refunded that portion of the fee applicable to the background investigations if the investigations did not occur. This denial shall be without prejudice to the applicant's right to reapply.

(Ord. No. 90-65, § 2.3, 7-24-90; Ord. No. 91-8, art. 3, 1-29-91; Ord. No. 92-6, art. IV, 2-18-92; Ord. No. 93-89, arts. 5, 6, 10-19-93; Ord. No. 94-40, art. IV, 4-19-94; Ord. No. 97-74, § 9, 9-9-97)

Sec. 42-78. - Reserved.

Editor's note— Ord. No. 01-79, § 4, adopted Nov. 13, 2001, repealed § 42-78, which pertained to investigation of application and derived from Ord. No. 90-65, § 2.4, adopted July 24, 1990; Ord. No. 91-8, art. 3, adopted Jan. 29, 1991; Ord. No. 94-40, art. IV, adopted April 19, 1994; and Ord. No. 97-74, § 10, adopted Sept. 9, 1997.

Sec. 42-79. - Grant; denial.

(a)

Time period for granting or denying license.

(1)

The department of justice and consumer services shall grant or deny an application for a new, renewal or transfer license under this article within 30 days from the date of its proper filing. Any denial shall state the reasons for the denial. Upon the expiration of the 30th day, the applicant may, at the applicant's discretion, begin operating the establishment for which a license is sought, without benefit of a license, unless and until the department of justice and consumer services notifies the applicant of a denial of the application and states the reason(s) for that denial. Failure to timely grant or deny an application for a license, and the revisions of this section allowing operation without benefit of a license, shall not serve as a granting of the license.

(2)

Failure to timely grant or deny an application for a license under this article shall serve to ripen an appropriate action to compel a decision on the application. The county will cooperate with the applicant to assure his entitlement to prompt judicial review of the county's failure to timely grant or deny the application. All operations of the establishment under this special provision shall conform to the provisions of division 5 and sections 42-138 (d), (e), 42-139, 42-146 and 42-148.

(b)

Granting of application for license. If there is no basis for denial of a license under this article, pursuant to subsection (c) of this section, the department of justice and consumer services shall grant the application, notify the applicant of the granting, and issue the license to the applicant upon payment of the appropriate annual license fee provided in section 42-81, with credit as provided in section 42-77.

(c)

Denying of application for license.

(1)

The department of justice and consumer services shall deny the application for a license under this article for any of the following reasons:

a.

The application contains material false information, or information material to the decision was omitted; failure to list an individual required to be listed, pursuant to subsection 42-77(b)(1), and whose listing would result in a denial pursuant to subsections (c)(1)b and (c)(1)d of this section, is presumed to be a material false information for purposes of denial of the application; the certification that the licensee owns, possesses, operates and exercises control over the proposed or existing adult use establishment is a material representation for purposes of this section.

The applicant or any of the other individuals listed pursuant to subsection 42-77(b)(1) holds or has held a license under this article, or any other ordinance regulating adult uses, which has been suspended or revoked for reasons which would be sufficient to warrant suspension or revocation under this article and from which less than ten years have elapsed since the date of revocation or from which less than two years have elapsed since the date of suspension.

c.

The granting of the application would violate a statute, ordinance, or an order from a court of law.

d.

An applicant or any of the other individuals listed pursuant to subsection 42-77(b)(1) has been convicted of a specified criminal act:

1.

For which:

i.

Less than two years have elapsed since the date of conviction or the date of release from confinement imposed for the conviction, whichever is the later date, if the conviction is of a misdemeanor offense;

ii.

Less than five years have elapsed since the date of conviction or the date of release from confinement imposed for the conviction, whichever is the later date, if the conviction is of a felony offense; or iii.

Less than five years have elapsed since the date of the last conviction or the date of release from confinement imposed for the conviction, whichever is the later date, if the convictions are of two or more misdemeanor offenses or combination of misdemeanor offenses occurring within any 24-month period.

2.

The fact that a conviction is being appealed shall have no effect on the disqualification of the applicant.

3.

Abandonment of the application pursuant to section 42-77(d).

(2)

If the department of justice and consumer services denies the application, it shall notify the applicant of the denial, and state the reason(s) for the denial.

(3)

If a person applies for a license at a particular location within a period of six months from the date of denial of a previous application for a license at the location, and there has not been an intervening change in the circumstances material to the decision regarding the former reason(s) for denial, the application shall not be accepted for consideration.

(d)

Compliance required. The granting of a license under this article does not act as a certification that the proposed adult use establishment meets all provisions of this article or of any health or zoning statute, code, ordinance, or regulation. The existing adult use establishment and any proposed adult use establishment, once established, must meet all code provisions required of all regulated businesses, including the provisions of this article.

(Ord. No. 90-65, § 2.5, 7-24-90; Ord. No. 91-8, art. 3, 1-29-91; Ord. No. 92-6, art. IV, 2-18-92; Ord. No. 93-89, arts. 7—9, 10-19-93; Ord. No. 94-40, arts. V, VI, 4-19-94; Ord. No. 97-74, § 11, 9-9-97)

Sec. 42-80. - Contents of license; term; renewals; expiration; cancellation.

(a)

Contents. An adult use license shall state on its face:

(1)

The name of the licensee;

(2)

The legal mailing address of the licensee;

(3)

The name of the establishment;

(4)

The legal street address of the establishment;

(5)

The classifications of the license;

(6)

The date of issuance; and

(7)

The date of expiration.

(b)

Term. All licenses issued under this article shall be annual licenses which shall commence from the date of issue.

(c)

Renewals.

(1)

Adult use licenses shall be renewed annually. Subject to the requirements of this article, a licensee under this article shall be entitled to a renewal of his annual license from year to year, as a matter of course, prior to expiration of the license by presenting the license for the previous year, paying the appropriate license fee and completing a renewal application on a form provided by the department of justice and consumer services.

(2)

An application for renewal of an adult use license may be denied if updated information provided in the renewal application indicates that one or more of the individuals required to be listed pursuant to subsection 42-77(b)(1) were not listed in the original application and their existence in the original application would have resulted in a denial of the application pursuant to subsections 42-79(c)(1)b and d. Removal of that individual(s) from the application for renewal will allow approval of the application for renewal.

(3)

An application for renewal of an adult use license may not be denied where the individuals required to be listed pursuant to subsection 42-77(b)(1) were listed in the original application and, subsequent to issuance of the license, were convicted of an offense which would have resulted in a denial of the application pursuant to subsections 4279(c)(1)b and d. Such convictions are to be accommodated through the suspension and revocation procedures of sections 42-85 and 42-86.

(d)

Expiration. A license that is not renewed under this article shall expire. An expired license may be renewed within 30 days of expiration upon presentation of an affidavit stating that no adult entertainment activity has taken place at the establishment subsequent to expiration, upon payment of the appropriate license fee, upon completion of the renewal application, and upon payment of a penalty of ten percent of the appropriate license fee for the first 30 days after expiration of the license, or fraction thereof. Without presentation of the affidavit, the establishment seeking to renew the license must apply for a new license.

(e)

Cancellation. All expired adult use licenses not renewed within 30 days of expiration shall be canceled summarily by the department of justice and consumer services.

(Ord. No. 90-65, § 2.6, 7-24-90; Ord. No. 91-8, art. 3, 1-29-91; Ord. No. 93-89, art. 10, 10-19-93; Ord. No. 97-74, § 12, 9-9-97)

Sec. 42-81. - Annual licensing regulatory fees; levy of; regulatory in nature.

(a)

Levy of license fees.

(1)

In order to cover the administrative and enforcement costs associated with this article, there are hereby levied annual licensing regulatory fees under this article for an adult entertainment establishment in amounts set by resolution of the board of county commissioners.

(2)

An establishment proposing to operate or operating only as an adult cabaret shall pay a licensing regulatory fee.

(3)

An establishment proposing to operate or operating only as an adult photographic studio shall pay a licensing regulatory fee.

(4)

An establishment proposing to operate or operating only as a physical culture establishment shall pay a licensing regulatory fee.

(5)

An establishment proposing to operate or operating only as an adult use which cannot be categorized according to the above-referenced categories shall be assessed at the rate applicable to the adult use most closely resembling the proposed or existing use.

(6)

An establishment proposing to operate or operating as two of the above-referenced classifications shall pay a licensing regulatory fee.

(7)

An establishment proposing to operate or operating as three of the above-referenced classifications shall pay a licensing regulatory fee.

(8)

An establishment proposing to operate or operating as four or more of the above-referenced classifications shall pay a licensing regulatory fee.

(b)

License fees are regulatory in nature. The annual license fees collected under this article are declared to be regulatory fees which are collected for the purpose of examination and inspection of adult uses under this article and the administration thereof. These regulatory fees are in addition to and not in lieu of building permit, zoning, and food establishment fees, or other fees imposed by other sections of this Code.

Sec. 42-82. - Records and reports; consent by licensee.

(a)

Records and reports.

(1)

Each licensee shall keep such records and make such reports as are required under this article.

(2)

Whenever the information required by or provided under subsection 42-77(b) has changed, the licensee shall provide the department of justice and consumer services with the changed information within 15 days of occurrence of the change.

(b)

Consent. By holding a license under this article, the licensee shall be deemed to have consented to the provisions of this article and to the exercise by the department of justice and consumer services, the sheriff, and the departments administering this article of their respective responsibilities under this article.

If the licensee cannot correct the application to conform with the requirements of this article, the licensee will be subject to citation for violation of this article. A law enforcement officer may issue a citation for violation of this subsection. The licensee will be subject to all fines and penalties as provided in section 1-8 and under this article. The director of the department of justice and consumer services shall revoke the license if he or she finds that the licensee is in violation of this provision.

In the event that the licensee fails to make a timely request for hearing, the department of justice and consumer services shall revoke the license and notify the licensee of the revocation and the reasons therefor.

(5)

The transfer or renewal of a license pursuant to this article shall not defeat the terms of subsection (b)(1) of this section.

(6)

The decision of the director of the department of justice and consumer services shall constitute final agency action, and may be appealed pursuant to section 42-62.

(e)

Effective date of revocation. The revocation of a license under this article shall take effect 35 days after the date the department of justice and consumer services mails the notice of revocation to the licensee or on the date the licensee delivers his license to the department of justice and consumer services, whichever occurs first. No adult use establishment, including an adult bookstore operating only as an adult bookstore, may be located within 400 feet of any residential zoned property, or any portion of a mixed use zoning district developed and utilized as residential, nor within 400 feet of any church, school, child care facility or public recreation area which is validly located or has previously received legal authority to so locate.

(b)

No adult use business establishment may be located within 400 feet of any other adult use.

Sec. 42-122. - Adult use permits.

No adult use establishment shall be allowed to commence or continue to operate without first obtaining a valid adult use permit. Any business entity or person desiring to locate, operate or continue the operation of any adult use shall be required to obtain an adult use permit from the director of the department of development review services before the establishment or commencement of business as an adult use. Adult uses which have been established or have commenced business at their existing locations prior to the effective date of the ordinance from which this article derives shall be required to obtain an adult use permit from the director of the department of development review services within three months of the adoption of such ordinance.

(b)

In order to obtain an adult use permit, the applicant shall provide, in addition to a fee determined by the board of county commissioners to be reasonably calculated to cover the costs of administering this permitting requirement, the following information:

(1)

Name, mailing address and telephone number.

(2)

Street address and a legal description of the property containing the proposed or existing adult use.

(3)

A site plan of the proposed establishment. A professionally prepared diagram in the nature of an engineer's or architect's blueprint shall not be required; however, each site plan should be oriented to the north or to some designated street or object and shall be drawn-to a designated scale or with marked dimensions sufficient to show the various dimensions of the site including property dimensions, building sizes, and locations and sizes of the Portions of the building containing the adult use. Multitenant buildings shall show interior and exterior locations and sizes of the areas proposed to be occupied by all facets of the adult business use, and all setbacks from property lines.

(4)

(5)

If the applicant's proposed location is that of an already established adult use, the date of commencement of operations as an adult use, including documentation of commencement if available.

(6)

If the applicant is not the record owner of the subject parcel, the application must include a letter, with the notarized signature of the record owner, purporting to be the record owner, stating that the applicant is authorized to seek an adult use permit for the premises.

(c)

Upon receipt of a completed application for an adult use permit, the director of the department of development review services, his designee, or any person designated by the county administrator shall inspect the proposed location of the adult use and, within nine days, provide notice to the applicant of a certification of compliance or noncompliance. The director of the department of development review services may extend such period of time, at the request of the applicant, for purposes of clarification of issues raised by the review but in no event for a period of time in excess of 20 days.

(1)

Certification of noncompliance.

Where it is found that the location proposed in the application does not meet the distance requirements of section 42-121(a) or is one where a valid adult use exists or is one where a valid adult use permit or valid certification of compliance has been issued for another adult use, the location of which is within the distance requirements of section 42-121(b) from the proposed location, the applicant shall be notified of the certification of noncompliance of the proposed location with the locational requirements of this article.

Upon receipt of the certification of noncompliance, the applicant shall have ten days to appeal the decision on noncompliance pursuant to the provisions of section 42-122(d)(3).

(2)

Certification of compliance.

Where it is found that the applicant's proposed location meets the distance requirements of section 42-121(a) and where no valid adult use exists or where no valid adult use permit or valid certification of compliance has been issued for another adult use, the location of which is within the distance requirements of section 42-121(b) from the proposed location the applicant shall be notified of the certification of compliance of the proposed location with the locational requirements of subsections (a) and (b) of this section.

Upon notification, the applicant shall have 20 days to obtain the adult use permit, signed by the director of the department of development review services or his designee. Failure to obtain such permit within the 20-day time period invalidates the certification of compliance and the applicant must reapply.

(3)

Conflicting applications.

The board of county commissioners recognizes the potential of creating nonconformities by granting adult use permits that conflict. The director of the department of development review services shall develop a system for tracking potentially conflicting applications and for ranking them by date and time of application/date of establishment.

Between two applications being processed at the same time, which individually qualify under subsections 42-121(a) and (b), but would violate the provisions of subsection 42-121(b) if both were to receive permits, the application which was completed at the earliest date, as provided for in subsection (b) of this section, shall be notified that his proposed location has been certified in compliance pursuant to the provisions of subsection (c)(2) of this section.

The conflicting applicant shall be notified of his application's certification of noncompliance pursuant to the provisions of this subsection (c)(3) with a notation that the noncompliance was due to the earlier submittal of a conflicting application.

The first applicant who has received the certification of compliance shall have 20 days to secure the adult use permit, signed by the director of the department of development review services. Upon lapse of the period of validity of the certification of compliance, pursuant to the provisions of subsection (c)(2)b of this section, the applicant must reapply.

c.

Any applicant who has received a certification of noncompliance pursuant to the provisions of this subsection (c)(3) may use his prior application date in a resubmission for the purposes of establishing priority if the original application was made no more than seven months previous. Otherwise, he must reapply.

(d)

Continuing validity of adult use permit.

(1)

The adult use permit signed by the director of the department of development review services or his designee shall be valid for a period of six months after issuance, during which time the applicant's adult use business must apply for an adult use license pursuant to division 2 of this article. The validity of such a permit may be extended by the director of the department of development review services one time for 90 days for good cause. Any decision to deny such an extension may be appealed pursuant to the provisions of section 42-62.

(2)

Once legally established, the adult use permit shall remain valid unless revoked pursuant to the provisions of section 42-123 or terminated sooner for any reason, including failure to have a valid adult use license, or unless voluntarily discontinued for a period of 30 days or more. Upon receipt of a notice of abandonment, the applicant shall have ten days to appeal the decision on noncompliance pursuant to the provisions of section 42-122(d)(3).

(3)

If the department of development review services decides to certify as noncompliant or to revoke an otherwise valid adult use permit, the applicant/permittee shall have the right to request a hearing before the director of the department of development review services or his/her designee. This hearing shall be commenced within 30 days of the date of the request for the hearing. Decisions by the director of the department of development review services to certify as non-compliant or to revoke an otherwise valid adult use permit may be reviewed pursuant to the provisions of section 42-62.

(Ord. No. 90-65, § 5.2, 7-24-90; Ord. No. 91-8, art. 6, 1-29-91; Ord. No. 97-74, § 22, 9-9-97)

Sec. 42-123. - Variances.

If an applicant receives a certification of noncompliance because the location of the proposed adult use is in violation of the locational requirements of this article, then the applicant may, not later than ten calendar days after receiving notice of the certification of noncompliance, file with the department of development review services a written request for a variance from the locational restrictions of section 42-121. The filing of such a request shall preserve the pending status of the application for purposes of the review of conflicting applications.

(b)

If the written request for a variance from the locational requirements of this article is filed with the department of development review services within the ten-day limit provided in subsection (a) above, he shall schedule a hearing before the board of adjustment, which body shall consider the request for a variance. The director of the department of development review services shall set a date for the hearing within 60 days from the date the written request is received.

(c)

The board of adjustment shall hear and consider evidence offered by any interested person in a public hearing scheduled with public notice. Public notice shall be given pursuant to the requirements of section 138-79(b) and shall include property owners of record by the property appraiser within 400 feet of the proposed location instead of 200 feet. The board of adjustment may, in its discretion, grant a variance, with reasonable conditions, from the locational restrictions of section 42-121 if it makes the following findings:

(1)

That a sufficient physical barrier separates the adult use establishment, for which a variance is being sought, from the land use(s), which has (have) caused the adult use not to be in compliance with the distance requirement of this article, so as to substantially fulfill the purpose of the distance requirement. Sec. 42-401. - Legislative findings.

(Ord. No. 05-92, § 1, 12-20-05)

Sec. 42-402. - Qualifying official governmental action (QOGA).

For purposes of this article, official government action is a determination of an application for rezoning or any other official action that would result in the removal or relocation of mobile home owners residing in a mobile home park other than a resident-owned park.

(Ord. No. 05-92, § 2, 12-20-05)

Sec. 42-403. - Applicant defined and responsibilities of the applicant.

(a)

For purposes of this article, "applicant" is defined as an applicant for a QOGA with respect to a property currently used as a mobile home park under F.S. ch. 723. The owner of record of the subject property shall sign such application.

(b)

Applicant's F.S. § 723.083 responsibilities.

(1)

Consistent with subsection 138-077(7) of the Pinellas County Land Development Code, the application shall provide information in support of the necessary 723.083 Florida Statute determination that adequate mobile home parks or other suitable facilities exist for the relocation of the mobile home owners, hereinafter referred to as the determination.

(2)

Supplement after preliminary staff review: If upon initial review by county staff, it is determined that additional information is required to make the requisite 723.083 finding, the applicant may have an additional 30 days to supplement the record.

(c)

Applicant will provide information specified in section 42-405 of this article to establish a replacement housing profile for the mobile home owners residing in the park and determine if adequate mobile home parks or other suitable facilities are available for the relocation of mobile home owners affected by governmental action as required by statute. For purposes of this article, "mobile home owners" shall be defined as those persons who own their coach but rent a lot space within the subject property and are subject to the provisions and protections provided for in F.S. ch. 723.

(d)

Applicant will deposit with the county the supplemental rental assistance payment funds as specified in this article to assure that the identified mobile home parks or other suitable facilities are affordable to mobile home owners within the subject property.

(e)

For each mobile home owner within the subject property who requests rental assistance payments, applicant will identify a replacement unit in a mobile home park or other suitable facility located within ten miles of the subject property. Replacement units must be decent, safe, and sanitary, and meet Pinellas County's housing quality standards. Nothing herein shall prevent a mobile home owner from accepting a replacement unit outside the ten-mile radius if the mobile home owner so chooses.

(f)

No notice of eviction for change of use of property shall be given or effective unless the mobile home park owner shall have first paid to the county an amount equal to the county's actual out-of-pocket cost to qualify mobile home owners and provide initial counseling times the number of owner-occupied mobile homes located in the mobile home park. Such sum shall be used by the county or its designee in determining whether mobile home owners qualify for rental assistance payments hereunder and shall be fully creditable against any sums payable pursuant to sections 42-405 and 42-406. No later than the date the notice of eviction for change of use is given to mobile home owners, the applicant will notify mobile home owners of their rights under this article, including possible eligibility for rental assistance payments if affordable replacement or relocation facilities cannot be identified.

(Ord. No. 05-92, § 3, 12-20-05)

Sec. 42-404. - Board action on section 723.083 finding.

(a)

The board shall make its determination regarding F.S. § 723.083 during the same public hearing where the rezoning/future land use map amendment is considered.

(b)

The board may continue the hearing should it request supplemental information to assist in making the requisite determination.

(c)

Final decision.

(1)

The board shall review all information provided and shall make its decision based on substantial and competent evidence.

(2)

Approval: If the board is satisfied that the evidence indicates that adequate mobile home parks or other suitable facilities exist for the relocation of the eligible displaced mobile home owners, it shall make a finding of such and may move to approve the QOGA.

(3)

Denial: If the board is not satisfied that the evidence indicates the existence of adequate mobile home parks or other suitable facilities for the relocation of the eligible displaced mobile home owners, the finding shall state such and the QOGA may not be approved with reference to F.S. § 723.083, except as provided for within 402-405.

(4)

The board may grant a conditional approval of the QOGA pursuant to section 42-405.

(d)

The granting of such conditional approval pursuant to subsection (c)(4) will provide a presumption that the provisions of F.S. § 723.083 have been satisfied.

(Ord. No. 05-92, § 4, 12-20-05)

Sec. 42-405. - Conditional final decision.

(a)

Upon determining that there is a lack of competent substantial evidence to support an affirmative finding under F.S. § 723.083, the Florida Mobile Home Act, the board may condition approval upon the applicant's willingness to deposit monies into a supplemental rental assistance payment fund for purposes of assuring that rental assistance is available for all eligible mobile home owners for whom affordable mobile home parks or other suitable facilities cannot be identified.

(b)

Any supplemental rental assistance payment funds deposited by the applicant that remain unused will be returned to the applicant as stated in this section.

(c)

To determine if the applicant qualifies for a conditional final approval, the applicant shall be required to provide sufficient information to establish a replacement housing profile for the mobile home owners residing in the park. Required information must include, but is not limited to, the following:

(1)

The total number of mobile homes in the park that are owned by mobile home owners; and

(2)

Monthly rent charged for each space occupied by a mobile home owner; and

(3)

A list of the names and mailing addresses of the present mobile home owners within the subject property. This list should identify those units that are suitable for moving and for which only vacant replacement lots will be identified in subsection (c)(5); and

(4)

Household profile for each owner-occupied mobile home within the park, including number of adults, number of children, and whether pets have been allowed in the park. Replacement units identified per subsection (c)(5) should be suitable for similar household profiles; and

(5)

A list of other mobile home parks or other suitable facilities with vacant units available at the time of application and that are of a similar cost profile to which owners residing in the subject property could reasonably expect to relocate. This list will include, at a minimum, name and address of the park, park contact name and phone number, the number of vacant spaces available and the cost of those spaces, park guidelines on age and condition of acceptable units, number of rental units available and the cost of those rentals. All parks or other suitable facilities must be located within a ten-mile radius of the subject property and serve the same age, household, and occupancy profiles as the subject property.

(Ord. No. 05-92, § 5, 12-20-05)

Sec. 42-406. - Supplemental rental assistance payment fund.

(a)

Purpose. The supplemental rental assistance payment fund is intended as a resource to assure that affordable mobile home parks or other suitable facilities will be available for mobile home owners who are removed or relocated as a result of a QOGA. Payments from this fund do not provide a relocation payment or any other form of compensation to mobile home owners. If the applicant for rezoning cannot identify adequate mobile home parks or other suitable facilities that are affordable to the impacted mobile home owners, the payment will be used to provide temporary rental assistance to qualified mobile home owners.

(b)

Calculation of deposits. The amount deposited into the supplemental rental assistance payment fund will be calculated by the county or its designee using the following methodology:

(1)

Identify the units occupied by mobile home owners and unit size based on number of bedrooms; and

(2)

Identify the weighted average lot rent for owners in the subject mobile home park; and (3)

Identify the weighted average rents for similarly sized rental units in Pinellas County; and (4)

The per-unit amount to be deposited is based on the gap between the weighted average monthly lot rent and the weighted average monthly rent for similarly sized apartments in Pinellas County; and

(5)

The per-unit amount defined in subsection (4) is multiplied by the number of owners in the subject property, who have not voluntarily signed a waiver of their F.S. § 723.083 protections, and by the 24-month maximum assistance period; and

(6)

To determine the total deposit required, the amount calculated in subsection (5) is multiplied by a factor of 1.15 to meet administrative fee requirements.

(c)

Administrative fee. Funds deposited with the county to provide rental assistance payments are subject to a 15 percent nonrefundable fee to cover the cost of program administration.

(d)

Form of payment. Deposits to the supplemental rental assistance payment fund will be made payable to Pinellas County or its designee. The county or its designee will calculate the deposit amount required based on an economic profile derived from information provided by the applicant as described in section 42-405 and other housing cost data. The full supplemental rental assistance payment amount must be deposited prior to issuance of any permits for the site. The deposit may be cash or an irrevocable letter of credit issued by a major financial institution in favor of Pinellas County, in a form approved by the county or its designee and from which solely the county is authorized to draw upon for rental assistance as provided herein as needed. Any cash shall be deposited in an interest-bearing account, with the interest accruing to the benefit of the applicant. Any letters of credit shall be for a period of one year provided, however, that the county may draw on such letter of credit if it is not renewed for an additional year not later than 30 days prior to its expiration. The applicant may substitute cash, in whole or in part, for the letter of credit from time to time. The letter of credit shall be reduced in amount to the extent that the applicant substitutes cash therefor.

(e)

Supplemental rental assistance payments. Rental assistance payments are available for qualified mobile home owners for whom affordable replacement housing has not been identified. The amount of the rental assistance payment shall be sufficient to cover the gap between the rent of the identified eligible unit and the mobile home owner's affordability. Affordability will be based on gross household income, adjusted for household size as defined by the State Housing Initiatives Partnership Program (SHIP), F.S. § 420.907, using the rents published annually for the SHIP program, adjusted for utilities.

(1)

Applications for supplemental rental assistance. Mobile home owners requesting rental assistance will be required to complete an application for rental assistance in a form acceptable to the county or its designee within 90 days following receipt of notice to vacate the property or final approval of the zoning change, whichever is later. Information contained in the application will be used to determine household affordability and housing need, and should include, but is not limited to, the following:

a.

Name, age, total gross household income, places of employment, sources of income, household assets, number of persons in the household, dates of birth, and social security numbers; and

b.

Mailing address, residency status, number of bedrooms in the current mobile home; and

c.

Documentation establishing the applicant as an owner of record for the mobile home per F.S. ch. 723; and

d.

Monthly or weekly costs of pad rental, park utility fees, and other charges collected by the park owner from the mobile home owner; and

e.

Any special needs of the residents of the unit relating to handicapped accessibility; and

f.

Signed forms authorizing verification of income/asset information provided.

(2)

Review of application. Applications will be reviewed by county staff or its designee to determine the affordability and housing needs of the mobile home owners. Failure of mobile home owners to provide timely, accurate, and complete information will make it impossible to determine housing needs and affordability and may render them ineligible for rental assistance. All applications are subject to the Public Records Laws of the State of Florida.

(3)

Housing counseling as a prerequisite. Mobile home owners requesting rental assistance must agree to receive housing counseling services as a prerequisite. County or its designee will provide individual housing counseling services to determine the housing needs and level of affordability of the mobile home owner. Rental assistance payments will be used as a resource only when affordable mobile home parks or other suitable facilities have not been identified by other means. Affordable replacement housing may be located for the mobile home owner without the need for rental assistance. Every attempt will be made to place mobile home owners onto suitable waiting lists and identify other strategies that will remove them from the rental assistance program as expeditiously as practicable.

(4)

Rental assistance payments are made to the lessor. Rental assistance payments will be made to the lessor on behalf of the mobile home owner. No payment will be made directly to any mobile home owner, guardian, or family member of a mobile home owner.

(5)

Term of rental assistance payments. The rental assistance payment benefit period must be consecutive and cannot exceed 24 months.

(6)

Eligibility for rental assistance payments. In order to be eligible for rental assistance payments, mobile home owners must meet the following criteria:

a.

Be an eligible owner of a mobile home as defined in F.S. ch. 723, who was renting a space in the subject property prior to initiation of the rezoning request, and continuing to rent such space from such date to the filing of a complete application for assistance.

b.

Has not been offered an affordable replacement unit, as defined herein, in another mobile home park or other suitable facility.

c.

Has an affordability gap, using the criteria defined herein, between the cost of the identified replacement unit and the affordable rent as published by the State of Florida's State Housing Initiative Partnership Program for the mobile home owner's household income category.

Is a full-time resident in good standing as evidenced by being current in rents and other fees due to the park owner, unless such rents and other fees are being withheld due to a bona fide order by a court of law pending resolution of legal action.

Has provided complete and accurate information in the application for rental assistance described herein.

f.

Has completed the housing counseling prerequisite and complied with all recommendations provided by the housing counselors.

(f)

Advance of rental assistance payments. If applicant posts a letter of credit pursuant to subsection (d), the county shall provide applicant with a good faith written estimate 20 days prior to commencement of a calendar quarter of the total amount of rental assistance payments and administrative costs anticipated to be required for such quarter, less any funds remaining from prior payments by applicant. The applicant shall advance such estimate amount to the county within ten days of receipt of such estimate, failing which the county may draw such amount under the letter of credit. If within the ten-day period, applicant objects in writing to county's estimate, applicant and county shall meet to try to resolve the matter within 30 days after applicant's objection, failing which the county may draw on the letter of credit.

(g)

Refund to applicant. All rental assistance monies provided by the applicant and any interest earned thereon and not used as rental assistance payments will be returned to the applicant within 90 days following the end of the rental assistance period. The administrative fee is not refundable.

(Ord. No. 05-92, § 6, 12-20-05)

Cross reference— Boards, commissions, councils and authorities, § 2-226 et seq.

Sec. 54-26. - Created.

There is hereby created a countywide emergency medical services authority, hereinafter called the "authority." The governing body of the authority and its membership shall be the Board of County Commissioners of Pinellas County. Four members of the authority shall constitute a quorum. The chairperson of the Emergency Medical Services Advisory Council shall be an ex officio member of the authority without voting privileges. The authority shall keep a record of its transactions, resolutions, findings, determinations, recommendations and orders, which record shall be a public record.

(Laws of Fla. ch. 80-585, § 1; Laws of Fla. Ch. 2001-305, § 1)

Sec. 54-27. - Powers and duties.

The authority shall have the following powers and duties:

(1)

To employ and compensate such personnel, consultants, and technical and professional assistants as it may deem necessary and which shall include an emergency medical services medical director.

(2)

To make and enter into contracts and agreements.

(3)

To hold public hearings and sponsor public forums.

(4)

To sue and be sued in its own name.

(5)

To accept and use funds, grants, and services from the federal, state, county, or municipal governments, or any agency thereof.

(6)

To receive and disburse all funds collected through ad valorem taxation as authorized in section 54-32.

(7)

To receive and disburse all additional funds which from time to time may be appropriate from the general funds of Pinellas County.

(8)

To prepare an annual budget to be approved or disapproved and to be certified by the board of county commissioners using the same fiscal year as that of the county and to cause an annual audit of the authority to be made to determine how funds provided to the various emergency medical services have been expended.

(9)

To establish uniform standards which shall be equal to or stricter than those provided in F.S. ch. 401, insofar as it relates to emergency medical services and the Department of Health EMS Rules, Chapter 10D-66, as they exist and may hereafter be amended, and to provide for the enforcement of same. The authority has the power to establish levels of service for all emergency medical services that must be met by EMS providers; provided that levels of service on or after the effective date of this article may not be lower than levels of service as of January 1, 1989, without the consent of the affected EMS providers; and provided further that an EMS provider may not be required to increase its level of service to a level of service established by the authority that results in the authority reducing the payment of reimbursable costs to EMS providers because the total reimbursable costs would exceed the 1.5 millage authorized by this article.

(10)

The authority shall, by resolution, provide for designation of districts in the special taxing district within the territorial boundaries of Pinellas County. The authority may thereupon provide for an ad valorem assessment within the designated districts based upon the needs of such designated districts but not to exceed a maximum of 1.5 mills.

(11)

To impose and collect reasonable fees and charges for the provision of emergency medical services, which fees and charges shall be in addition to and not in lieu of the ad valorem taxes authorized by this article.

(12)

To establish uniform standards for, and issue certificates for, paratransit services for persons who require wheelchair or stretcher transport.

(Laws of Fla. ch. 80-585, § 2; Laws of Fla. ch. 89-424, § 1; Laws of Fla. ch. 94-416, § 1; Laws of Fla. ch. 2001-305, § 2)

Sec. 54-28. - Provision of emergency medical services.

The authority shall make provision for EMS in any designated districts. This may be done on a contract management basis where new services are to be provided. However, where EMS are already being provided, full reimbursement shall be made by the authority to the EMS provider for the reasonable and customary cost of said services, such cost to be defined by the authority. The firm receiving said management contract will operate under the direction of the EMS medical director, carrying out such policies and programs as the authority deems necessary. In determining reimbursable costs pursuant to this section, where EMS are already being provided, the authority may take into consideration the standards and levels of service established pursuant to section 54-27 and may reimburse the EMS providers for reasonable actual costs incurred in providing EMS in accordance with the standards and levels of service established by the authority. However, neither the authority nor the board of county commissioners may be required to pay or budget for the payment of reimbursable costs to the EMS providers if that payment would cause the annual budget of the authority to exceed the 1.5 millage authorized by this article. If budget requests approved by the authority for the new fiscal year exceed the total estimated revenue available, including ad valorem tax revenue generated by 1.5 mills, the authority shall:

(1)

Calculate the percentage of each provider's share of the total requested and approved increases in the authority's budget for the new fiscal year.

(2)

Calculate the revenue available for funding increases by subtracting the approved authority budget for the current fiscal year from the total estimated revenue available for the new fiscal year.

(3)

Multiply the percentage calculated in subsection (1) for each provider requesting an increase, by the amount calculated in subsection (2), and add the resulting amount to that provider's approved budget for the current fiscal year. This amount will be the total budgeted for that provider for the new fiscal year.

(Laws of Fla. ch. 80-585, § 3; Laws of Fla. ch. 89-424, § 3; Laws of Fla. ch. 2001-305, § 3)

No existing municipal emergency medical services department within Pinellas County may be abolished without the express consent of the governing body of that department.

(Laws of Fla. ch. 80-585, § 4)

Members shall constitute a broad spectrum of county representation and shall include members of the emergency medical services system and four mayors (or each mayor's designee, who shall be an elected official from the respective city) to be appointed by the Pinellas County Council of Mayors. The term of appointment shall be for two years; however, there is no limit on the number of terms an individual may serve. The director of emergency medical services for Pinellas County shall be a nonvoting member of the council. It shall be the responsibility of this council to evaluate the county's emergency medical services system from a qualitative point of view, to review the operation of EMS on a countywide basis, to recommend requirements and programs for the contract management firm and monitor performance of same, to review and evaluate studies commissioned by the authority upon the authority's request, and to make such recommendations as may be necessary to the authority on needs, problems and opportunities relating to emergency medical services, including the financing and establishment of a trauma center or centers, and to carry out such other duties as may be required to ensure the delivery of good, countywide EMS at reasonable cost.

(Laws of Fla. ch. 80-585, § 5; Laws of Fla. ch. 2001-305, § 4)

ARTICLE V. - EMERGENCY ACCESS TO GATED DEVELOPMENTS

Sec. 54-121. - Findings.

(a)

It is vital to the public health, safety and welfare of the citizens of Pinellas County that law enforcement and emergency vehicles gain timely entry into developments with access limited by security gates.

(b)

Currently, each gated development has its own unique method of providing access to emergency vehicles, including remote control devices, keys, cards and emergency phone numbers.

(c)

Due to the growing prevalence of gated developments in the area, it has become burdensome and confusing for emergency personnel to carry different access devices for all of the gated developments in the area.

(d)

The consequences of delay or confusion over how to gain entry into a particular development could be tragic.

(e)

It is in the interest of public health, safety and welfare to ensure that gated developments provide a uniform method of access by law enforcement and emergency vehicles which will reduce confusion and shorten response times to emergencies, thereby potentially saving lives.

(Ord. No. 98-4, § 1, 1-6-98)

Sec. 54-122. - Definitions.

(Ord. No. 98-4, § 3, 1-6-98)

Sec. 54-124. - Emergency vehicle access system.

(Ord. No. 98-4, § 4, 1-6-98)

(Ord. No. 98-4, § 7, 1-6-98)

Sec. 54-128. - Minimum access.

Recertification of users will consist of a class which will review the techniques for using the AED following a standardized curriculum. Recertification training shall be provided as in paragraph (3) above.

(6)

EMS may conduct a quality assurance review after use of an AED that includes gathering clinical data and information from the person that used the AED and from the AED itself.

(Laws of Fla. ch. 90-403, § 3)

Cross reference— Definitions generally, § 1-2.

Sec. 58-28. - Civil penalty; assessment of damages; joint and several liability.

The board may institute a civil action in a court of competent jurisdiction to establish liability and to recover damages for any pollution, or any degradation, alteration, or elimination, of or to the air, water, soil, natural resources, or animal or plant life of the county, caused by any violation of the ordinances, rules, or regulations adopted by the board and to impose and recover a civil penalty for each such violation in an amount of not more than $10,000.00 for each offense. (Laws of Fla. ch. 90-403, § 4; Laws of Fla. ch. 2005-294, § 4)

Sec. 58-29. - Declaration of legislative intent.

The legislature finds and declares that the reasonable control and regulation of activities that are causing or may reasonably be expected to cause pollution or damage to the air, water, soil, natural resources, or animal or plant life in Pinellas County is necessary for the protection and preservation of the public health, safety, and welfare. The legislature, through F.S. ch. 187, the state comprehensive plan, and F.S. ch. 163, pt. II (F.S. § 153.3161 et seq.), the local government comprehensive planning and land development regulation act, mandates that each county, through the preparation and adoption of a comprehensive plan, preserve and enhance present advantages; encourage the most appropriate use of land, water, and natural resources consistent with the public interest; overcome present handicaps; and deal effectively with future problems that may result from the use and development of land and water within its jurisdiction. The legislature further finds that the conservation and coastal management elements of the Pinellas County comprehensive plan mandate the protection of marine and estuarine habitats, surface waters, endangered and threatened species, and native vegetation and its associated wildlife. The legislature further finds that the penalty and investigative authority of the board of county commissioners of Pinellas County, pursuant to F.S. ch. 125, is inadequate for the investigation and enforcement of local environmental ordinances and regulations. It is the intent and purpose of this article to provide the board of county commissioners of Pinellas County with the power and authority to impose and recover a civil penalty for, to have limited rights of entry for monitoring, investigating, and analyzing, and to order emergency orders for, infractions of ordinances of Pinellas County, in order to effectively enforce, for the citizens of and visitors to that county, standards that will ensure the protection, enhancement, and restoration of the air, water, soil, natural resources, and animal and plant life of that county.

(Laws of Fla. ch. 90-403, § 2)

Sec. 58-30. - Construction of article.

The provisions of this article must be liberally construed in order to effectively carry out the purposes of this article in the interest of the public health, safety, and general welfare. The provisions of this article are not intended and may not be construed as superseding or conflicting with any statutory provisions relating to, or rules adopted by, the department of health and rehabilitative services, the department of environmental regulation, the department of natural resources, or the Southwest Florida Water Management District, but must be construed as implementing and assisting the enforcement thereof.

(Laws of Fla. ch. 90-403, § 8)

Sec. 58-31. - Applicability of article.

This article applies to the unincorporated area of the county and to the incorporated area of the county to the extent permitted by Fla. Const. art. VIII, § 1(g) and the Home Rule Charter for Pinellas County (Laws of Fla.

ch. 80-590), as amended.

(Laws of Fla. ch. 90-403, § 9)

Sec. 58-32. - Emergency order.

If a violation of any ordinance, rule, or regulation adopted by the board pertaining to the regulation of air, water, soil, noise, natural resources, or animal or plant life in the county creates an immediate health or safety hazard, threatens immediate serious damage to the public health, or threatens or causes irreparable injury or damage to the air, water, soil, natural resources, or animal or plant life or property, the board may order immediate cessation of the operations causing such condition. Any person who receives such an order for cessation of operations shall immediately comply with the requirements of the order. It is unlawful for any person to fail or refuse to comply with an emergency order issued and served pursuant to this section.

(Laws of Fla. ch. 90-403, § 7)

The board of county commissioners finds that the growth in the amount, complexity, and concentration of air pollution in the county brought about by increasing urbanization, industrial development, and the increasing number and use of motor vehicles has resulted in mounting dangers to the public health and welfare, including injury to the public health, injury to agricultural crops and livestock, and damage to and deterioration of property.

It is not the intention of the board of county commissioners to perform compliance or enforcement activities on facilities owned or operated by the county.

(d)

It is the intent of the board of county commissioners as a department of environmental protection (DEP) approved local air program to act as the DEP's agent within the county to the extent that the department has delegated various state air program activities to the county.

(e)

It is the intent of the board of county commissioners to enter into and maintain a general operating agreement with DEP and an air program specific operating agreement with the Division of Air Resources Management, Southwest District office to specify the extent to which various air program activities have been delegated to the county.

The purpose and effect of any provisions of federal law adopted here in relation to Pinellas County shall be determined by the context in which it is applied. Procedural and substantive requirements in the incorporated federal laws are binding as a matter of county ordinance where the context so provides.

The board of county commissioners finds and declares that the open burning of materials outdoors and the use of outdoor heating devices result in or contribute to air pollution. The board further finds that regulation of open burning and outdoor heating devices will reduce air pollution significantly.

(b)

It is the intent of the board of county commissioners to require that open burning be conducted in a manner, under conditions and within certain periods that will reduce or eliminate the deleterious and noisome effect of air pollution caused by open burning.

(Ord. No. 76-18, § 5, 9-21-76)

Sec. 58-213. - Burning for cold or frost protection.

The fire chief, or his representative, if permission to burn is granted, shall issue a written permit which shall be kept at the burn site by the applicant and shall be presented upon demand by law enforcement or fire personnel.

(3)

The permit may be revoked for failure to comply with the provisions of this section, or, if so determined by the fire chief or his authorized representative, the open burn is creating a public nuisance due to smoke, flying ash, air traffic or road traffic hazard.

(4)

The division of forestry and the fire control district affected shall be notified each day before the open burn is started.

(5)

The application for approval shall contain:

a.

The name, address, and telephone number of the applicant;

There shall be no dredging beyond the bulkhead line for the sole purpose of providing fill for upland or submerged land within the bulkhead line. Sec. 58-441. - Definitions.

The following words, terms and phrases, when used in this article, shall have the meanings ascribed to them in this section, except where the context clearly indicates a different meaning:

A-weighted level (dBA) means the total broadband sound level of the noise spectrum as measured using the "A-weighted network" of a sound level meter. The unit of measurement is the dBA. Sound level meter settings shall be for slow response, except for motor vehicle measurements which shall be fast response.

Ambient noise means the all-encompassing noise associated with a given environment, being usually a composite of sound from many sources near and far.

Commercial zone means any geographic area designated for commercial or professional activities by the zoning authority having jurisdiction over such area, and also includes any area that is designated as institutional on the countywide future land use map.

Continuous noise means a noise which remains essentially constant in level during the period of observation.

County means Pinellas County.

Decibel (dB) means a division of a logarithmic scale used to express the ratio of two like quantities proportional to power or energy. The ratio is expressed in decibels by multiplying its common logarithm by ten.

Emergency means a situation wherein immediate work is necessary to restore property to a safe condition following a public calamity or immediate work is required to protect persons or property from an imminent exposure to danger.

Gross combination weight rating (GCWR) means the value specified by the manufacturer as the loaded weight of a combination vehicle.

Gross vehicle weight rating (GVWR) means the value specified by the manufacturer as the loaded weight of a single vehicle.

Impulsive noise means a noise which is characterized by brief excursions of sound pressure which significantly exceed the ambient noise level.

Industrial zone means any geographic area designated for industrial or manufacturing activities by the zoning authority having jurisdiction over such area.

Intermittent noise means a noise whose sound pressure level exceeds the ambient noise level at either regular or irregular intervals.

Motor-driven cycle means every motorcycle and every motor scooter with a motor which produces not to exceed five-brake horsepower, including every bicycle with a motor attached.

Motor vehicle means any vehicle which is self-propelled and every vehicle which is propelled by electric power obtained from overhead trolley wires, but not operated upon rails.

Motorcycle means any motor vehicle having a seat or saddle for the use of the rider and designed to travel on not more than three wheels in contact with the ground, but excluding a tractor.

Noise means one or a group of loud, harsh, nonharmonious sounds or vibrations that are unpleasant and irritating to the ear.

Noise level means the sound pressure level as measured in dBA unless otherwise specified. A measurement of noise must be at least five dB above the ambient noise level.

Octave band means all of the components in a sound spectrum whose frequencies are between two sine-wave components separated by an octave.

Residential zone means any geographic area designated for single-family or multifamily dwellings by the zoning authority having jurisdiction over such area.

Sound level meter means an instrument to measure the sound pressure level of relatively continuous and broadband noises. The sound level meter used to determine compliance with this article shall meet or exceed the requirements for type 2 sound level meter in accordance with ANSI Standard S1-4.

Sound pressure level means the square ratio, expressed in decibels, of the sound pressure under consideration to the standard reference pressure of 0.0002 dyne/cm^2. The ratio is squared because pressure squared, and not pressure, is proportional to energy.

Vehicle means any device, in, upon or by which any person or property is or may be transported or drawn upon a highway, except devices moved by human power or used exclusively upon stationary rails or tracks.

ARTICLE XIII. - LANDSCAPE MAINTENANCE AND FERTILIZER USE AND APPLICATION

Sec. 58-471. - Findings of fact.

As a result of adverse impacts to Pinellas County waters caused by excessive nutrients resulting from improper landscape maintenance practices and the incorrect or unnecessary application of fertilizers containing phosphorus and/or nitrogen, the Pinellas County Board of County Commissioners has determined that the lands and waters of Pinellas County are at particularly high risk for adverse effects to surface and ground water from such fertilizer containing phosphorus and/or nitrogen, particularly when not applied in accordance with best management practices established by the Florida Department of Environmental Protection (FDEP), the Florida Department of Agriculture and Consumer Services (DACS), and the University of Florida Institute of Food and Agricultural Sciences (UF/IFAS).

(Ord. No. 10-06, § 1, 1-19-10)

Sec. 58-472. - Purpose and intent.

This article regulates the proper use of fertilizers by any applicator and requires proper training of commercial and institutional fertilizer applicators and landscape maintenance companies by establishing a restricted season for fertilizer application, fertilizer-free zones, low maintenance zones, exemptions, training, and licensing requirements. The article requires the use of best management practices which provide specific management guidelines to minimize negative secondary and cumulative environmental effects associated with the misuse of fertilizers and improper landscape maintenance practices. These secondary and cumulative effects have been observed in and on Pinellas County's natural and artificial stormwater and drainage conveyances, rivers, lakes, canals, estuaries, interior freshwater wetlands, and Tampa Bay. Collectively, these water bodies are an asset critical to the environmental, recreational, cultural and economic well-being of Pinellas County residents and the health of the public. Overgrowth of algae and vegetation hinder the effectiveness of flood attenuation provided by natural and artificial stormwater and drainage conveyances. Regulation of nutrients, including both phosphorus and nitrogen contained in fertilizer, will help improve and maintain water and habitat quality.

Cross reference— Boards, commissions, councils and authorities, § 2-226 et seq.; special districts, ch. 114.

Sec. 62-26. - Declaration of legislative intent and purpose.

(a)

The legislature finds and declares that it has become mandatory to protect the life and property of all citizens of Pinellas County by providing a means of establishing fire protection to all areas within the county not now adequately protected, as well as promoting improved fire prevention throughout the county.

(b)

The legislature further finds and declares that with a myriad of local fire departments in Pinellas County, it is essential that a permanent fire protection authority be created which can overcome existing deficiencies in terms of unprotected areas, improperly funded existing fire departments and the lack of a cohesive fire protection plan for the county as a single unit.

(c)

It is, therefore, the intent of this article to create a permanent fire protection authority in Pinellas County to implement objectives which shall include but not be limited to the following:

(1)

The extension of fire protection to all residents not presently having such service;

(2)

The utilization of additional personnel and facilities and the upgrading of present facilities to meet the growing responsibilities of an expanded population in areas already having fire protection service, and to achieve higher local service ratings in an effort to achieve lower insurance rates for each area; and

(3)

The eventual use of regular, full-time firefighters as the nucleus of manpower in all fire protection agencies in the county.

(Laws of Fla. ch. 73-600, § 1)

Sec. 62-27. - Created; membership; fire protection plan; quorum; records.

The authority shall be empowered to establish and implement a permanent plan of fire protection for the county and each of its municipalities, as set forth in this article. Three members of the authority shall constitute a quorum. The authority shall keep a record of its transactions, resolutions, findings, determinations, recommendations and orders, which record shall be a public record.

(Laws of Fla. ch. 73-600, § 2)

Sec. 62-28. - Powers and duties.

To hold public hearings and sponsor public forums.

(4)

To sue and be sued in its own name.

(5)

(6)

To determine the compensation to be paid to a municipal or volunteer fire department for service provided by it to the unincorporated areas within its district.

(7)

To receive and disburse all funds collected within a district through ad valorem taxation as authorized in section 62-31, keeping such funds segregated according to the district in which they were collected.

(8)

To compel municipal and volunteer fire departments within the county to provide fire protection to the unincorporated areas within their respective fire protection districts.

(9)

To determine minimum service levels, as defined by the Insurance Services Office, for each municipal and volunteer fire department and fire protection district within the county, and to compel such departments to take any action necessary to ensure that they are operating at the minimum level prescribed by the authority. Responsibility for the maintenance and operation of individual fire departments shall remain vested in the respective municipality having a fire department and with volunteer fire departments and fire control districts.

(10)

To provide municipal and volunteer fire departments with funds derived from ad valorem taxation within their respective fire control districts for the purpose of expanding their facilities and upgrading their local service rating.

(11)

To receive and disburse all additional funds which from time to time may be appropriated from the general fund of the county.

(12)

To prepare an annual budget, using the same fiscal year as that of the county, and to cause an annual audit of the authority to be made to determine how funds provided to the municipal fire departments, volunteer fire departments and fire control districts under the provisions of this article have been expended.

(13)

To establish uniform standards as to the size of water lines and the distribution of fire hydrants, and to direct all local governments in the county to adopt regulations complying with such standards.

(14)

To develop and implement a plan of installation of fire hydrants and water lines in areas within the districts not now having adequate facilities.

(15)

To implement countywide reciprocal, mutual, or outside assistance programs among all municipal fire departments, volunteer fire departments and fire control districts, and compensation plans for such programs.

(16)

To compel adherence by an unincorporated area to the provisions and requirements of the Standard Fire Prevention Code, or to the fire and building codes established by the political subdivision or fire department providing fire protection in its respective district, if the fire and building codes of such political subdivision or fire department contain standards equivalent to or more stringent than the Standard Fire Prevention Code.

(17)

To divide the county into fire protection districts, such districts not becoming effective until sections 62-29, 62-30 and 62-31 of this article have been fully complied with.

(Laws of Fla. ch. 73-600, § 3)

Sec. 62-29. - Elections to establish fire control districts.

Within 90 days from the effective date of this article, the board of county commissioners shall call elections within each of the proposed fire control districts and no fire control district shall become operative unless such district shall have been approved by a majority of the electors voting in each such election. Such elections are to be held in the manner prescribed by law for elections to issue bonds.

(Laws of Fla. ch. 73-600, § 4)

Sec. 62-30. - Ballots for elections.

The ballots for the elections described in section 62-29 shall be arranged so that each voter may register either his approval or disapproval of the creation of the proposed fire control district. The ballot shall clearly set forth that if the fire control district is approved, all rental property within the unincorporated areas of the proposed fire control district shall be subject to an ad valorem real property tax sufficient to pay its pro rata share of the budget of the department within that fire control district, as provided in section 62-31, and it shall further clearly advise that such millage is not enclosed within the ten mill limit imposed by the constitution and statutes of this state on ad valorem taxation.

(Laws of Fla. ch. 73-600, § 5)

Sec. 62-31. - Requirement of ad valorem taxation.

Upon a fire control district becoming operative as provided by this article, the board of county commissioners shall cause to be levied an ad valorem tax on real property in the unincorporated areas within such fire control district, sufficient to pay the pro rata share of the costs of providing such protection to those areas. Determination of what the pro rata share of the costs for providing fire protection to the unincorporated areas within a fire control district is shall be made by the authority. Such determination shall be made based on a comparison of the value of the real property within the unincorporated areas in a fire control district to the value of the real property within the incorporated area of that fire control district. Such tax shall be included in the taxes assessed on the regular county tax rolls. All tax revenues collected within a fire control district shall be deposited in a separate designated account for each district, such account being under the control of the authority.

(Laws of Fla. ch. 73-600, § 6)

Sec. 62-32. - Fire protection for unincorporated areas.

Upon a fire control district becoming operative, the authority shall direct the appropriate municipal or volunteer fire department therein to provide fire protection to the unincorporated areas within the fire control district. The compensation to be paid to a municipal or volunteer fire department for providing service to the unincorporated areas within its respective fire control district shall be paid by the authority. Such compensation shall be determined based on the annual budget submitted to the authority by the respective departments, with the unincorporated area within a fire control district being obligated to pay its pro rata share of the budget of the department within its fire control district based on a comparison of the value of real property within the unincorporated areas in a fire control district to the value of real property within the incorporated area of the fire control district.

(Laws of Fla. ch. 73-600, § 7)

Sec. 62-33. - Effect of annexation of unincorporated areas.

For the purposes and requirements of this article, after the annexation by a municipality of any unincorporated area within a fire control district established under this article, the annexed area:

Shall be treated as lying within the corporate boundaries of the annexing municipality; and

Shall not be subject to a levy of the ad valorem tax which is authorized in the unincorporated areas by section 62-31 of this article.

A complainant may request reconsideration of a no cause finding within 15 days of receipt of the written report by notifying the director of such request in writing, with the specific grounds therefor included. Within 15 days of receipt of a request for reconsideration, the director shall issue a final determination, unless it is decided that further investigation must be conducted, in which case the final determination shall be issued within 45 days.

(2)

The administrative law judge may issue a subpoena or subpoena duces tecum at the request of any party to a hearing or other proceedings. The issuance of such subpoena and subpoena duces tecum at the request of a party shall depend upon a showing of the necessity therefor.

(2)

All motions and orders thereon shall be made a part of the record of such administrative proceedings.

(3)

If there are separately filed cases before the administrative law judge which involve similar issues of law and fact and identity of parties, then such cases may be consolidated for hearing before the administrative law judge.

(4)

Discovery shall be permitted upon motion of any party and shall proceed in the manner provided by the Florida Rules of Civil Procedure.

(5)

The administrative law judge shall order a pre-hearing conference prior to any administrative hearing. (9)

The official transcript of a hearing shall be preserved by tape recording, shorthand, court reporter or any similar means or combination. A party may request the commission to provide a court reporter for a hearing where the commission has elected not to do so. In such event, the requesting party shall be responsible for payment of the court reporter's per diem expense and any costs of transcribing the record.

(10)

All parties shall have an opportunity to respond, to present evidence and argument on all issues involved, to conduct cross-examination and submit rebuttal evidence, to submit proposed findings of facts and orders, to file exceptions to any order or administrative law judge's recommended order, and to be represented by counsel. When appropriate, the general public may be given an opportunity to present oral or written communications. The administrative law judge shall allow each party at least ten days in which to submit written exceptions to the recommended order. The recommended order must include specific factual findings by the administrative law judge relating to his or her jurisdiction over the complaint. The administrative law judge shall respond to submitted written exceptions and issue a final order within 30 days of the hearing.

(14)

The State of Florida.

Independent contractor shall have the same meaning as in the Internal Revenue Code and implementing federal regulations.

Reasonable cause means the existence of sufficiently reliable and probative evidence for a reasonable person of ordinary prudence and caution to believe it is more likely than not wage theft has occurred.

Reasonable time shall be presumed to be no later than 14 days from the date on which the work is performed unless the employer has established, by policy or practice, a pay schedule whereby employees earn and are consistently paid wages according to regularly recurring pay periods in which case such pay schedule shall govern.

Threshold amount means $60.00.

Wage rate means any form of monetary compensation which the employee agreed to accept in exchange for performing work for the employer, whether daily, hourly, or by piece but in all cases shall be equal to no less than the highest applicable rate established by operation of any federal, state or local law. It shall include earned paid time off, leave, vacation or sick pay.

(Ord. No. 15-44, 11-10-15)

Sec. 70-306. - Wage theft violations.

For any employer to fail to pay any portion of wages due to an employee, according to the wage rate applicable to that employee, within a reasonable time from the date on which that employee performed the work for which those wages were compensation, shall be wage theft; and such a violation shall entitle an employee, upon a finding by a special magistrate appointed by the county or by a court of competent jurisdiction that an employer is found to have unlawfully failed to pay wages, to receive three times the amount of back wages.

(Ord. No. 15-44, 11-10-15)

Sec. 70-307. - Procedures for wage theft complaints.

(a)

Filing wage theft complaints.

(1)

Threshold amount. In order for a complaint to be submitted to the county by, or on behalf of, an aggrieved employee, that employee must allege a wage theft violation in which the unpaid wages are equal to no less than the threshold amount.

(2)

An employee aggrieved by a wage theft violation may file a sworn written, signed complaint, provided by the county, using the procedures set forth.

(3)

A signed complaint for wage theft must be filed with the county no later than one year after the last date upon which the employee performed the work for an employer with regard to which the employee alleges a violation of this section has occurred ("filing deadline"); however, with respect to alleged ongoing violations, once a complaint has been made in compliance with the filing deadline, the county's investigative capacity is limited only by the applicable statute(s) of limitations.

(4)

The complaint shall set forth the facts upon which it is based with sufficient specificity to identify the employer or employers and for the county to determine both that an allegation of wage theft has been made and that the threshold amount has been met.

(b)

Respondent.

(1)

Upon the filing of any complaint, the county shall promptly determine that the wage theft complaint alleges wage theft, names at least one employer and meets the threshold amount criterion. The duty of the county in determining whether a complaint meets this criterion is limited to receiving the complaint and comparing the information provided in the complaint to the criteria required herein. This determination is a ministerial act and may not be based on further investigation or the exercise of independent judgment.

(2)

Upon making such determination, the county shall serve the complaint and a written notice on the employer or person charged with the commission of a wage theft practice, setting forth the allegations, rights and obligations of the parties, including, but not limited to, the right to a due process hearing on the matter before a special magistrate and that the employer may be responsible for the costs of the special magistrate and other enforcement costs. Such service shall be by mail.

(3)

Each employer shall file an answer to the complaint with the county not later than 21 days after receipt of the complaint and notice.

(c)

Conciliation or mediation.

(1)

It is the policy of the county to encourage conciliation of charges. The county will work with the parties in an attempt to conciliate a complaint.

(2)

A conciliation agreement arising out of such conciliation shall be an agreement between the employer and the employee.

(3)

Whenever a party believes that the other party has breached a conciliation agreement, the aggrieved party may file a civil action in a court of competent jurisdiction for enforcement of such agreement.

(4)

Nothing said or done in the course of attempting conciliation under this section may be used as evidence in any subsequent proceeding under this section or otherwise without the written consent of the parties to the underlying charge of violation.

(5)

Upon failure of conciliation or mediation, the county shall issue notice of the same to the parties.

(d)

Hearing before special magistrate.

(1)

Within 30 days after the county determines that a complaint meets the criterion for wage theft, the county shall appoint a special magistrate that it deems to be qualified to hear wage theft matters. In conducting any hearing to determine whether a violation of this section has occurred, the special magistrate shall have the authority to administer oaths, issue subpoenas in accordance with subsection (b), below, and compel the production of and receive evidence. The special magistrate shall have the authority to consolidate two or more complaints into a single hearing where such complaints name the same employer(s) and involve sufficiently similar allegations of fact to justify consolidation. The final determination of the special magistrate in wage theft matters is subject to appeal in a court of competent jurisdiction.

(2)

In any hearing before the special magistrate pursuant to this section, the employer may file a written answer to the complaint. All parties shall appear at the hearing in person, with or without counsel, and may submit evidence, cross-examine witnesses, obtain issuance of subpoenas and otherwise be heard. Testimony taken at the hearing shall be under oath and a transcript shall be made available at cost to any interested party. The special magistrate may allow persons to appear by telephone or video conference.

(3)

Discovery shall be permitted upon motion of any party and shall proceed in the manner provided by the Florida Rules of Civil Procedure.

(4)

The special magistrate may direct that the parties submit a pre-hearing statement addressing the issues of law and fact that will be involved in such hearing, identify the witnesses that will testify, and provide a list of all documents or other types of exhibits that will be submitted.

(5)

Upon the conclusion of the hearing, an adjudicative final order shall be issued and served upon the parties setting forth written findings of fact and conclusions or law.

(6)

In any proceeding under this section, the burden of proof by a preponderance of the evidence rests upon the employee except as provided in subsection (f) of this section.

(7)

All such hearings shall be de novo.

(e)

Subpoenas.

(1)

If a special magistrate is appointed, any party may request that a subpoena be issued by the special magistrate.

(2)

Within ten days after service of a subpoena upon any person, such person may petition the special magistrate to revoke or modify the subpoena. The special magistrate shall grant the petition if it finds that the subpoena requires appearance or attendance at an unreasonable time or place, that it requires production of evidence which does not relate to the matter, that it does not describe with sufficient particularity the evidence to be produced, that compliance would be unduly onerous, or for other good reason.

(3)

Upon refusal to obey a subpoena, the special magistrate or any party may seek enforcement of a subpoena issued under the authority of this section by filing a petition for enforcement in the County Court of Pinellas County, Florida.

(4)

(f)

Standards for resolving factual disputes.

(1)

The burden of proof with respect to adequate records falls on the employer who fails to keep accurate records. The employer must come forward with evidence of the precise amount of work performed or with evidence to negate the reasonableness of the inference to be drawn from the employee's evidence.

(2)

The employer fails to keep adequate records when the following three conditions are met:

a.

Where by operation of some other statute or regulation, an employer has an obligation to keep records of an employee's hours worked and/or records of compensation provided to an employee; and

b.

Where such records are imprecise, inadequate or do not exist; and

c.

Where an employee presents sufficient evidence to show, as a matter of just and reasonable inference, the amount of work done or the extent of work done or what compensation is due for the work done;

(3)

If the employer fails to meet this burden, the special magistrate may award approximate damages based on the employee's evidence.

(g)

Applicability of Florida Rules of Civil Procedure.

(1)

The provisions or Rule 1.090, Florida Rules of Civil Procedure, shall govern the computation of any period of time prescribed or allowed by this section or by rules, regulations, or orders adopted pursuant to this section.

(2)

All papers or pleadings required by this section to be served may be served by mail or in accordance with Rule 1.080, Florida Rules of Civil Procedure.

(Ord. No. 15-44, 11-10-15)

Sec. 70-308. - Enforcement of wage theft violations.

(a)

Order issued. At the conclusion of a hearing and upon a finding of a wage violation, the special magistrate shall issue a written final order as follows:

(1)

If the preponderance of the evidence demonstrates a wage theft violation, the special magistrate shall order the employer to pay wage restitution to the affected employee in an amount equal to three times the amount of back wages that the employer is found to have unlawfully failed to pay the employee; this treble amount shall include the back wages as compensation for the economic losses suffered by reason of the employee not receiving their wage at the time it was due; and

(2)

The special magistrate shall order the employer to pay to the board of county commissioners an assessment of costs in an amount not to exceed actual administrative processing costs and costs of the hearing.

(b)

Failure to comply with final order. If the county finds that any employer has failed to comply with the special magistrate's order within 45 days after written notice from the special magistrate, the county shall issue a further written order on the employer as follows:

(1)

The county shall, upon request of the employer, grant the employer an additional 45 days to comply with any portion of the order, unless such an extension has previously been granted; or

The county shall order the employer, in addition to wage restitution ordered, to pay the prevailing employee an amount equal to the applicable interest rate which accrues on the full amount of treble damages from the date upon which the findings of wage violation was made until the date upon which the amount is paid in full; and

(3)

The county shall order the employer, in addition to assessment of costs ordered, to pay to the board of county commissioners and amount equal to the applicable interest rate which accrues on the assessment of costs from the date upon which the special magistrate's order is issued until the date upon which the amount is paid in full.

(4)

This section shall be enforced pursuant to F.S. § 125.69 and injunctive relief.

(c)

Joint and severable liability. In any order issued by the special magistrate, the county may specify two or more employers as jointly and severally liable for any amount payable to the employee or the county or both; however, the total amount the employee or the county may receive from jointly and severally liable employers shall not exceed the total amount for which employers are jointly and severally liable.

(d)

Cumulative rights preserved. Nothing in this section shall be construed to limit, preclude or in any way abrogate the cumulative rights or remedies available to employees at common law or by other statute which were not the subject of an employee's complaint.

(e)

In any subsequent enforcement proceedings authorized by this section, a court may award to the prevailing party all or part of the costs and attorney's fees incurred in obtaining the court order.

(f)

Enforcement by private persons or by the State of Florida.

(1)

Enforcement by private persons.

If during the pendency of a wage theft violation employee but prior to the issuance of a final order by a special magistrate, an employee brings a private action in their own right, whether under state law, federal law, or both, in any state or federal court to seek unpaid wages based upon the same facts and allegations as the employee's complaint to the county, or affirmatively or by consent participates in any such litigation, that employee's complaint of wage theft shall be deemed withdrawn with respect to any employer named as a defendant in such court action. This section shall be interpreted narrowly so as to leave unaffected any cumulative rights which were not the subject of an employee's complaint.

The county, upon becoming aware of any private action described herein shall advise the employee and any employer subject to the private action in writing within 15 days of this provision and its effect on the complaint. Within 30 days of the issuance of such notice, the complaint will be dismissed, with prejudice, with respect to the employer or employers who are named as a defendant to the private action.

(2)

Enforcement by the State of Florida. If at any time during the pendency of a complaint of wage theft, the county becomes aware of an enforcement action by the Florida Attorney General or other body of the State of Florida based on wage violations involving the same facts as the employee's complaint to the county, the complaint will be dismissed, with prejudice, with respect to the employer or employers named in such state enforcement action. The county shall advise the employee and any employer of such dismissal.

(Ord. No. 15-44, 11-10-15)

Sec. 70-309. - Appeals.

Any adverse decision may be appealed to a court of competent jurisdiction.

(Ord. No. 15-44, 11-10-15)

Sec. 70-310. - Retaliation.

(a)

Employers are prohibited from threatening, intimidating, or taking other adverse action against employees in retaliation for asserting any claim to wages pursuant to this section, and any such actions are violations of this article. Adverse actions include, but are not limited to, communicating to the employee, whether directly or indirectly, explicitly or implicitly, the willingness to inform a government employee that the employee is not lawfully in the United States.

(b)

Where such retaliation resulted in any loss of the employee's wages, upon a finding by a hearing officer that an employer retaliated against an employee in violation of this section, the employee is entitled to receive quantifiable damages.

(c)

Violations of the retaliation prohibition shall be determined under the same procedures as wage theft complaints, and in the same proceeding as any related wage theft complaint. The county shall order any employer who has been found to have violated the retaliation prohibition to pay to the county the actual administrative processing costs and costs of the hearing, regardless of the findings on any related wage theft claim.

(Laws of Fla. ch. 89-404, § 3)

Sec. 74-79. - Permanent status; effect of rehire; probationary promotion and extension of probation.

(a)

After classified personnel of the sheriff to whom the provisions of this division apply have served in such position for a period of one calendar year without break in service, such personnel shall have attained permanent status in the office of the sheriff, unless such personnel are placed on an extended probation.

(b)

When personnel are terminated, resign, or are otherwise separated from service, and are rehired at a later date, they shall be required to complete one calendar year of service, without break in service, following such rehire before attaining permanent status in the office of the sheriff.

(c)

Personnel in the classified service who are required to serve a probationary period attendant to a promotion shall retain permanent status in the office of the sheriff, but may be demoted to their prior rank during such probationary period for any reason and without the right of appeal as provided in this division.

(d)

When, in the sole discretion of the sheriff, an extension of a probationary period for newly hired or newly promoted personnel is warranted, such probationary period may be extended for a period [of] up to six additional months. Prior to such action described above, the member shall be furnished with written notice of the proposed action and an explanation of the reasons for the action, and offered an opportunity to respond to the reasons for the action. Written notice of disciplinary action to a department member shall be deemed to be effective upon hand delivery, or upon mailing to the member's last-known address.

The filing of felony or misdemeanor charges against sheriff's office personnel may also constitute cause for suspension. Subsequent dropping of charges shall result in automatic reinstatement, provided that independent departmental charges are not pending.

The listing of causes for suspension, demotion, or dismissal in this section is not intended to be exclusive. The sheriff may, by departmental rule, add to this listing of causes for suspension, dismissal, or demotion.

Authority. To the extent not inconsistent with Rules 40D-22, F.A.C., the county administrator or his designee may grant a variance from the terms of this section when such variance will not be contrary to the public interest and where, owing to special conditions, a literal enforcement of the provisions of this section would result in hardship on the applicant. Hardship may include, but is not limited to, physical hardship, irrigation system limitations, religious convictions or the health and safety of the applicant. Such variance shall not be granted by the county administrator or his designee unless and until a written application for a variance shall be submitted to the county utilities department demonstrating that:

a.

The variance shall not be in conflict with any other applicable ordinance or state law.

Approval by county administrator. The county administrator or his designee shall consider a variance from the terms of this section as soon as possible after submittal of the written application therefor. In granting any variance, the county administrator or his designee may prescribe appropriate conditions and safeguards to assure conformance with the criteria listed in subsection (e)(1) of this section. Violation of such conditions and safeguards, when made a part of the terms under which the variance is granted, shall be deemed a violation of this section.

Appeal. The applicant for a variance may appeal the denial of a variance by requesting a hearing before the board of county commissioners. The applicant shall have 15 days from receipt of notice of denial of the variance to request a hearing. The hearing shall occur as soon as reasonably practicable but in no event later than 35 days after receipt of the request for the hearing. The hearing shall provide for adequate due process as constitutionally required in any quasijudicial proceeding. The board of county commissioners may uphold the denial of the variance, grant the variance, or grant a variance with such terms as it deems necessary to assure conformance with the criteria listed in subsection (e)(1) of this section.

ARTICLE V. - PRESCRIPTION MANAGEMENT[4]

Footnotes:
--- (4) ---

Editor's note—Ord. No. 11-44, adopted November 8, 2011, changed the title of Article V from Pain Management Clinic to Prescription Management.

Sec. 86-125. - Authority.

This article is enacted pursuant to F.S. § 125.66 and under the home rule powers of the county in the interest of the health, peace, safety and general welfare of the people of Pinellas County and section 2.04(i) of the Pinellas County Charter.

(Ord. No. 10-26, § 1, 5-4-10)

Sec. 86-126. - Legislative findings of fact.

The county commission found that it was in the best interest of the general public and there exists a need to enact an ordinance requiring the registration of high prescribing health clinics operating in Pinellas County because of their negative impacts on citizens of the county. An opportunity to register was provided any clinic after which a moratorium on new clinics went into effect with the desire that the state Legislature would address the concerns found by the county commission. In the most recent Legislative Session the state failed to take action on this issue, therefore the county will pursue a regional approach to address the problems related to high prescribing health clinics and consider further options for enacting stricter standards of regulation consistent with our home rule authority.

(Ord. No. 10-26, § 2, 5-4-10; Ord. No. 11-44, § 1, 11-8-11; Ord. No. 12-19, § 1, 5-8-12; Ord. No. 13-16, § 1, 7-9-13)
